WILLIAM H. MOODY,
Attorney General.

JAMES R. GARFIELD,
Commissioner of Corporations.

He Did Not Promise Meat Packers Immunity from Prosecution.

None of the Information Gained Was Used Before the Grand Jury.

MR. MOODY MAKES STATEMENT

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—Attorney-General Moody today made a statement with reference to the pleas in bar filed by the defendants in the indictment against the beef packers pending in the district court at Chicago. He said he believed that the public was entitled to some accurate information with regard to the facts, and that it could be given without affecting the interests of the government or infringing upon the just rights of the accused. The statement continues:

"Ten separate pleas in bar have been filed, each one of them alleging facts which it is claimed ought to bar the government from proceeding further in this case. Eight of these pleas are based upon the alleged conduct of Mr. Garfield, commissioner of corporations, in making an investigation of the affairs of the defendants in pursuance of the authority conferred upon him by law, and in special obedience to the resolution of the house of representatives requiring him to make such investigation.

Instructions from Congress.

"The resolution under which Mr. Garfield acted is as follows:

"Resolved, That the secretary of commerce and labor be, and he is hereby requested to investigate the causes of the low prices of beef cattle in the United States since July 1, 1903, and the alleged unusually large margins between the prices of beef cattle and the selling prices of fresh beef, and whether the said conditions have resulted, in whole or in part from any contract, combination in the form of trust or otherwise, or conspiracy in restraint of commerce among the several states and territories or with foreign countries; also whether the said prices have been manipulated in whole or in part by any corporation, joint stock company, or corporate combination engaged in commerce among the several states or with foreign nations; and if so to investigate the organization, capitalization, profits, conduct and management of the business of such corporations, companies and corporate combinations, and to make early report of his findings according to law.

"Under the act creating the department of commerce and labor, the commissioner of corporations has the right to subpoena and compel the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of documentary evidence, and to administer oaths; but with regard to all persons who are subpoenaed to testify or to produce documentary evidence, it is provided that immunity from prosecution shall be given to them if they obey the commissioner's subpoena, except that they shall be liable for perjury for giving false testimony.

Make Claim of Immunity.

"The pleas in bar allege in various forms, first, that Mr. Garfield did compel the several defendants to attend under subpoena and testify and produce documents before him; second, that he waived the oath which he was authorized to require of them; third, that he promised them, for what they did with respect to the giving of testimony and production of documents, that they should receive the immunity provided by law, and fourth, that the testimony thus obtained from the defendants was delivered to the department of justice and to the district attorney, and by the latter used before the grand jury to obtain the indictment.

"It is stated by the government that Mr. Garfield did make the investigation required by the resolution of the house of representatives, and that he did receive from certain of the defendants oral information and access to the books of the defendant corporations.

"It is, however, contended by the government that the information and access to the books were given voluntarily by the defendants.

Government Makes Denial.

"The government denies in point of fact that Mr. Garfield did compel the several defendants to attend and testify and produce documents before him, or that he did subpoena any of the defendants to appear before him and testify or produced documentary evidence; or that he waived the oath which he was authorized to require of them; or that he promised them any immunity whatever in the premises; or that any evidence obtained from the defendants was delivered to or used by the department of justice or the district attorney before the grand jury which found the indictment.

"The attorney general asserts in the most positive terms that none of the in-

PRETENDER RISES TO TAKE CROWN OF RUSSIA

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 16.—A false emperor has suddenly made his appearance near Penza and already his followers number 50,000. This is the startling report received this afternoon in a dispatch from Simbirsk. Penza is in the heart of the vast region extending westward from the Volga, where agrarian uprisings on a large scale have been occurring, and if report turns out to be true that the pretender to the throne has placed himself at the head of the peasantry, the government will soon face, besides its other troubles, a formidable agrarian rebellion. It required a year to suppress the famous rebellion led by Pugatcheff, who impersonated the dethroned and murdered Peter III. in the time of Catherine II. That uprising was started in the same region, on the banks of the Volga.

Strike Is Complete.

Though the industrial tieup in St. Petersburg today was even more complete than it was yesterday and though no break has been manifested in the ranks of the workmen and strikes have broken out at Moscow and Reval, the most important feature of today's developments was the failure of the walkout to spread generally outside the capital. The movement apparently lacks the spontaneity and contagiousness of the last great strike, which broke out at Moscow, and dispatches received from the industrial centers of Russia up to this hour show little inclination on the part of the workmen to take up cudgels in behalf of Poland.

In St. Petersburg today passed with complete order. Patrols were visible in all the industrial quarters and Cossacks were trotting up and down the Nevsky Prospect among the swiftly-dashing carriages and sleighs, but the workmen, in obedience to the orders of the strike committee, kept generally indoors and did not attempt demonstrations, so that there was no occasion for a resort to force to avert trouble.

Closed All Drug Stores.

The strikers forced the closing of the Moscow railroad station early this afternoon, stopping out-going traffic for Moscow, and tonight they finally succeeded in closing the electric stations and in cutting off light from the city. Committees were sent to all the theaters and succeeded in stopping the performances in several of them, and in the outlying districts they went from drug store to drug store ordering the pharmacists to close, and threatening them with the destruction of their stocks if they refused. Other stores were not interfered with.

The action of the strikers with regard to the druggists is in striking contrast with the course pursued in Finland, where, when every other business participated in the general strike, the drug-

OBJECTION TO THE GOVERNOR SELECTING A MAYOR

VOTERS' REMEDY

BIGELOW DON'T WANT VOTE

Some excitement was created in local political circles yesterday by an interview given out by Representative L. B. Cook on his return from Harrisburg. He talked about an appointive mayor for the first executive of a greater city and said that there would be no necessity for mayoralty elections in Pittsburgh and Allegheny in February.

Mr. Cook had talked with Gov. Pennypacker about annexation legislation and the impression was given the governor favored the appointment of a mayor. Mr. Cook was careful, however, to say the executive had not so expressed himself.

While there has been considerable said about an appointive mayor, there is much opposition to such a course being followed. In both cities there is a general desire to have mayors elected in February. During the last legislature there was an effort made to have the governor given authority to name the first mayor of the consolidated city.

Another Remedy Now.

When the legislature was considering the last annexation legislation, there was a good reason for a provision giving the governor appointive power. The administrations of Pittsburgh and Allegheny then had another year. There was much dissatisfaction in both cities over the kind of government the people were getting and no other remedy was in sight.

Now there is a remedy. New mayors are to be chosen in both cities in February. The people have an opportunity to elect high-class men. There is a general feeling annexation legislation passed in the extra session should not provide for the consolidation of the two cities until a reasonable time after the spring election. As Pittsburgh is the larger city, Pittsburghers express the opinion the executive chosen in February should become the mayor of the greater town. This will put it up to the voters of Pittsburgh to select a man big enough to handle successfully the problems of the enlarged municipality.

Director Bigelow's Plan.

Mr. Cook and Director Bigelow had a talk yesterday about the territory to be included in the greater city. Mr. Bigelow would bring in Allegheny, Millvale, Etna, Sharpsburg, Aspinwall, the filtration plant, McKees Rocks, Ingram, Crafton, Carnegie, Knoxville, Homestead, Duquesne, Braddock, Wilkinsburg, Swissvale, Rankin and other towns in the districts mentioned. He would omit McKeesport, Bellevue and Avalon. Cook says he agrees with him. Both men favor accomplishing a Greater Pittsburgh without a vote of the people.

So far Gov. Pennypacker has not outlined the plan of a bill he will favor. He has not said he wants the first mayor appointed, nor has he intimated consolidation is to be secured without a vote of the people.

The North Side board of trade gave some attention to the proposed annexation legislation yesterday, but decided it was unwise to take definite action until more was known about the matter. A meeting of the association will be held in about a week to outline a plan of campaign.

Will Work for Annexation.

The Young Men's Greater Pittsburgh league of Allegheny City was formally organized last night in War Veterans' association hall, 16 North Diamond street, Allegheny. The meeting was largely at-

WITTE APPEALS TO THE CZAR TO DECLARE MARTIAL LAW

Premier of Russia, Finding Himself Deserted, Has Recommended That St. Petersburg Be Put Under Military Control.

[SPECIAL CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]
(Copyright, 1905, by New York Herald Co.)

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 16.—The situation here has assumed a highly dangerous phase. Count Witte, feeling himself deserted, this afternoon recommended to the emperor, in order to prevent disastrous disorders, to declare martial law tomorrow, thus bringing about a climax. In the present temper of the people such provocation would be sure to raise a storm the end of which no one can foresee. The powerful Union of Unions would inevitably declare a strike on such a scale that would mean anarchy throughout the land. It is significant that two regiments of trusted dragoons have been drafted in St. Petersburg.

Pessimism is the note of the moment in official circles. At present the general strike is interpreted as meaning that a revolution, and not a constitution is aimed at. Simultaneously come persistent reports that Count Witte is desirous of resigning, while most of the powerful members of the unions declare that he cannot possibly succeed, his position being hopelessly compromised. Another report runs that the officers of the guard petitioned the czar to rescind his offer of a constitution, undertaking to repress any troubles which might follow. Such a course would surely set Russia in a flame of revolution from one end to the other.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Daily Telegraph asserts that investors are selling out their government and other securities at any price and are transmitting the proceeds abroad. He says that the banks are literally crowded with panic-stricken bondholders.

RELIEF FUND FOR RUSSIAN JEWS STARTED BY PITTSBURGH GAZETTE

Its Columns Are Opened for a Public Subscription to Give Aid to a Massacre-Stricken and Helpless People.

Believing the humanitarian and American spirit of the people of Pittsburgh is ready to give material expression of sympathy toward those members of the human family who have sustained indescribable suffering, torture and oppression in the massacre-stricken districts of Russia, The Pittsburgh Gazette today inaugurates a public subscription fund for the relief of those sufferers and subscribes $100 as a nucleus.

That at least 60 villages have been visited by violent death, outrage, fire, torture, devastation and pillaging by infuriated and conscienceless mobs has already been recorded in public print. How many more communities have suffered likewise, and the number of thousands who have been bereft of home, of relatives and all that was dear to them, can only be left to conjecture at this time.

Most of these outrages have been directed against the Russian Jews, and the slaughter of women and children in the very presence of their husbands and fathers, and other crimes fully as terrible, are still fresh in memory. It is to alleviate the sufferings of the thousands who are now seeking shelter and food that The Gazette fund has been established.

Under the conditions now existing in Russia, and under similar conditions anywhere, The Gazette feels that religion, race or color plays no part. That as members of one great human family the people of Greater Pittsburgh is and ready to relieve and aid those who in vain seek relief and protection in their own land.

Contributions to The Gazette fund will be received and daily acknowledged in these columns, regardless of size. One cent will not be considered too small a contribution, neither will $1,000 be considered too large. There is no intention to have this fund conflict in any way with other funds which may have been started in this community, nor with any others which might be inaugurated in the future. All moneys collected through The Gazette fund will be forwarded to the national Russian Jewish relief fund of New York, of which Oscar Strauss is president and Jacob H. Schiff is treasurer.

Beginning today an accredited representative of The Gazette will personally seek contributions to this fund, while all contributions sent to this office should be addressed to The Gazette Jewish Relief Fund.

Former Judge Josiah Cohen, when informed last night that The Gazette would today inaugurate a Jewish relief fund, said:

"This action is consistent with the spirit of the age in which we live. The Gazette is to be highly congratulated and complimented for its humanitarian spirit. I am delighted to see such a practical demonstration of Christian sympathy in a cause that appeals to all humanity."

Charles H. Joseph, editor of the Jewish Criterion, also spoke in high favor of the project.

"The Gazette is deserving of the highest praise for the noble public spirit which it exhibits in establishing a fund for the relief of the sufferers of Russian oppression. I feel that the movement will receive the co-operation of every fair-minded and broad-thinking man. There never was a cause which could more loudly call for public and international relief. The public call of The Gazette is a cry for justice."

Assistant City Solicitor L. S. Levin paid high tribute to The Gazette in this movement, and declared:

"It is, indeed, a most charitable and noble act on the part of The Pittsburgh Gazette to open its columns on behalf of the sufferers in Russia and start a subscription list with its own contribution. I cannot doubt but that the appeal will be met with co-operation by the people of this community whose public spirit, charity and sympathy have often been tested and never found wanting."

HEAVY BAIL IS NEEDED.

Crawford and Howard, of the Boston Suitcase Mystery, Must Put Up $30,000 Each.

BOSTON, Nov. 16.—Louis Crawford and William K. Howard, charged with complicity in the illegal operation performed on Susanna A. Geary, the dress suit case victim, were brought here tonight from New York by Superintendent of Police William H. Pierce and Chief Inspector William B. Watts.

During the trip from New York, Crawford and Howard made a further statement regarding their knowledge of the case to the officers. In the morning they will be arraigned in court. Chief Watts said bail would be $30,000 each.

FORTESQUE RESIGNS.

Young Lieutenant Who Was Mixed in Taggart Case, Leaves the Army.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 16.—(Special.)—President Roosevelt today accepted the resignation of Lieut. Granville R. Fortesque, Tenth United States cavalry, who is a relative of the President's family and one of his friends.

Lieut. Fortesque had notoriety thrust upon him a few months ago when he was named as one of the several co-respondents in the suit for divorce brought by Maj. Elmore Taggart, U. S. A., against his wife. In handing down his decree the judge at Wooster charged Lieut. Fortesque with misconduct.

ANTI-GOVERNMENT PLOTS ARE RENEWED IN CUBA

HAVANA, Nov. 16.—Rumors of anti-government plots have been renewed and the names of more or less prominent radicals are being connected with them. The officials of the government display no apprehension but minor precautionary measures have been taken.

MAD AND STARVING.

Physician Finds Mother and Son in House Barricaded Against Evil Spirits.

DOYLESTOWN, PA., Nov. 16.—(Special.)—Augustus Beuchler, aged 37, who is blind, and his mother, Mrs. Catharine Beuchler, aged 60, starving and insane over religion, were found today by Dr. W. H. Kirk, in whose house the couple lived, and Officer Albert R. Atkinson. In order to gain an entrance the men were obliged to break in a window. The men, although threatened by Beuchler, went through the house. They found every door locked and sealed in a peculiar manner. Beuchler said it was to keep the evil spirits out.

As there was nothing else to do commissioners in lunacy were appointed and declared the two insane and they will be taken to Norristown tomorrow. Beuchler and his mother came here about four years ago and have always been eccentric.

KING EDWARD INJURED WHILE HUNTING IN FOREST

LONDON, Nov. 16.—King Edward, while shooting in Windsor forest today, tripped and fell, spraining his ankle. The king's injury is not regarded as serious. He was able to walk to his room after arriving at the castle.

King Aids the Unemployed.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—King Edward has given $10,500 and the Prince of Wales $5,250 to the fund for the aid of the unemployed, which was started by Queen Alexandra. The fund now amounts to nearly $140,000.

KINGLY SALARY SUFFERS DEEP SLICING

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—At a special meeting of the board of trustees of the Mutual Life Insurance Company in this city today at which a preliminary report of the recently appointed special investigating committee was submitted, President Richard A. McCurdy caused a stir by announcing that at his own request his salary had been cut in half, from $150,000 to $75,000 a year. This action was taken at a meeting of the finance committee and Mr. McCurdy said was the first step in reducing the expenses of the company.

Salaries of the other executive officers of the company also have been reduced, the saving amounting in all to between $145,000 and $150,000 per annum.

Mr. McCurdy's statement to the directors preceded the submission of the investigating committee's first report. This committee, which was named to examine into the affairs of the company, made a significant request for a broadening of its powers and recommended changes in practices by the company "which on their face are loose, unsound and open to criticism." The committee recommended that pending its further inquiry the executive officers adopt immediately a policy of retrenchment. The preliminary report was adopted, together with the resolution increasing the powers of the committee in continuing its investigation.

Asks for Broader Powers.

The investigation committee consists of William H. Truesdale, chairman; John W. Auchincloss and Stuyvesant Fish. One of the most interesting conclusions contained in the report is that of the subject of salaries of officers.

After announcing it has engaged James B. Dill as its special counsel and employed a corps of accountants to audit the books, the committee asks that its powers be broadened and states this is only a preliminary report. The report says:

"The revelations of the past few months involving several of the leading insurance companies of this city, among them this company, have deeply impressed the people of the whole country and created among them a feeling of grave distrust and alarm as to the management of these great trusts.

"Certain of the practices and methods disclosed are so palpably loose and unsound as to call for immediate attention and correction by those more or less directly responsible therefor without waiting the results of a long, exhaustive examination.

"This report, therefore, in great part, deals with and recommends changes in practices by this company which on their very face are loose, unsound and open to criticism."

Odell and Depew Make Denials.

Former Gov. Benjamin B. Odell, Jr., and United States Senator Chauncey M. Depew, as witnesses before the Armstrong legislative insurance investigation committee today, denied parts of the testimony of James Hazen Hyde in which their names were used.

Mr. Odell, in the course of his testimony, called Mr. Hyde's statements "base calumny," and when he was asked whether he directly or indirectly had made threats to have the charter of the Mercantile Trust Company revoked his face flushed and striking the arm of the witness chair with his fist, he exclaimed:

"There is no truth in that statement, so help me God."

Mr. Odell was the first witness of the day. He said no political pressure was brought to bear in the settlement of his suit against the Mercantile Trust Company, and that it was settled the same as suits brought by others. He said he had been advised by counsel that his claim was a just one and that any court would have awarded him more than he received in the settlement.

"Will you state, governor," asked Mr. Hughes, "whether you had any information with regard to the introduction of a bill in the senate for the purpose of repealing the charter of the Mercantile Trust Company?"

Knew of Ambler Bill.

"I knew of it at the time, yes."

"Who advised you of it?"

"I knew of it before its introduction."

"From whom did you get the information?"

"On, various people as to the propriety of the introduction of such a measure."

"Did you suggest its introduction?"

"No."

"Did you request its introduction?"

"I saw no objection to it."

"Did you state that you saw no objection to the introduction of the measure?"

"At the time it was introduced, yes."

"To whom?"

"Oh, to anyone who asked me; I have forgotten."

"What was the ground for that action or approval?"

Was Becoming Public Scandal.

"Simply because the scandal incident to the shipbuilding trust was uppermost in the people's mind and it was claimed that the Mercantile Trust Company had been behind 15 or 16 corporations, every one of them had been insolvent and it was time, I thought, such matters in the state of New York should be stopped."

"Did you make any statement to anybody in the city of New York that retaliatory measures of any kind would be taken?" asked Mr. Hughes.

"Never."

"That any measures threatening the Mercantile Trust Company or anyone else would be taken if your claim was not settled?"

"Never."

He never made any such statement to Mr. Harriman, nor did he ever have any interview with Mr. Harriman in which it was suggested that Harriman should use his influence to procure a settlement of witness' claims against the Mercantile Trust.

"Then," said Mr. Hughes, "I understand your testimony is that you never directly or indirectly used any threat to procure a settlement of that suit?"

"No sir."

"Was the legislation which was proposed by Senator Ambler in any way topic of conversation when the settlement of your suit came up?"

How He Stopped Legislation.

"Never excepting—yes, when I had a talk with Mr. Hyde he spoke of it and I told him no matter what came of our settlement, whether I should go into the courts or the case should be settled by the Mercantile Trust company, that there was no fear of retaliatory legislation.

"Had anything occurred to change your mind as to the propriety of the introduction of such measures?"

"Yes, sir, the fact that the base calumny which Mr. Hyde uttered here had been circulated in the papers and I called Senator Ambler in and I said that was desirable as I believed the legislation to be. I feared that my unfortunate connection with the shipbuilding matter was of such a character that it would be better for him to drop this legislation. That interview took place some time during the legislative session of 1904."

Mr. Odell said he told James H. Hyde at their first interview that the Ambler bill would be stopped by him, that there was no fear, no matter what was done about his settlement, of any retaliatory legislation. He did not bother Mr. Harriman about the matter.

When Senator Depew was called there was a little stir in the room. The senator said James Hyde asked him to use his influence to secure for Mr. Hyde the appointment of an ambassador to France.

Too Young for Ambassador.

Senator Depew told Mr. Hyde that it was impossible because of his age and lack of experience in public affairs. Mr. Hyde came to him again and Senator Depew subsequently brought the matter to the attention of the president who looked up Mr. Hyde and found it impossible to appoint him.

As to his retention as counsel by the Equitable society Senator Depew said his statement to Superintendent Hendricks covered the field, but he made an extended statement of his associations with Henry B. Hyde and said because it was one of Mr. Hyde's dying injunctions to his son. Senator Depew's salary as counsel was $20,000 a year from 1888 until last spring.

Witness said he never knew of the retention of counsel for legislative purposes and had never advised the retention of such counsel. He did not know A. C. Fields, but had heard of Andrew Hamilton. He said he never had any interview with Thomas D. Jordan, former comptroller of the Equitable Life, as to legislative matters, nor as to letters of instruction from Jordan to Fields. He knew nothing of the Ambler bill to revoke the charter of the Mercantile Trust company.

Clerks Played With Millions.

The loan to the Depew Improvement company was asked about and Senator Depew said his letter to Paul Morton August 21, 1906, a copy of which he presented, would answer any questions on that subject. This letter was read for the record.

Senator Depew said he was spoken to by friends of President Alexander and Vice President Hyde about the increase in their salaries. He justified the large salary to one of Mr. Hyde's limited experience on the ground of his ability, which, he said, was recognized by the financial men with whom he came in contact. Recess was taken while Senator Depew was testifying.

John Gilchrist, in charge of the security department of the Equitable Life Assurance society, told of millions of dollars in loans made at the end of the year in the names of clerks of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., to comply with the law that the surplus should be invested or to keep down the cash balances. No collateral was held by the Equitable on these loans and the check which was given for these loans was deposited in the bank and a certificate of deposit received. The check, however, was never cleared and on the first of the year the check would be taken out and the certificate surrendered. These loans were made at the instance of T. D. Jordan, former comptroller of the Equitable.

The ownership of the Cafe Savarin by the Equitable was taken with Daniel M. Junk, secretary and treasurer of the cafe company on the stand. He said none of the management of the cafe received any compensation from the proceeds of the cafe. They were employes of the Equitable Life and were paid by the society.

Louis M. Bailey, a clerk in the bond and mortgage department of the Equitable, in whose name a trustee account was carried on the books of the society, said he was asked by Mr. Squire to permit the use of his name for this account, but he did not know its purpose. Building operations carried on under his name for the Equitable he could explain only on the ground that an individual could build cheaper than a corporation.

BOSTON MAN HAS LEAD OF WINNERS

Captures Eight Blue Ribbons in New York's Big Horse Show.

FINE PITTSBURGH HORSE DIES

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau,
Herald Building, Herald Square.
NEW YORK, Nov. 16.

Forest King, the superb brown gelding of Judge William H. Moore, which won the Waldorf-Astoria prize of $500 in Wednesday night's competition for gig horses, captured another blue ribbon at Madison Square garden tonight, when he took the $750 Martinique challenge plate in the same class from virtually the same field. The only difference in the events of the two nights was that the first was for action and the second for conformation, so that Forest King proved his superiority in both respects. Of the field of 20 noble animals against him, C. W. Watson's Lord Baltimore took second.

That was the chief event of the show's fourth day, which was record breaking for a fourth day, not only in point of attendance and brilliancy of spectacle, but in the quality of the horses shown and the competitive interest of the events. The contest between the Vanderbilt brothers, Alfred G., and Reginald, continued, and the former was the victor on the final records. He captured the blue in the class for road teams, driving his four grays attached to the White Venture, which ran to Marris Park all season.

Boston Man Wins Eight.

Eben D. Jordan of Boston is at the head of the list of prize winners, with eight blue ribbons to his credit. Mrs. John Gerken of this city is second with seven blue ribbons, while Judge William H. Moore of Chicago and H. N. Bain of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., are tied for third honors with six blue ribbons each. Alfred Vanderbilt has won five blue ribbons and Reginald Vanderbilt has captured only one.

Eight four-in-hands were driven into the arena tonight, the drivers displaying consummate skill. Alfred G. Vanderbilt drove his coach Venture, while George Wilson was on the box of Mr. Vanderbilt's other coach, "Good Times." C. Ledyard Blair drove the coach Defiance. Maurice Howlett was whip for Otto H. Kahn, and Judge Moore handled the reins over his own thoroughbreds.

First prize went to Alfred Vanderbilt's four grays. Mr. Moore received the red ribbon, and John S. Bratton of St. Louis, third honor.

Coler Gets His First Prize.

Bally Prince, a stallion valued at $7,500, died of pneumonia at the horse show today. He was owned by the Irvington farm of Sewickley, Pa., and was by Fitz Rose-Princess of Burn Butts.

The rivalry between the first two ponies in the land, as they are known, Berkeley Bantam and Doncaster Model, brought this pair into contest today for the second time this week. They met in the class of pony stallions, and as at their previous meeting, Berkeley Bantam, owned by William H. Moore of Chicago, was given the blue ribbon. Doncaster Model, owned by Mrs. John Gerken of Brooklyn, was awarded second.

E. D. Jordan of Boston, closed up the lead for first honors which Mrs. Gerken held over him at the beginning of today's exhibition, when he won two blue ribbons in the pony stallion classes with Delham Prime Minister and Lady Kitty.

POLITH IS BADLY BURNED.

A two-story dwelling at 4510 Wertz alley was completely destroyed by fire about 11 o'clock last night, and one man was severely burned. The fire was caused by the explosion of a lamp on the second floor, occupied by Felix Polith. In an effort to extinguish the flames Polith was burned about the face, hands and body, and was removed to St. Francis hospital in No. 5 patrol wagon. Samuel Ross and family occupied the first floor. They were taken from the house by an officer, who turned in the alarm. The loss will be about $1,500.

A chimney fire at 103 Kearsarge street, Mt. Washington, caused Box 435 to be pulled last night. There was no loss.

The grocery store of Denholm Brothers, Butler and Fifty-seventh streets, was discovered on fire last night and damage of $200 was done before the blaze was extinguished.

Refuses Medical Attention.

Mary Murphy, aged 65, of Bedford avenue was knocked down by a street car while crossing Second avenue yesterday morning. Her head was cut and the crowd insisted she go to a hospital but the woman entered a protest. When she finally did consent to enter the ward at the Homeopathic hospital she refused positively to let any of the physicians attend her, stating that her head could "be fixed up at home." She went away without any bandages, but the hospital physicians do not anticipate any serious results as she is not badly hurt.

Lives 15 Months With Broken Neck.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 16.—With the death of George Handforth, aged 28, at the Methodist hospital today ended one of the most remarkable cases of survival of a broken neck known to surgery. For fifteen months the injured man lay on air and water mattresses. He suffered no pain and was unable to move any muscle except those in his forearms. Handforth weighed at the time of his death only 34 pounds.

Shirt Makers Strike Spreads.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 16.—The strike of shirt makers employed by the Tuttleman Bros. of Faggen county was today augmented by the addition of 600 hands, 200 of whom are girls. There are now 1,400 shirtmakers on strike, 800 girls and 600 men.

ILLEGAL VOTER JUMPS HIS BIG CASH BAIL BOND

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—A sensation was created in Justice Davy's branch of the supreme court this afternoon when John Krup, indicted for illegal voting in the recent municipal election, failed to appear for pleading and his attorneys expressed ignorance as to his whereabouts. Earlier in the day Krup's release had been secured under increased bail, a $5,000 cash bond being filed.

State Attorney General Mayer, who was in court, was indignant at the turn of affairs. Tonight the attorney general made public this statement:

"Every effort will be made to ascertain who put up the $5,000 bail and who employed counsel to defend Krup. The failure of Krup to appear in court was as flagrant a defiance of law as I ever heard of. The disappearance of Krup is the best confirmation of the statement made by me in court urging that his bail be increased. I believe there were reasons, apart from reasons of his own, why Krup did not appear."

Justice Davy declared the $5,000 bail forfeited. Krup's case was reached at 2 o'clock, but at the request of counsel, was postponed for an hour. At 3 o'clock, there was still no sign of the defendant. His lawyers Abraham Levy and Former Deputy Attorney General Charles P. Dillon, said they had left him but a short time before and he had assured them he would be in court. Attorney General Mayer, moving for a forfeiture of bail, declared he was not surprised at the turn of affairs.

"If this defendant has left town," declared the attorney general, "I know with whom he was last seen and will know how to proceed. I thought somebody must have been greatly interested in Krup to put up $5,000 bail for him just to secure his liberty for a few hours."

GARFIELD IS DEFENDED

formation obtained by Mr. Garfield was used before the grand jury, and further says that he is informed by Mr. Garfield and believes that at certain stages of the investigation the defendants declined to give information unless they were put in a position to obtain the immunity provided by the act of congress, and required by the Constitution of the United States, and that when such instances occurred, acting after conference with the attorney general, Mr. Garfield refrained from pursuing the inquiry further and made no attempt to obtain information, documentary or otherwise, along those lines.

Will File Answer.

"After full conference with Mr. Garfield, the answer of the government has been prepared by Mr. Pagin, under the supervision of the attorney general and with the assistance of the district attorney, and will be taken to Chicago and filed in the court there early next week.

"The seventh plea in bar urges that the government unlawfully seized certain papers of the defendants and submitted them to the grand jury, contrary to the rights conferred upon them by the Constitution. The government denies that it obtained any papers otherwise than by the orderly process of a subpoena directed to the person who had the custody of them.

"The eighth plea sets up as a defense the fact that the government heretofore proceeded against the defendants by a petition under the Sherman act, under which petition an injunction against the continuance of the combination was issued about three years ago, and was affirmed last winter by the unanimous opinion of the supreme court, the attorney general himself having personally argued the case for the government in that court, and claims that by taking this action, the government elected to pursue the civil remedies and is disbarred from resorting to a prosecution under the criminal provision of the anti-trust law.

"The government admits the facts, but contends that they constitute no bar to a criminal prosecution.

"The answer prepared by the government will raise a mixed issue of law and fact, to be determined, not by the attorney general, but by the court in which the proceedings are pending.

"The government will resist these pleas in bar and urge a speedy trial of them; but the attorney general refrains from expressing any opinion upon them, as it would be obviously improper for him to do so while the questions are pending in the district court."

GLAD TO PAY THE MONEY.

Turfman Madden Well Pleased With Decision in His Divorce Suit.

LEXINGTON, KY., Nov. 18—(Special.)—John F. Madden, noted Kentucky turfman, who is compelled by a decision handed down by Judge Ewing in Cincinnati today to pay his wife, Mrs. Annie Louise Madden, $250 per month alimony and $6,000 counsel fees, stated tonight that he was well satisfied over the outcome of the case. His greatest joy was due to the control of the two Madden children whose fate was left with the Kentucky courts, where Madden has filed suit for absolute divorce.

The decision of the court in no way imposes a heavier penalty on Madden than heretofore, as he has been paying his wife this sum since she first abandoned him a year ago.

POLICEMEN COULD NOT LEAVE A GOOD THING

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Capt. Mark E. F. Kerr, commanding the flagship of Prince Louis of Battenberg, today sent a letter to Police Commissioner McAdoo complaining of the conduct of policemen on board the ship since she has been alongside the Cunard wharf. Capt. Kerr declares that after the ball given by Prince Louis Tuesday night the policemen who had come on board during the function could not be induced to leave. He declares they had been drinking and the ships are overrun by policemen.

OBJECTS TO GOVERNOR

tended, representatives from all the wards of the North Side being present. The purpose of the organization is to aid in securing the consolidation of the two cities. The following officers were elected:

Homer N. Young, president; J. F. McCandless, first vice president; John Boggs, second vice president; John Bell, secretary; W. E. Hopkins, treasurer. The following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, The municipal conditions of Allegheny are such that a great mass of citizens throughout the entire community are zealous in their efforts to maintain a more wholesome and economic administration of civic affairs.

Whereas, The consolidation of Allegheny and Pittsburgh into one large city would bring better municipal government, better service from the public utilities and a more rigid enforcement of a police power.

Whereas, Annexation would further the business interests by putting it on a more competitive basis and a greater city, affording opportunities in size.

Resolved, That an organization be formed to be called "The Young Men's Greater Pittsburgh League of Allegheny City."

Resolved, further, That said league shall have for its purpose the fostering and encouraging of a keen interest in Greater Pittsburgh by an educational method in fairly presenting all the facts.

The next meeting of the league will be held Tuesday night at the War Veterans' hall. The meeting will be called at 8:15 p. m.

The members of the board of tax revision will appear in court this morning to take the oath of office. The board expects to organize during the day.

James A. Travers, W. H. Brethauer, Robert Melrose, Samuel Shenkan and J. A. McTighe have filed an affidavit for the use of the name Citizens party in the Seventh ward at the February election.

TALKS ON CITY MISSION WORK.

Annual Meeting of Pittsburgh and Allegheny Baptist Union Well Attended.

The annual meeting of the Pittsburgh and Allegheny Baptist union was held last night at the Union Baptist church, South Nineteenth and Carson streets. Dr. R. E. Manning, superintendent of city missions of Chicago, delivered the principal address of the evening. The work that is being done in Chicago along mission lines was his theme.

The reports of President J. H. Stauff and Treasurer George R. Lauman were read. These showed great activity along mission lines in Pittsburgh and vicinity. The Baptist union now has 17 missions under its control and all of them are flourishing. Among this number are several German, Slavish and Hungarian missions.

In the report of Mr. Lauman he recommended an endowment fund be established sufficiently large that the proceeds would sustain the missions. The receipts for the year were $5,388 15 and expenditures were $3,007 15, leaving a balance in the treasury of $2,381.

WORKS FOR BROTHER'S LIFE.

Former Speaker Henderson's Life Being Prolonged by Heroic Efforts.

DUBUQUE, Nov. 16.—With his aged brother as a nurse, heroic measures are being taken to prolong the life of former Speaker David Henderson. A. C. Henderson, who is a trained nurse with years of experience, is wrapping his brother in hot blankets in order to draw the blood from the head and produce better circulation. Ordinary medical treatment has been abandoned. Under the new treatment, which A. C. Henderson has often tried with success, no opiates are needed.

George Henderson, residing in San Diego, is also reported to be dying, but this fact is being kept from the two brothers in Dubuque.

Errand Boy Loses Hinges.

Dougherty Carroll, a plumber of Webster avenue, was arrested on Washington street yesterday. He is accused of stealing $15 worth of hinges from George Kohler, an errand boy for the American Electric Plate company on Anderson street, Allegheny, yesterday.

Fire Slightly Damages House.

A still alarm for a fire in the home of F. C. Magill, 712 Euclid avenue, was sent in to No. 8 engine company at 8:40 o'clock last night. The damage amounted to $275. The building was owned by Mrs. Elizabeth Huber and is insured.

START MEMORIAL TO MAJ. M'KINLEY

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

CANTON, O., Nov. 16.—Attended by a distinguished gathering from many parts of the United States the cornerstone of the monument to the late President William McKinley was placed in Canton, O., yesterday morning. Associate Justice William R. Day of the United States supreme court, who was secretary of state and peace commissioner to Paris during the McKinley administration, presided during the ceremonies at the monument, the gift of the American people.

The Rev. Dr. O. W. Holmes, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, of which Mr. McKinley was a member and trustee, offered prayer. The Grand Army band played "America."

A box containing records, newspapers and a list of the names of trustees was put into a niche of the corner stone by Frederic S. Hartzell, assistant secretary of the Memorial association. The corner stone was then brought into position and formally placed by Justice Day. "Nearer, My God, to Thee" was played by the Grand Army band and the assemblage dispersed. During the ceremonies Mrs. McKinley sat on a platform prepared at the monument for her, her friends, the trustees and other noted guests.

Among the trustees present were Vice President C. W. Fairbanks, Postmaster General George B. Cortelyou, Washington; Gov. Myron T. Herrick, Cleveland; Charles S. Dawes, Chicago; Judge Horace H. Lurton, Memphis; E. W. Bloomingdale, New York city; Franklin Murphy, Newark, N. J.; R. J. Lowrey, Atlanta; D. R. Francis, St. Louis; William McConway, Pittsburgh; John G. Milburn, New York; William A. Lynch, Canton; A. H. Revel, Chicago; C. N. Bliss, New York; Judge William R. Day, Canton.

Architect Macgonigle and wife of New York and General Contractor W. H. Harrison of New York, Granite Contractor G. W. Maltby of Buffalo were also present. Other relatives and friends of Mrs. McKinley present were: Mr. and Mrs. Duncan and Miss Helen McKinley and Miss Grace McKinley of Cleveland, sisters of the late president, and Mrs. McWilliams and Miss Goodman of Chicago. In calling the assemblage to order, Justice Day said:

"We are gathered to put in place the corner stone of the memorial here to be erected in honor of the life and noble services of William McKinley. The generous contribution of more than a million of his countrymen, joined by those of distant lands across the sea, assures the construction of this monument. We are here again to testify to our regard and love of his splendid character. The trustees have decided to postpone until the memorial is complete the more extensive ceremonies in his honor. The monument shall then stand here in bold proportions of strength and beauty to be known to all men. The exercises of today are therefore brief and simple."

MAGISTRATE THROWS ELECTION CASES OUT

Declares the Arrest of Harbor Master Maloney and Others Is Not According to Law.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 16.—Magistrate Kochersperger today declined the "John Doe" warrants upon which several arrests were made on election day. As a result of this decision Harbor Master Samuel G. Maloney, Republican leader of the Fifth ward, who was arrested for alleged conspiracy, and Common Councilman Charles A. Harris, accused of interfering with voters, were discharged. A dozen others charged with election frauds will also be released. The magistrate in his opinion says:

"In the declaration of rights under our constitution it is provided among other things that warrants for the seizure of any person shall 'describe' such person 'as nearly as may be.' In cases of felony an arrest can be made without any warrant having been issued. The rule is different, however, in case of misdemeanor and the offense here charged is a misdemeanor under the law.

"Neither the affidavit for the warrant nor the warrant as issued contains the name of the defendant or any description whatsoever of the defendant. For the reason stated the defendants must be discharged."

COTTON MAKES FIERCE FIRE.

Two Thousand Bales Go Up in Blaze Started by Locomotive Spark.

COLUMBUS, GA., Nov. 16.—More than 2,000 bales of cotton were destroyed, about 1,000 badly scorched and several hundred bales damaged by fire which started in property used jointly by the Central of Georgia Railway and the Atlantic Compress Company today.

The fire started from a spark from a switch engine about 12:30 this afternoon and is still burning, although it was gotten under control at 7 o'clock this evening. The total loss is placed at $150,000, fully insured. The fire department succeeded in preventing the spread of the fire to between 16,000 and 17,000 bales which were on the ground nearby. Inman & Company of Augusta were the principal losers.

SHOWS WHERE BERRY'S MAJORITY CAME FROM

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 16.—The official count of the vote at the recent election was completed today and the totals show no material change from the figures published the morning after the election. The Lincoln party ranks second according to the number of votes polled, having 94,244 for Berry, while the state treasurer-elect received 29,850 votes in Democratic column. Plummer received 99,108 votes in the Republican column and 1,178 in the Citizens column.

SCANDAL COMES OUT OF ARSENAL

Schuylkill Army Station Investigators Are Alleged to Have Found Conspiracy.

CONGRESSMEN ARE ACCUSED

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau,
Press Building.
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 16.

The Schuylkill arsenal, commanded by Maj. Knight, a son-in-law of Gen. S. B. M. Young, former chief of staff of the army, and a warm friend of President Roosevelt, is again under investigation by the war department officials.

Two boards, one composed of officers who have been examining into military depots in other cities, and another made up of civilian experts, are probing into the workings of the local arsenal to detect fraudulent contracts and conspiracies to defraud the government.

Although the investigators are conducting their work secretly, the civilian board reported to Gen. Humphrey in Washington today that they discovered two congressmen, one a New Yorker and the other a Pennsylvanian, involved in shady contract deals. The war department officials refuse to reveal the identity of the accused men.

Senatorial developments are looked for when both boards have completed their work. It is believed that there will be a general overhauling of the arsenal and the renovating of the army contract system in general. The board of officers is composed of Majs. Galbraith and St. Greble. The identity of the civilian board remains unknown. The latter are all experts, however, in various lines and are carefully examining clothing, shoes, caps, gloves and other kinds of goods purchased at the local depot.

MAYOR WEAVER NAMES FILTRATION ENGINEER

Maj. Gillette of Army Corps Offered $17,000 Job Subject to President's Approval.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 16.—Major Cassius E. Gillette of the engineer corps, United States army, was today appointed chief engineer of the bureau of filtration by Mayor Weaver, subject to the approval of the President of the United States and legislation by the federal congress authorizing Major Gillette to accept the place. Major Gillette succeeds John W. Hill, who is awaiting trial on charge of fraud and falsifying the records of his office in connection with the letting of contracts. The position pays $17,000 a year. The appointment was approved by councils.

Mayor Weaver believes Major Gillette is entirely fitted for the position. He has had much experience on investigating boards and had practically entire charge of the investigation of the Savannah water frauds, which resulted in the imprisonment of Capt. Carter.

District Attorney John C. Bell of this city today appointed David Walterstein as his first assistant to succeed O. J. Roberts, who resigned to engage in private practice. The appointment of Mr. Walterstein is regarded as significant as he was professionally associated with former Judge James Gay Gordon, private counsel for Mayor Weaver.

HIRES SPECIAL TRAIN TO FOLLOW HIS LOVE

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 16.—Mildred Harrison and Count Karl Von Holstein were married this afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of the bride, 1616 Locust street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Floyd W. Tomkins, rector of the Church of the Holy Trinity. Mr. Milton Tootes, of St. Joseph, Mo., stood up with the count as best man.

The Count and Countess Von Holstein will make a tour of the world before going to California, where they expect to make their home. Countess Holstein's family is of great prominence in society here. The countess has traveled extensively both in this country and abroad, and it was while making a tour of the west a year ago that she met the count. After their first meeting the countess tried to elude the count, but he hired a special train and followed her until she consented to wed him.

MUCH ACTIVITY IN PIANO BUSINESS NOW

In passing along Smithfield street, one notices great activity among the piano houses just now. Probably this is particularly noticeable on Smithfield street, as the leading piano houses of the city are now located on that thoroughfare, and this season of the year is piano man's harvest.

Particularly is the activity noticeable at the store of Ambuhl Bros., 632 Smithfield street, where the sidewalk is nearly always blocked with pianos going in and out.

This firm is exceptionally fortunate in having the agency for both the Kimball and Sterling pianos, which probably accounts for much of their activity, greater advancement toward piano perfection having been recently made in these two makes of pianos than most any others, the tone and action in their recent products being simply superb.

Still another and very important element that causes the activity of this house is the fact that they are in a position to accept as low terms on their best makes of pianos as most of the others do on the cheaper makes. This fact enables people in moderate means to possess standard makes of pianos, rather than cheap, worthless ones, and accounts for much of the large business being done by Ambuhl Bros.

PRETENDER RISES TO TAKE THE CROWN OF RUSSIA

gists were directed to remain open in order that the sick might not suffer. The course is condemned by a large part of the population.

At a meeting of the strike committee last night the question of the termination of the strike was not brought up. The principal question under discussion was the formation of a strike treasury by gathering funds to be used in future walkouts, and after long consideration it was decided to ask the workmen to contribute one per cent of their wages for this purpose, the fund to be at the disposal of the committee. A proposition to call out the cab drivers was also discussed, but though several of the delegates asserted the drivers were ready to strike at a nod from the committee, there was general doubt as to whether such a strike could be effected.

There is no betterment of the agrarian conditions. Dispatches from Kursk, Poltava, Riazan, Samara and other provinces continue to report the spread of disorders, which in Poltava are taking an anti-Jewish turn. However, the imperial manifesto regarding the distribution of the crown domains, which by strenuous work was finished last night, will be issued early this morning, and the emperor and Count Witte hope it will tend to pacify the peasants, and have an important tactical effect on the coming struggle with the Socialists and other anti-government forces in the elections for the douma.

Emperor Presides Over Cabinet.

A special meeting of the cabinet with Emperor Nicholas presiding was held this afternoon at Tsarskoe-Selo to consider the situation. This is the first meeting of the cabinet held under the direct presidency of his majesty since the creation of a responsible ministry. The emperor, who arrived at the palace at Tsarskoe-Selo last night from Peterhof, called today's meeting upon Count Witte's suggestion.

Yesterday's meeting of the ministers at Count Witte's residence in the annex of the winter palace was prolonged until 3 o'clock this morning. After it ended Count Witte decided to make a personal appeal to the workmen and drafted the following which was sent today to all the factories, mills and other works and posted throughout the industrial section:

> Brother Workmen: Get to your work. Cease making disturbances and have pity on your wives and children. Do not listen to bad advice. The emperor has ordered us to devote special attention to the labor question. For this purpose his majesty has created a ministry of trade and commerce, which must especially seek to establish just relations between workmen and employers. Have patience. All that is possible will be done for you. Listen to the advice of a man who sympathizes with you and wishes you well. WITTE.

"Witte promised us a soft bed, but in the meantime we must sleep on a hard one."

Like the workmen of other factories, the Westinghouse employes informed the manager that the strike would proceed until Saturday, when it would be decided whether to continue it or call it off.

Protestors Driven from City.

WARSAW, Nov. 16.—M. Tyshkevich Livitsky and Yantzen, the members of the deputation which protested to the governor general against the brutality of the Cossacks in dispersing the demonstrations before the town hall, have been expelled from the city by the governor general's order.

ODESSA, Nov. 16.—The workmen's organization today proclaimed a general strike to begin November 20.

TIFLIS, CAUCASIA, Nov. 16.—The viceroy has ordered the liberation of all persons arrested by administrative order and has issued a proclamation appealing to the population to utilize the granting of freedom of speech and meeting to aid in the reforms outlined in the imperial manifesto and to co-operate with the authorities in suppressing the extreme element of the population.

In the mountains of Caucasia the race war between the Tartars and Armenians continues. Two Tartars villagers were killed and their bodies horribly mutilated, the arms, ears and noses being cut off. The Armenians burned 255 houses and drove off all the live stock belonging to the Tartars.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—Spencer Eddy, charge d'affairs of the American embassy in St. Petersburg, today cabled the state department that pardons have been granted to the Cronstadt mutineers except six, who were shot today. Mr. Eddy adds that the giving of imperial land and action on the Cronstadt mutineers may do much toward stopping trouble.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Contributions to the fund of the national committee for the relief of sufferers by Russian massacres amounted today to $78,912, making a grand total of $302,678 received to date.

WILL NOW ACCEPT FRICK'S MONEY

Donation of $100 to Entertain American Federation of Labor Will Be Retained.

FIRST SAID TO BE TAINTED

Henry Clay Frick's offer of $100 as a contribution to the entertainment committee of the American Federation of Labor convention, in session here, will be accepted. During the morning session yesterday declarations were made that the money was "tainted," but before adjournment yesterday afternoon the money underwent a thorough sterilization and was deemed "fit for use."

Yesterday morning Delegate Johannessen of Chicago, offered a resolution that the offer of Mr. Frick to the local entertainment committee to contribute $100 be rejected. He offered this resolution verbally:

> That this convention go on record with a strong protest against keeping money that is tainted. The memory of the Homestead martyrs is not forgotten, and their cries still ring in our ears. Send the money back to Mr. Frick. We do not want it.

President Gompers declared that he doubted the propriety of accepting "from questionable sources any money for banquets. Better were it to break bread with our brothers of such humble fare as they can best provide."

While this discussion was in progress some one suggested that a resolution in writing be presented. Then it was agreed that the convention had no right to place itself on record, as it had not been tendered the money, and that the matter lay with the local committee.

Shown Error of His Ways.

After the morning session Delegate Johannessen was taken in charge by Chairman Frank McKee and other members of the local entertainment committee and he was given some light. He was told that Mr. Frick is one of the largest holders of real estate in this vicinity, and one of the most important house builders. That he had always agreed to employ union men in the construction of his properties and had been employing thousands of union men in the Pittsburgh district in the past few years.

As a result Delegate Johannessen announced just before the afternoon adjournment that the local committee had not as yet received Mr. Frick's donation, and that he would permit the matter to rest with them to take such action as they might see fit upon its receipt. Chairman McKee of the local entertainment committee, stated last evening that the money would be gladly accepted upon receipt.

Just before convention adjourned for the day, announcement was made that the entertainment committee had provided theater tickets for the Grand for all delegates present for the evening performance. At once there was a concerted effort to gain the eye of the president by a score of committee chairmen, who urged a postponement or rearrangement of their committee meetings, most of which were fixed for 8 o'clock. Some one moved that the "bum lung" committee meet after adjournment in convention hall. This was meant for the special committee on tuberculosis.

Must Finish by Next Thursday.

Announcement was made that the convention must conclude its business by Thursday night next, and that if necessary night sessions will be held. During the afternoon Miss Mary E. McDowell, president of the Woman's Trade Union league, and Mrs. Gertrude Barnum, secretary, made addresses. Miss McDowell declared that there were 2,000,000 women employed in trades in this country that were not organized, and she claimed that they are "scabs." If organized, she thought it would tend to greatly lessen divorces and promote happy marriages. She asked the federation to appeal to the senate and congress to investigate sweatshop conditions. The matter was referred to committees.

During the morning session a communication was read from Gov. Jesse F. McDonald of Colorado, inviting the 1906 convention to Denver. Frank Duffy of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, condemned the work of one P. H. Scullin, the promoter of an Industrial Peace association. William Mosses, a fraternal delegate from Great Britain, delivered an address and paid tribute to American workingmen and Pittsburgh's industry. David Gilmore, also from Great Britain, told of labor organizations abroad. William Todd, fraternal delegate from Canada, then made his report.

ALLEGED HOLDUP MEN IN CLUTCHES OF LAW

"Chalk" Conway and "Nigger" Toddle Said to Have Shot at and Robbed Foreigners.

"Chalk" Conway and "Nigger" Toddle, alleged footpads, were caught at Wilmerding last evening after a hot chase. The pair, who are negroes, are said to have held up two foreigners at East Pittsburgh Wednesday night, getting $9 from one and $21 from the other. When Chief of Police Frank McDonough of East Pittsburgh was notified of the holdup he tracked the men to Wilmerding where they eluded him. Last evening Conway and Toddle were seen eating in the Redfern hotel, Wilmerding. Chief of Police Harry Davenport and Officer John Lynn waited outside for the two to appear.

The negroes received a hint of the officers' proximity and when they left the table Conway bolted through the front door and started down the street, with the officers after him. He was caught after a lively sprint. Toddle watched the pursuit and made no effort to resist arrest when he saw his pal in custody. Conway is said to have confessed to shooting at one of the foreigners who had been robbed the night before, the bullet cutting off a piece of the man's ear. Conway had just finished a penitentiary term for highway robbery. The two were placed in the Wilmerding jail and later removed to East Pittsburgh.

Government Gets More Time.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 16.—United States Circuit Court Judge VanDevanter today granted time until tomorrow to permit United States District Attorney Dyer to file with the court the government's reply to the plea in bar filed yesterday by counsel for United States Senator Burton of Kansas against the indictment recently returned against him by the federal grand jury. Arguments will then be heard before the court.

Blumenthal Is Again Sued.

Abraham Blumenthal, accused by Abraham Schwartz with stealing fruit and vegetables from storage cellars, and held for court on that charge, was again held by Magistrate Kirby yesterday on a similar charge, brought by John J. Dillon. It is alleged that Blumenthal has been in the habit of taking orders for fruit and vegetables and filling them from the stock of dealers in the market.

Postpones Election Cases Again.

The cases of County Detective George W. Murrin, John O'Neil, Thomas Eaton and William Burrell, accused of offenses in connection with the recent election, were again postponed by Magistrate Kirby yesterday. Murrin is accused of interfering with an officer, O'Neil and Eaton with having tried to vote illegally, and Burrell with trying to vote on a forged tax receipt. The cases will be heard next Tuesday.

The young man of today must first learn to become a saver if he hopes to make a success of the trade or profession of his choice. A savings account bearing 4 per cent compound interest with the Commonwealth Trust Company in Fourth avenue, and a determination to be frugal, are adversity annihilators par excellence.

The Jacob Doll Interior Piano Player

The self-playing instrument made by Jacob Doll & Sons of New York is pronounced by experts the best of its kind.

Two complete instruments in one—an upright piano of the highest grade, with a beautiful tone and charming action, which can be played in the ordinary way, yet is convertible in less than two seconds into a self-playing piano. Plays all the music (both sacred and secular), worth listening to. Plays it delightfully. Never grows weary, offers no excuses, makes no mistakes and is always ready and willing to play for you with only a slight effort on your part. No knowledge of music is necessary to operate it. New catalogues, giving a complete description of this modern instrument will be mailed free on request.

Price of the Interior Player is $550, divided into monthly payments, with a discount of 10 per cent for spot cash, or 5 per cent for half cash. A liberal allowance made for second-hand instruments in part payment.

Consult us about exchanging the old and silent piano for this new creation.

A Remarkable Period of Business Prosperity.

WITH Christmas but five weeks off it may not be amiss to look at conditions as they are today. That prosperity is solid and substantial, notably so in this great industrial beehive, Pittsburg, is only to repeat something that everybody knows. It is so all over the land. Nature has been exceedingly bountiful. The industries, again with an eye on Pittsburg, lack nothing but more hours in which to meet the demands made upon them.

Upon these facts it is easy enough to predict a wonderful Christmas business and to have the prediction come true to the letter. We do so predict. Christmas buying has already started in, so far as this store is concerned, much earlier than in former periods, and in the more important branches of the store each day is now taxing their capacity.

The very high average of the character of the merchandise sold is another evidence of prosperous times.

In anticipation of a great increase in Christmas trade our stocks were planned with a determination to meet it, and now every stock is at its best. The early holiday shopper will find here today such variety as will never be greater, and which must necessarily decline in many exclusive novelties now shown and not to be duplicated when sold.

To the many who like to be comfortable when shopping, we suggest that the early morning hours are now the best—not only the best in this store, but they are the best hours for reaching the store in comfort, the street cars are not so crowded. Of course, this hint is only to those who like quiet—there are thousands who enjoy nothing better than to shop when crowds are greatest. Those are the people who like to come in the afternoons.

At $1.50 we have an umbrella with fancy handle, such as silver, pearl and silver, horn, silver trimmed natural, whose counterpart, except the handle, which was of plain natural wood, we sold for $2.00. The covering is a tape edge union taffeta, and all in all it is the best umbrella we know of for the money.

At $1.95, pure silk taffeta Umbrellas that are fully $3.00 value. Tape edge, natural handle. Styles for men and women.
Or, at the same price you can have Umbrellas with fancy handles, sterling caps, gun metal, horn or trimmed natural wood. These have union taffeta, tape edge, covers.

20c Upholstery Denim, 15c a Yard.

Five Cents a yard on upholstery material figures a pretty neat saving, as this material is generally bought in large quantities, though, of course, we're not going to say how much or how little you shall buy.

Our reason for selling it at this price is that we have a collection of short lengths, 2 to 10 yards, to dispose of. 36 inches wide, all colors.

Kodaks and Kodak Things.

Eastman's Kodaks are acknowledged the best—therefore we keep their entire line, and have no hesitancy in recommending them to anyone. $1.00 up to $35.00.

Friday, November 17, 1905.

On another page of this issue will be found an announcement of the inauguration of The Gazette's fund for the relief of the Russian Jews, who have been the victims of barbarities that have sent a shudder throughout the civilized world. The Gazette's appeal to this prosperous community is made on the broad basis of humanity. Hundreds of thousands of our fellow creatures are in dire distress through no fault of their own, but through the cruel oppression of their neighbors. In the opinion of J. de Haas, an authority on the subject, more than one million Jews have been affected by the massacres in Russia, losing everything they possessed. Much sympathy has been expressed in this country for the sufferers, but it is the time to open pocketbooks as well as hearts. Every dollar will count. No contribution is too small to be received and gratefully acknowledged. All moneys received through The Gazette will be forwarded to the treasurer of the national fund, Jacob H. Schiff, at New York.

Western high schools continue to abandon football, as fatalities occur among their pupils. This looks like a wise plan. By another season the game may be modified sufficiently to render it a comparatively safe pastime for young boys who are not trained athletes. Football is too good a game to be abandoned permanently. A strenuous recreation of the kind is needed for the bracing months of autumn, and there is apparently no satisfactory substitute.

The latest tragedy in New York attributed to the "Black Hand" society, the burning of a tenement house and the killing of five persons, finds the police, as usual, mystified and pursuing their favorite occupation of hunting for clues. The lessee of the burned house had received "Black Hand" letters demanding money. The operations of this murderous society in the metropolis promise to rival those of certain mysterious organizations in Russia with which the police seem equally powerless to cope.

The order to the Pittsburgh police to arrest all persons who are without visible means of support is a preventive measure that is most necessary at this season of the year. Cold weather has driven into the city an unusually large number of tramps, many of whom are awaiting a chance to commit theft or burglary. A glance at the "help wanted" columns of the daily papers evidences the numerous opportunities for employment of honest men. Pittsburgh has no room for the voluntarily idle and they should be made to go to work or leave town.

Judge Macfarlane's remarks in court yesterday on the reckless manner in which automobiles are run on Pittsburgh streets were entirely justified. His prediction that "somebody will be killed before long" is likely to be verified any day by a shocking tragedy. The particular case which aroused the court's indignation was not prosecuted, owing to recompense made the injured person by the owner of the automobile. Not all automobilists are criminally careless, but there are a sufficient number of this character in Pittsburgh to give the sport a bad name.

Senator Depew testified yesterday before the insurance investigating committee that he was asked by James H. Hyde to use his influence with President Roosevelt to secure the position of ambassador to France for the young man, and that the President refused to entertain the idea, characterizing the plan as "utterly impossible." It is apparent that young Mr. Hyde, instead of being the victim of a plot to get him out of the country, as he has alleged, was straining every energy to secure a diplomatic position which was several sizes too large for him.

Having taken her dose of war medicine, Japan is now experiencing some of the unpleasant "after-effects," as distinguished from the immediate and to-be-expected results. In view of the general industrial depression throughout the country, the presence of 700,000 unemployed men, following the return of the troops from abroad, is causing considerable uneasiness, as well it might. It would be no difficult matter for this discordant element in the population to occasion serious disturbances, especially since the unsatisfactory settlement of the war is still rankling in the public mind.

The new policy of the state department regarding the appointment of foreigners as consular agents would seem to be founded on common sense. Hereafter, it is said, none but Americans will be named to represent this government abroad, in any capacity. At many posts, where the compensation is small and composed chiefly of fees, it has been difficult to get Americans to serve, and native business men have been delegated to look after American interests. Such men, it is apparent, cannot feel the same interest in advancing American trade as if they were citizens of this country. The granting of more liberal compensation for these smaller posts would solve the problem of obtaining competent consuls from our own country.

The Greater Pittsburgh.

Representative L. B. Cook, who fathered the Greater Pittsburgh bill at the last session of the legislature, announces that he will unite with others in the preparation of a new bill for the same purpose, framed so as to avoid the objections raised by the supreme court to the last one. We sincerely trust that he will succeed in doing this, and that by New Year's day of 1907 Pittsburgh and Allegheny, together with some, at least, of the surrounding boroughs, will be united in one municipality.

On one point we do not agree with Mr. Cook. He declares that he is in favor of a bill that will allow the governor to appoint the first mayor of the Greater Pittsburgh. We seriously question the advisability of inserting this provision in the bill. When the Greater Pittsburgh legislation was pending last winter it was proposed that the act should take effect on the first of April next, at which time the terms of both mayors (Pittsburgh and Allegheny) would expire. It was then suggested that a provisional government be instituted in the greater city for the first year of its existence, and that the mayor for that period should be appointed by the governor. The condition of affairs today is different. It will be next to impossible to pass a bill in time to have the first election for the greater city held at the time of the city elections in February. In order not to hasten matters it will be far better to allow the two cities to elect their respective mayors, and then when the consolidation takes place (say, January 1, 1907), the mayor of the larger city will naturally continue to govern the greater municipality. This will throw upon the people of the present city of Pittsburgh the burden of choosing a man for mayor who will be competent to take charge of the government of the greater city. We are strongly in favor of the Greater Pittsburgh, but we do not think that it is either necessary or expedient, under the present conditions, to resort to anything like revolutionary measures in bringing it about.

Indoor Football.

Impressed with the general and increasing popularity of football in this country, a manager of amusements proposes to extend the season by providing for the playing of the game indoors in all the large cities. To this end, he is seeking the opinion of football enthusiasts as to the prospects for popular support of his scheme, which is based upon purely financial considerations. The idea is a silly one which should receive no support from lovers of amateur sport. For the last two years an attempt has been made to popularize indoor football at Madison Square Garden, New York, but with little success. A modification of the game was also played in a large skating rink at Rochester, N. Y., a few seasons ago. The participants were padded to elephantine proportions to prevent injury, but contact with the hard board floor, which had no covering, resulted in broken noses and other unpleasant consequences, and the indoor football season was cut short.

Indoor football is an anomaly, a travesty on real sport. Each athletic pastime has its logical season, and the public is satisfied with it during that period. The fall is the time for football. The bracing atmosphere of this season conduces to the health of players and spectators. Indoors is no place for the game. Besides, no leading college team could be induced to compete. On the conclusion of the regular season football players are glad to break training and turn their attention to other things. Hospital surgeons, coroners, anxious parents and the general public get enough of football in the 10 weeks it now takes to run its course.

London's Problem.

London reminds one of a boy who is growing rapidly at the expense of his strength, who does not assimilate sufficient nourishment to support his frame. The problem which confronts the authorities of how to provide work for the thousands of unemployed whose families are now in dire suffering and whose condition will become worse with the approach of winter weather, is rendered more serious by the steady and enormous increase of the population. Two centuries ago the question of how to prevent the growth of London was freely discussed. No effective plan was suggested. Some interesting figures just made public by the London county council illustrate the growing concentration of population. Greater London now contains 30 per cent more people than the whole of Canada and 40 per cent more than Australasia from British New Guinea to Tasmania. The people of Norway and Switzerland together equal about three-fourths of London's population. With most cities growth is accompanied by prosperity. The opposite condition seems to prevail in London. There has been an appalling increase in pauperism. There are now 136,000 paupers, meaning simply persons supported by the authorities. On one winter night in central London, comprising about four square miles, 1,797 men, women and children were "either walking the roadways, homeless, or sleeping on staircases, under doorways or in arches." In Shoreditch of every 1,000 children born 171 die before they are a year old.

It is hard to believe British statesmanship will not effect a solution of the big problem. The imperative necessity for immediate action seems to be ignored by the premier and his advisors. When thousands of women and children are starving, because their natural protectors are unable to find work, it is not the time to procrastinate. Temporary relief measures would tide over the situation until parliament can meet and consider the whole problem on a broad basis.

People's Interest in Phila. Co.

The people of Pittsburgh have a direct personal interest in the report that negotiations are pending for a change of control of the Philadelphia Company. The latter more nearly monopolizes the public utilities of this city than any other corporation in any other city of similar size and importance. It absolutely controls the traction facilities of the territory which may be embraced in Greater Pittsburgh, and it has a monopoly of the illuminating gas business in the same community. It likewise controls the electric lighting for the residence and part of the business portion of the city, and only its illiberal policy deprived it of the great proportion of the electric lighting of the office buildings erected in recent years.

It may be laid down as a general proposition that every plan for financing the reorganization of a going enterprise contemplates an increase in the volume of stocks and bonds. The only exceptions are in the case of reorganization after bankruptcy, or in a consolidation of competitive interests all of which have not yet reached a stage of profit for all securities. The present proposition involving the Philadelphia Company does not fall into either class. According to current report, however, it is proposed by outside capital to acquire control of the property and franchises by an exchange of a certain percentage of collateral trust bonds (the security being Philadelphia Company stock) and a certain percentage of stock of the new holding company, for the shares of the Philadelphia Company. The par value of the new securities will represent a premium over the par value of the Philadelphia Company stock exchanged therefor. In other words, a larger volume of stocks and bonds upon which it is hoped to ultimately earn interest and dividends will be issued against the property, without adding anything to the property and equipment which would increase the efficiency of the whole.

This kind of financiering has become familiar through its frequent use in the past in hoodwinking the public. Whenever the business of a corporation, through the increase of wealth and population, grows up to its previous overcapitalization, the professional financier steps in and reorganizes it. If the capital were allowed to remain unchanged, representing only actual property plus the brains contributed to improved methods and management, then the percentage of profits would become so large that there would be a demand for a reduction in the cost of service, or a larger contribution to the community in the shape of increased taxes. But if the capitalization is increased to a point a little beyond fair earning power, the percentage of profits may be made to look small and the corporation may always resort to the argument that increased taxation means confiscation.

When this kind of financiering is confined to enterprises which occupy an open field into which any one is free to enter, no strong objection can be made, except possibly by conservative investors; but when it deals with public service corporations which acquire the nature of a monopoly, there is ground for serious objection. It directly affects the public interests. The public, by reason of increasing numbers and wealth, contributes to the prosperity of the public service corporation. It should share in that prosperity in the way of improved service and lower costs, rather than be mulcted into paying more than the service would command if the field were open to free competition.

At the present time, when the metropolis of the country has narrowly escaped falling into the hands of the Socialists because of the acts of high finance, it seems most inopportune to bring forward a proposition to tax the citizens of Pittsburgh all the traffic will bear.

QUIET OBSERVATIONS ON WAYS OF WORLD

And Then the Women Rose Up and Smote Him Real Hard.

By ERASMUS WILSON.

There are women and women, as well as there are men and men.

The question for men is to decide which is his kind. Some are able to do this, while some are not.

And, man-like, as a woman would say, he blames it on the woman, saying that she fooled him with her finery, tony airs and assumed virtue.

He may be right, or he may be wrong—one about as apt as the other.

And thus they go, pecking and knocking each other. And it has ever been thus, and probably will ever be so, unless some scheme is raised by which men and women will be enabled to see through and understand each other.

* * *

That some of them try to fool each other there can be no reasonable doubt, but up to date women are charged with being the more expert and successful at the game.

One can hardly have any real sympathy for the man who gets fooled, no matter how much one may pity him in his deplorable condition.

The woman who fools a man into marrying her is fooling herself most of all, for a man fooled in this way never makes even a passibly good husband, although he may be worth his thousands.

Just why women keep up this sort of thing is one of the great mysteries of the age, and one that will hardly be cleared up until man becomes gifted with the power of seeing through and understanding them.

All women are not deceitful, which, it is fair to suppose, you imagine lets you out.

* * *

But why argue this old and much-vexed question? Or is it an old question? Is it not new to every man and woman who comes onto the stage where eligibles for marriage are wont to exhibit themselves?

Certainly it is, and will continue to renew its youth day by day, or as often as men smile on women, and women angle for men.

And women will hardly argue seriously that they are justified in making themselves to appear to be what they are not, even if they do so in order to catch husbands.

And yet there are some who argue that the men like it, and are to blame for it.

You haven't forgotten "A Real Bachelor Girl," who made it very hot for the old bachelor. She has a word or two to say on this point, and a bit warm, but not hot, not too hot.

* * *

Dear Mr. Quiet Observer Man:—I see the eternal question has come up again—to marry or not to marry.

Shall a man marry a business woman or a home girl?

It all depends upon the girl. There are selfish women who sit at home and strum the Fifth Nocturne just as there are selfish women who measure off ribbon at 19 cents a yard.

But the trouble don't lie entirely with the women. (I am speaking of unselfish women). More men look for rich wives than women look for rich husbands. And I'll tell you why. Woman's nature is more romantic than man's. To her love is the leit motif of marriage. Of course, I must be fair and grant you that with her abnormal imagination she oftimes hypnotizes herself into the belief that she loves a man. But even imagined, love is heaps better than no love at all.

Man can regulate his affections, and money is a great regulator. It is the lever that moves the matrimonial mart.

Take a woman with a head as empty as the straw man in the "Wizard of Oz" and a form as thin as a drink of spring water, dress her up with all the folderols Dame Fashion has decreed to be the proper mode, whisper it to the winds that plenty of gold is here, and then behold the worshipers at her shrine! In one grand ensemble a chorus of masculine voices tears through the nebulous space, "I love you, be mine, be mine!"

Do these men read aright the selfish curves in the woman's mouth, the shallowness of soul her eyes reveal, the lazy indifference spoken in every movement of her body. Gold is blinding.

On the other hand, if a self-supporting woman appear superficial, giddy and extravagant, man has made her the masquerader. If he desires her to appear herself, let him first be himself. Man should always take the initiative. Truth attracts truth.

On a $10-a-week salary don't let him purchase $2 theater tickets, then go without lunch for a week or two to make up for it.

That sort of man cannot realize how miserable he makes a woman feel while she is occupying that $2 seat when she knows he cannot afford it. She'd much rather he'd say to her: "I would like to take you to the theater, but I cannot afford parquet seats. If you'll sit up stairs I would be pleased to take you." If any woman refuses to go with him under those circumstances she isn't a true woman. Every true woman will think more of that man's candor and honesty than she will of all the show and bluff she can make in a lifetime.

Please don't blame everything on woman, Mr. Man Observer. She can read a great many men, but the trouble is so few men have the greatness of soul to appreciate a woman's well-meant interest in him. His bump of conceit swells, he imagines she is going to propose marriage to him. He takes to the woods, and the woman is thankful that another weed is pulled out from the garden of friendship.

You hear lots of women say, "Oh, he's such a fool with his money, I might as well help him spend it as anybody else." Yet while she's trotting to theaters and eating bonbons at his expense, in her heart she despises such a man.

Women have more honesty of purpose than men give her credit for. Man is the first to refuse to take her out unless she is rigged out like a popinjay.

There is a man of my acquaintance whom I thought to be a decent sort of chap until I heard him remark: "Oh, Miss Blank's lovely to talk to in the house, but take her out and she looks like a farmer!"

There you have another reason why girls color themselves like a ship's funnel starting across the Atlantic. Man demands feathers and bright colors, and the gentle creature, woman, always willing to be agreeable, wears nightingale's plumes when all she can afford is rooster's wings!

A REAL BACHELOR GIRL.

Experiment Justified.

Out in Kansas, where the government has set aside 60,000 acres as a tree reserve, the work of the tree-planters is beginning to yield definite returns. The forestry station at Dodge City gives away trees at the rate of 500,000 a year, and since the establishment of the station there has been a remarkable change in climatic conditions. There are fewer blizzards on the one hand, and there is much less suffering on the other from the hot winds that formerly did tremendous havoc to the crops. The saving in cattle and in crops alone, without regard to other phases of the work, has more than justified the experiment.—Baltimore American.

SUGGESTS LUNCH ROOMS IN SCHOOLS

City Superintendent Believes Pupils Will Do Better Work If Properly Fed.

By FRANK A. PARKER.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Coffee at 2 cents a cup, milk at 2 cents a glass, bread and soup at 3 cents a plate, may be a part of the bill of fare to be offered in lunch rooms in the public schools if the board of education adopts the suggestion made by City Superintendent William H. Maxwell. Wholesome food at minimum cost should, he believes, be furnished to pupils in the public schools. Thousands of children are not properly fed, and their school work suffers in consequence.

Poverty is not the sole cause for such a condition. Ignorance of parents as to proper preparation of food is largely responsible for it. Another contributary cause is that mothers, in order to leave their homes early in the morning for work, prepare breakfasts for their children, but the children, left to themselves, sleep too late, and have to hurriedly eat their breakfast or leave without it. Then, too, it has been found that pupils whose parents have given them a few cents to purchase their luncheon spend it for candy or big pickles.

These and other children should be given an opportunity to purchase good food, and to that end the board of education, according to Dr. Maxwell, should provide lunch rooms in every public school, particularly in the poorer sections of the city. There the pupils should be able to get a good, wholesome meal at cost, or at as low a cost as possible. The board of education now makes provisions for lunch rooms in the high schools, where caterers, under the supervision of the principals, sell hot dishes and other food to the pupils, many of whom bring the greater part of their luncheons from home.

King Edward Buying Show Horses.

It was learned from a confidential source today that King Edward VII. of England has two agents in the Madison Square garden this week looking over the entries in the horse show with a view of making heavy purchases at private sales. This news was given forth today by a man attached to a stable owned by a man prominent in society, who has already been offered a high sum for a blue ribbon winner. It is also said that Prince Louis of Battenburg will also make a second visit to the horse show, probably tomorrow afternoon, not so much with the intention of viewing the performance of the animals in the ring, or seeing society on parade, but to look himself at stock which in his opinion the king might desire.

New Theater for Harlem.

Old Temple Israel, on the northwest corner at Fifth avenue, will be demolished to make room for another big theater in One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street. The building will cover an area of 110 by 100 feet, and will be 16 stories high. The upper floors are designed for hotel purposes. Much mystery surrounds the identity of the interests which will control the new theater. Representatives of the Shuberts, Belasco and other rivals of the theatrical trust profess ignorance of the undertaking. It is thought Oscar Hammerstein is the man behind the place.

Odell Too Busy to Talk.

Ex-Gov. Odell did not care to talk today about the reports from Washington that Senator Platt and William Barnes, Jr., chairman of the executive committee of the Republican state committee, had called on President Roosevelt and asked his assistance in an effort to depose Mr. Odell from the leadership of the party in this state. When the ex-governor was questioned about the report he had just finished his testimony before the insurance investigating committee, and he was in no mood to talk politics. His friends at state headquarters talked freely enough, however. They ridiculed the idea of Platt and Barnes getting control of the state committee.

Perhaps We Can All Eat Turkey.

Wallabout market wholesale poultry dealers said today that not in several years had there been such a promising outlook for Thanksgiving turkeys. They talk of a crop from 15 to 25 per cent larger than that of last year. At wholesale the cost, it is believed, will be 3 or 4 cents a pound below the prices with which the market opened on November 11 last year, and the uncertain values of 1903, which would bring actual figures down to 18 and 20 cents, depending on quality.

After the Horse Came Cabbages.

Quite an attractive premium list has been arranged for the exhibit of farm products and stock for the country fair and circus to be held at Madison Square garden December 26, 27, 28, 29 and 30. Money and blue ribbon awards will be made in the several classes. The exhibits provide for everything from a head of cabbage to a thoroughbred horse. In the cattle line there will be shown shorthorns, Ayershires, Jerseys and Guernseys.

Nursery No Place to Talk Poker.

At this morning's session of the conference of charities and corrections in the Charities building, fathers and mothers were cautioned by Judge Robert J. Wilkin of the children's court in Brooklyn, against dilating on their good luck at poker or bridge before their children. Betting in all forms was generally denounced.

The Qualifying "If."

The extra session of the legislature will cost half a million dollars, but the people of the commonwealth will not begrudge the money if the projected legislation in the interest of good government is accomplished.—Altoona Gazette.

A COMPANION PIECE TO "DIARY OF ADAM"

One of Twain's Best Efforts Is "Translation from Original" of the Diary of Eve.

Mark Twain has "translated from the original" for the Christmas number of Harper's, the diary of Eve, as a companion piece to "Adam's Diary." These are some of Eve's remarks:

"Saturday—I am almost a whole day old, now. I arrived yesterday. That is as it seems to me. And it must be so, for if there was a day-before-yesterday I was not there when it happened, or I should remember it. It could be, of course, that it did happen, and that I was not noticing.

"For I feel like an experiment. I feel exactly like an experiment, it would be impossible for a person to feel more like an experiment than I do, and so I am coming to feel convinced that that is what I am—an experiment; just an experiment, and nothing more.

"Then if I am an experiment, am I the whole of it? No, I think not; I think the rest of it is part of it. I am the main part of it, but I think the rest of it has its share in the matter. Is my position assured, or do I have to watch it and take care of it? The latter, perhaps. Some instinct tells me that eternal vigilance is the price of supremacy. (That is a good phrase, I think, for one so young.)

"Everything looks better today than it did yesterday. In the rush of finishing up yesterday, the mountains were left in a ragged condition, and some of the plains were so cluttered with rubbish and remnants that the aspects were quite distressing.

"I do love moons, they are so pretty and so romantic. I wish we had five or six; I would never go to bed; I should never get tired lying on the moss-bank and looking up at them.

"Stars are good, too. I wish I could get some to put in my hair. But I suppose I never can. You would be surprised to find how far off they are, for they do not look it. When they first showed last night, I tried to knock some down with a pole, but it didn't reach, which astonished me; then I tried clods till I was all tired out, but I never got one. It was because I am left-handed and cannot throw good.

Followed the Experiment Around.

"I followed the other experiment around, yesterday afternoon, at a distance, to see what it might be for, if I could. But I was not able to make out. I think it is a man. I had never seen a man, but it looked like one, and I feel sure that is what it is. I realize that I feel more curiosity about it than about any of the other reptiles. If it is a reptile, and I suppose it is; for it has frowsy hair and blue eyes, and looks like a reptile. It has no hips; it tapers like a carrot; when it stands, it spreads itself apart like a derrick; so I think it is a reptile, though it may be architecture.

"I was afraid of it at first, and started to run every time it turned around, for I thought it was going to chase me; but by and by I found it was only trying to get away, so after that I was not timid any more, but tracked it along, several hours, about 20 yards behind, which made it nervous and unhappy. At last it was a good deal worried, and climbed a tree. I waited a good while, then gave it up and went home.

"Today the same thing over. I've got it up the tree again."

"Sunday—It is up there yet. Resting apparently. But that is a subterfuge.

"I do wonder what it is for; I never see it do anything.

Felt a New Interest.

"When I found it could talk I felt a new interest in it; for I love to talk; I talk all day, and in my sleep, too, and I am very interesting, but if I had another to talk to I could be twice as interesting, and would never stop, if desired.

"If this reptile is a man, it isn't an it, is it? That wouldn't be grammatical, would it? I think it would be he. I think so. In that case one would parse it thus; nominative, he; dative, him; possessive, his'n. Well, I will consider it a man and call it he until it turns out to be something else. This will be handier than having so many uncertainties.

"During the last day or two I have taken all the work of naming things off his hands, and this has been a great relief to him, for he has no gift in that line, and is evidently very grateful. He can't think of a rational name to save him, but I do not let him see that I am aware of his defect. Whenever a new creature comes along I name it before he has time to expose himself by an awkward silence. In this way I have saved him many embarrassments. I have no defect like his. The minute I set eyes on an animal I know what it is. I don't have to reflect a moment; the right name comes out instantly, just as if it were an inspiration, as no doubt it is, for I am sure it wasn't in me half a minute before. I seem to know just by the shape of the creature and the way it acts what animal it is.

"I tried to get him some of those apples, but I cannot learn to throw straight. I failed, but I think the good intention pleased him. They are forbidden, and he says I shall come to harm; but so I come to harm through pleasing him why shall I care for that harm?"

To Nationalize Niagara.

Mr. Roosevelt's intervention in behalf of Niagara will be of great value to public interest in that wonder. The rapid withdrawal of the waters from the fall to serve the trolley and lighting corporations, the increase in the mills and shops along the shore that derive their power from the cataract, threaten to end the vision of Niagara in a huddle of industrial ugliness. America has an interest in this spectacle, even as a commercial investment, for thousands pay money to look at it; but it is degrading that it should be necessary to remind the authorities of this fact. The cataract is its own esthetic justification, and it is time that conclusive measures were taken to prevent its further spoliation.—Brooklyn Eagle.

NOVEMBER.

The bittersweet hangs lush;
And everywhere the flaming sumacs burn,
And skies are all a-flush.

Afar is heard the lusty call of hunter's horn,
And sound of baying hound,
While noisy blackbirds clamor in the frosted corn,
And ripe nuts patter to the ground.

In the doomed and dying wood,
And in the heart a nameless pathos creeps and grieves,
And is not understood.

STORIES FOUND IN THE LOBBIES

Interesting Happenings Concerning the People Who Are Traveling.

The New York special of the Pennsylvania carried about as many notable people eastward last night as have ever traveled at one time on the train. Postmaster General George B. Cortelyou of Washington, Governor Francis Murphy of New Jersey, Gov. Myron T. Herrick of Ohio, Cornelius N. Bliss, ex-secretary of the treasury, and Col. Robert Lowrey of Atlanta, Ga., were among those who went on the train from the Union station at 10 o'clock. These gentlemen, and William McConway of Pittsburgh, came into the city shortly before 9 o'clock from Canton, where they had participated in the exercises attendant upon the laying of the corner stone for the McKinley memorial monument. Mr. Cortelyou was en route to Washington, Gov. Murphy to Trenton, Mr. Bliss to New York city, Col. Lowrey to Atlanta and Gov. Herrick to Atlantic City, where he is spending a few weeks with his family, resting up from the strenuous experiences of the recent campaign.

Gov. Herrick said that he has not thought of the future in a political way and has now no definite plans for himself after his administration ends. He said that he deemed the recent election but a temporary lull of the Republican forces, and that the future would find the party more strongly organized than ever before. The Republican party, he said, was never so strong as today, and it will be found far more intact when national issues are up for consideration. The wave of reform will pass, but the principles of the party are imbedded too deeply to be uprooted by such ephemeral tides.

It Was a Jerome, Anyhow.

"What? District Attorney Jerome here?"

Every hour or so this word could be heard last night in the Hotel Henry lobby, and then some New Yorker would walk over to the desk and ask whether Mr. Jerome was in the city, and, if so, could he be found? Yes, Mr. Jerome was in the city, and Mr. Jerome of New York, too; but it was the Jerome that has made the world laugh, for who does not recall the escapades of the "Three Men in a Boat—Not Counting the Dog?" It was the famous humorist, Jerome K. Jerome, who was in the city, with Mrs. Jerome and Charles Battell Loomis, another author of international fame. Messrs. Jerome and Loomis were here to lecture at one of the private schools.

BANK FAILURE STOPS BANQUET

DEPOSITORS MAY NOT LOSE

"The books show a balance on hand of $151.01. Of this sum, $138.13 is downstairs in the Enterprise bank, I suppose. At least, our treasurer, Thomas W. Harvey, informed me he placed that sum to our credit in the bank. I have $14.88 in cash, a check on the Enterprise bank for $8 and $5 in cash collected here today. I therefore move that we postpone holding the annual banquet until after the holidays, at least."

This statement was made yesterday afternoon by Secretary Smith to the North Side board of trade, which meets in the building of the Enterprise National bank of Allegheny.

The motion to postpone the banquet was adopted unanimously.

The appraisers of Cashier T. Lee Clark's estate sold a piece of realty yesterday for $5,000. One appraiser estimated that $100,000 would be raised on the remainder of the estate. In going through the personal accounts of the dead cashier it has been discovered that Clark put up $240,000 personal collateral for loans he negotiated within the past few months. This security cannot be regarded as being part of the estate, as it will be claimed by the persons and institutions from whom the loans were obtained.

No estimate can be put upon the holdings of Clark in the Pennsylvania Development Company and the Santa Fe Railway Company. He was treasurer and had large holdings in both corporations. The bonds of the companies have been marketed, but the stock has not been sold yet. The railway company has a liability of $2,000,000 in bonds and besides this has paper and demand notes aggregating $1,600,000. These are preferred claims and must be satisfied before any others. For this reason it would be almost useless to hope for any return for the depositors from the New Mexico properties belonging to Clark. This also probably explains why Receiver Cunningham does not ask for a receiver for the companies.

Former Senator William H. Andrews has met part of the obligations sued for by Receiver Cunningham and, it is said, has resources that will enable him to pay back every cent he borrowed. Recent developments indicate that the depositors will get almost their entire deposits back, as was said more than a week ago in The Gazette, in contradiction of the report that 10 cents on the dollar was about all that could be hoped for.

HAVE NOT DECIDED YET WHO WILL HEAD POLICE

Director Moore Talks With Mayor Hays and Announces Postponement. Selection Is Growing Harder.

Mayor Hays and Director Moore did not appoint a police superintendent yesterday. It was expected they might decide on a name and announce the appointment yesterday, but action was postponed until today.

The longer the decision is postponed the harder it will be, it is declared, for the administration to select a good man. Already representatives of undesirable elements that seemed to control the bureau awhile ago, are making their wishes known. They desire a man who believes in a wide-open town and they are not backward in letting the administration know what they want.

Former Police Capt. William Tanney was seen about the public safety building yesterday, but Mr. Tanney, it is known, does not want the place. He said yesterday he had had as much experience in the police business as he cared to have. Tanney is comfortably well off and intends to go into business for himself. Alderman Kirby was talked of again, but Kirby asks only to be let alone in his place as police magistrate.

Detective Morgan McDonald's friends were booming him for the place, and an effort is made to make the mayor believe the South Side ought to be "recognized" by giving the berth to McDonald.

Detective Cecil Rice is still thought to be favored by prominent members of the Citizens party. He is not an applicant for the place. A business man who told Rice yesterday he intended to recommend him to Director Moore, says Rice told him he needn't trouble himself, as he was not a candidate.

"That's the kind of a man we ought to have as police superintendent," the business man says he told Rice.

Director Moore said yesterday afternoon he had talked with the mayor briefly about the appointment and they had postponed a decision until today, "although," the director said, "that does not mean that the appointment will be made then."

Roger O'Mara, John A. Staley and Councilman E. J. Edwards talked with Director Moore a long time yesterday afternoon. It is not known whom they recommended for police superintendent.

CHANCE FOR PURE FOOD LAW.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—Senator McCumber of North Dakota, chairman of the pure food commission of the senate, presented to the President today R. M. Allen of Lexington, Ky., secretary of the National Food and Dairy association; Horace Ankery, food commissioner of Ohio; Dr. Ladd, food commissioner of North Dakota, and Miss Lackey, of the National Federation of Womens' clubs.

They discussed with the President proposed pure food legislation and urged him to use his influence to secure the enactment of the bill now pending in the senate. Senator McCumber expressed the belief that the measure would be enacted at the approaching session of congress.

CUTTING DOWN EXPENSES IN UNITED STATES NAVY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—Secretary Bonaparte devoted practically the whole day to the consideration of the naval estimate, consulting with different bureau chiefs. It was stated that while the expenses of the navy have increased, the secretary is endeavoring to hold the increases down as low as possible, and that he has cut a great many items which have been submitted by the different bureaus.

Coburn Takes Carbolic Acid.

George Coburn of Weston, W. Va., boarding at 5272 Second avenue, took carbolic acid last night at 8 o'clock, in his room. He was discovered shortly afterward, was attended by a physician and then sent to the South Side hospital. He is 21 years old and unmarried. His condition is serious.

AN APPEAL THAT IS ALSO WARNING

MASSACRES MUST CEASE

Special Telegram From J. H. RALSTON, Staff Correspondent.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—The completing of the organization of the conference this morning logically followed the cordial greetings given it the evening before by the city of New York and the religious organizations of the city. The Rev. W. H. Roberts, D. D., chairman of the executive committee, in his report made a forcible defense of the committee in the scope of its invitation and gratitude was expressed that the invitations were so universally accepted.

The addresses of the morning were in explanation of the steps already taken for the conference. The resolution offered by Dr. Washington Gladden appealing to the Christian ministers and people of Russia to do all they can to put a stop to the atrocities upon the Jews in that country was adopted with enthusiasm, it being understood that the appeal did not go to Russians from Americans as such but from Christians to Christians in the interest of peace.

At the afternoon meeting the Hon. John Wanamaker made a profound impression by his advocacy of better Sunday school methods, and the Rev. George Hodges, D. D., formerly of Pittsburgh, and now dean of the Episcopal Theological school of Cambridge, Mass., read an exceedingly spicy paper on the theological seminary and modern life which was received with applause, as he made a plea for practical instruction of theological students and for a deeper interest in the fish in the sea of humanity rather than the kind of bait to be used in the fishing.

An Appeal to Russians.

The Rev. Washington Gladden presented a paper imploring the Russians as Christians to cease from the massacre of the Jews. The appeal read as follows:

"The inter-church federation of the United States of America, representing 18,000,000 of communicants in the free Protestant churches of America, sends greeting to the Christian rulers and the Christian ministers and the Christian people of Russia, beseeching them in the name of our Lord Jesus to do what they can without delay, to put an end to the dreadful cruelties which are now being inflicted on the Jewish people in many parts of the Russian empire.

"That those who bear the name of Jesus Christ should practice such practices or tolerate them brings pain to the heart and shame to the face of every true Christian in all the world. And what grief it must cause to the blessed Christ himself, who pronounced His blessing on the merciful, who gave us that parable of the good Samaritan who succored and befriended a suffering Jew.

"Our hearts go out to the Russian people in this day of their trouble and calamity. We are praying that peace and welfare may soon be restored to you; but our sympathy is chilled and our prayers falter on our lips when we read of this terrible carnage.

Appeal Also a Warning.

"The people of Russia must not in their time of need make it hard for their Christian brethren in all the world to think kindly of them.

"We speak, not as the representatives of any military or political power. We speak not as Americans to Russians, but as Christian men to Christian men, and we implore you brethren, by the memories of Christ, that you will act at once, with one accord, and rise up and speak the word which shall restrain these atrocities and heal the reproach which they are bringing on the Christian name."

This appeal was referred to a committee for action.

The Rev. James D. Moffat, D. D., president of Washington and Jefferson college, presided at the evening session, the topic being "The United Church and the Social Order." Supreme Court Justice John M. Harlin discussed labor and capital and the Rev. Henry J. Van Dyke, D. D., the ideal society. It has been observed that in many of the addresses more and more attention is being called to the physical and social demands of man as of great importance in connection with his religious demands.

Many of the delegates were guests at the thirty-ninth anniversary of the international committee of the Y. M. C. A. at the Waldorf-Astoria, at which were many distinguished men including Rear Admiral J. E. Coghlan and General Frederick D. Grant.

Pittsburghers at Conference.

The roll contains the names of the following delegates from Pittsburgh and vicinity: Baptists, the Rev. W. G. Partridge and Hon. Kirke Porter; Methodist Episcopal, the Rev. C. W. Smith, D. D., Durbin Horne and Dr. Daniel Dorchester being alternates; Presbyterians, the Rev. J. D. Moffatt, D. D., the Rev. F. W. Sneed, D. D., with the Rev. D. S. Kennedy, D. D., and the Rev. W. L. McEwan, D. D., as alternates; Cumberland Presbyterians, the Rev. J. R. Harris of Apollo, and the Rev. R. S. Irvine, of Punxsutawney, Pa.; Reformed Presbyterians (general synod) the Rev. David Steele, D. D., and the Rev. Thomas Watters, D. D.; the Protestant Episcopal, Bishop Cortlandt Whitehead, D. D.; Reformed church, the Rev. J. H. Prugh, D. D., and the Rev. Cyrus Cort, D. D., and United Brethren, the Rev. Lawrence Keister of Mt. Pleasant, Pa.

Twenty-four cases of typhoid fever, five of diphtheria and two of scarlet fever were reported to the Pittsburgh bureau of health yesterday.

YUKA YUKUL COMMITTED FOR THE RUANE KILLING

Victim, It Is Said, Tried to Enter a Woman's House and Was Pushed Off the Steps.

Yuka Yukul of Miller street, Allegheny, and Mrs. Petra Lozinsky were turned over to the coroner yesterday by the Allegheny police for several hours. The two were arrested, along with Maggie Vloitch and Barney Lozinsky, for alleged complicity in the killing of Patrick Ruane. The latter died Wednesday night at St. John's General hospital of a fractured skull. He was found lying in Miller street on Saturday night in an unconscious condition by Policeman Rhall. Until Wednesday afternoon he remained at his boarding house, the Hotel Buckley, Ridge avenue and Rebecca street, and apparently was not seriously injured. Several hours after being removed to the hospital he died.

The county detectives and the Allegheny police got a report of the affair and started an investigation. Special Patrolmen Hamilton, Lee and Burgoon arrested the four and learned from them that Ruane had attempted to enter the house of Mrs. Sarah Siscera, 1319 Miller street, on Saturday night, and that Yukul pushed Ruane off the steps. Ruane fell and struck his head on the pavement. Although the police and the coroner's deputies believe neither Yukul nor Mrs. Lozinsky is responsible for the death of Ruane, the two were held pending investigation. Yukul was committed to jail by the coroner, pending the inquest.

Marie Richardson, aged five years, died yesterday of burns. Her mother, Hannah Richardson, said that on Wednesday she went into the yard to get a pail of water. She heard screams and running into the house found her little girl with her clothing ablaze. She supposed the clothing caught fire from the grate fire. The family lives at 1227 Webster avenue.

The coroner's jury brought in a verdict that Margaret Bowers had died from a criminal operation performed by some person unknown. The girl died on Wednesday at the St. John's hospital, Allegheny, where she had been sent from a house on Watson street, Pittsburgh.

Officials Vacate for Successors.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 16.—J. Brinton White, secretary, and James O. Baker, treasurer, of Coxe Brothers & Company and the Delaware, Susquehanna & Schuylkill Railroad company, have resigned and their places will be filled by D. G. Baird and W. C. Alderson, respectively secretary and treasurer of the Lehigh Valley railroad. The offices will be removed to the Lehigh Valley offices in this city.

COMPETITION FOR LIGHT CONTRACT

Larkin Says There Will Be a Bid Against the Allegheny County Company.

BIGELOW TO SEE CALLERY

Controller Larkin said yesterday that the Allegheny County Light Company would have competition for the city lighting contract. He was asked if a bid would be presented by the Duquesne company, but he declined to give the name of the company that would bid for the city contract. It is stated that an outside company will bid for the contract for four years, but will not use electricity if it is successful in getting the contract.

Director Bigelow, within a few days, will hold a conference with President J. D. Callery of the Allegheny County Light Company and Judge J. H. Reed of the Philadelphia company to arrive at some conclusion concerning the city light contract. Director Bigelow has an ordinance in councils providing for a four-year contract, but it has not been positively fixed that the Allegheny County Light Company will succeed in getting the contract for four years.

This will be determined very probably at the coming conference between the director of public works and the head officials of the two companies. Before his departure from Pittsburgh for the east on Tuesday night Director Bigelow endeavored to make arrangements for a conference with prominent stockholders of the Philadelphia company, but the conference was postponed.

When the director returned to the city yesterday he was asked concerning the assurances which Controller Larkin claimed to have that the price of electric light to the city from the Allegheny County Light Company was to be cut down if the company should be given a four-year contract.

"Have you any information that the price will be cut down?"

"I think so," was Mr. Bigelow's reply, and he would not say more than this except, when asked how much the reduction would be, replied:

"I don't know, but I will know before the ordinance passes councils."

The reported change in the control of the Philadelphia company and its subsidiary concerns is said to have considerable to do with the city electric light contract, and may determine whether the contract shall be let for one year or four years, and whether the city shall continue to pay the same price.

MUST INCREASE AIRBRAKES.

Interstate Commerce Commission Announces That Percentage of Cars Thus Equipped Is Raised to 75.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—The interstate commerce commission today announced its decision in the matter of the minimum percentage of cars in trains required to be operated with power or train brakes. The decision states that increasing the percentage of air-braked cars in trains from 50 to 75 per cent would result in an earlier operation of trains fully equipped with airbrakes and accelerate the removal from service of the old small capacity and comparatively useless cars now not equipped with that appliance.

It is ordered that the minimum percentage of airbraked cars in trains, used in interstate commerce shall stand increased to 75 per cent on and after August 1, 1906. The number of freight cars in the service of the railway companies as reported to the commission on October 1, was 1,790,113, of which 1,564,396 were equipped with train brakes.

Pleasing Recital in Allegheny.

The 683d of the series of free organ recitals was given last night at the Carnegie Music hall, Allegheny, by Caspar P. Koch, city organist. Organist Koch was assisted by Mr. Beddoe, tenor, whose selections were highly appreciated. Among the numbers rendered by Organist Koch were "Funebre et chant Seraphique," and three transcriptions from Wagner's "Lohengrin."

Second Suit Against Bernolac.

Suit for embezzlement was entered yesterday on behalf of the First National bank of Braddock, against Stephen Bernolac in the United States district court. It is alleged that Bernolac, who was superintendent of the foreign department, got away with $6,000 of the bank's funds. Bernolac is already in jail on the same charge, brought in the county quarter sessions court. The latter suit will probably be withdrawn.

ANGELUS PIANO, As Played the New Way.

means much to music lovers. The owner of any Angelus Piano has not only secured a fine piano, but also the means of playing it.

The piano itself is a fine instrument of high artistic value. It contains a concealed Angelus Piano Player of exactly the same simple and effective character as the regular Angelus, which has become so great a favorite in Pittsburg's finest homes. With all the advantages which the Angelus Piano has to offer, is it any wonder that people having pianos of fine quality which they could not play were glad to exchange them in part payment for an Angelus Piano, which anyone can play?

The character of these pianos, which have come to us in exchange, has been surprising, many of them being almost new. All of them are in good condition. We are obliged to offer them at forced sale because of the pressing need for room for arriving holiday goods.

This sale, therefore, constitutes an unusual opportunity for economical purchasers.

Monthly payments may be arranged if desired.

NEWS OF THE NEARBY TOWNS AND COUNTRY

RECOVER THREE BODIES FROM THE CLYDE MINE

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, PA., Nov. 16.—Three of the bodies of the six miners entombed in the Clyde mine at Fredericktown October 11 were recovered today and the remaining three will be taken out tomorrow morning. The bodies are so decomposed that it is impossible to identify them. The six men killed in the disaster were George Kelly, Homer Harvey, Richard March, Richard Moffy, Ponsie Lorenzo and Cesto Barnardino.

The mine, which was fired by the explosion, was flooded to extinguish the flames and has been closed. Tests made this morning show that the fire is completely out and the search for the bodies commenced.

The bodies will be held until the coroner arrives tomorrow, when it is believed identification can be made by the men's clothing. During the search today the party came upon the carcasses of two horses, which had perished.

AGAINST SPEAKEASIES.

Cambria Liquor Dealers Oppose Indiscriminate Sales and Christmas Treating.

JOHNSTOWN, PA., Nov. 16.—(Special.)—At a largely attended meeting of the Cambria County Liquor Dealers' association in this city today a resolution was unanimously adopted pledging the association to use every legitimate means to break up the speakeasies in the county.

The association also decided to petition the court to put a stop to the indiscriminate sale of dollar "pony" beer to gangs of men and so-called clubs and to adopt the Allegheny county rule of prohibiting Christmas treating.

Teachers Threaten to Resign.

CHARLEROI, Nov. 16.—(Special.)—A majority of the 34 teachers in the Charleroi schools threaten to resign if the resolution adopted by the board of education eliminating devotional exercises at the opening of school is carried into effect. The board has yielded temporarily to the instructors. Ministers and citizens petitioned the board to reconsider its action.

Refuses Railroad a New Trial.

UNIONTOWN, PA., Nov. 16.—(Special.)—In the case of the Connellsville Gas Coal Company against the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company, operating the Baltimore & Ohio Short line, a new trial has been refused and judgment directed to be entered to secure the condemnation of the land in Dunbar township, which has been occupied by the right of way since the short line was built in 1883.

The Death Roll.

Louis Shaler.

Louis Shaler, aged 84, who, for years was a well-known resident of the South Side, is dead of apoplexy, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Emma L. Kipp, No. 1 McKee place, Allegheny. Mr. Shaler was born in Hesse Cassel, Germany. At the age of seven he went to the Jamaica islands, where he was a protege of James Scott. When he was 15 years old he was superintendent of a large plantation. He came to Pittsburgh in 1839 and in 1844 was married to Caroline Diehl. Mr. Shaler followed the tailors' trade for years on the South Side. He was a member of Grace Reformed church, Pittsburgh. He spent a few years in Chicago with his son Fred J. The following children survive: Mrs. Kipp and Louis, Robert and Fred J. Shaler. Eight grandchildren and six great-grandchildren also survive. The funeral services will occur this evening at 8 o'clock at the residence of Fred J. Shaler, 1014 Cabinet street. Interment will occur tomorrow morning and will be private.

John L. Anderson.

John L. Anderson, aged 68, died yesterday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. William G. Boyle, Forrest avenue, Bellevue. Mr. Anderson was born on a farm near Murdocksville, Beaver county. He came to this city when he was a young man and had lived in this vicinity ever since. He is survived by one son, James B. Anderson of Sharpsburg, and the following daughters: Mrs. Louis Steitz, Allegheny; Mrs. George C. Douglass, Newcomerstown, O.; Miss Arabell D. Anderson, Allegheny, and Mrs. William G. Boyle, Bellevue.

William McClain.

William McClain, aged 85, died last night at Dunningsville, Pa. He was born in Ireland and came with his parents to this country when a child. He was connected for half a century with the Pigeon Creek Presbyterian church. Mrs. McClain died in 1859. The following children survive: Margaret J., Louisa J., Eliza H. and William F. McClain, at home, and J. Y. McClain, a contractor, of Washington. Three sisters and one brother live at Library and another brother is at Monessen.

Mrs. Charles Thornburg.

The body of Mrs. Charles Thornburg, aged 53, who died at her home in Ninth street yesterday, was taken to the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Reason Walker, in Sewickley, where funeral services and interment will take place. Mrs. Thornburg is survived by her husband. She was a member of the North Avenue Methodist Episcopal church, Allegheny.

Mrs. Mary Gupekunst.

Mrs. Mary Gupekunst, aged 53, died yesterday evening at her home in Mifflin avenue, Wilkinsburg. She was born in Germany and came to the United States in 1844. She had lived in Wilkinsburg five years. She was a member of the First Christian church, and is survived by her husband, John Gupekunst, three sons and three daughters.

Owen Carney.

Owen Carney died yesterday at the home of his daughter, 15 Lafayette street. He was born in Ireland, but the greater part of his life was spent here. He was a veteran of the civil war and a member of Post 41, G. A. R. He is survived by three daughter, Mrs. John Martin, Mrs. Henry Meyers and Mrs. Robert P. McCurdy, and one son, Thomas Carney.

Mrs. Samuel C. Barker.

Mrs. Harriett A. Barker, aged 35, wife of Samuel C. Barker, died at her home in Monterey street, McKeesport, yesterday. She is survived by her husband and one son. Mrs. Barker was a member of the United Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Frederick Marquard.

Mrs. Laura Marquard, wife of Frederick Marquard of Enterprise street, McKeesport, died yesterday afternoon. She is survived by her husband and one grandson. She was a member of the German Evangelical Lutheran church.

Michael Grimes.

Michael Grimes, aged 80, died yesterday morning at the home of his son, William, in Rankin. He was born in Ireland and moved to Rankin from Irwin several years ago. He was a widower and he leaves five children.

Obituary Notes.

John C. Brady, aged 61, died last night at Sharon, Pa. He was a brakeman on the Pennsylvania railroad.

Harry B. Thomas, aged 37, vice president and business manager of the Evening Times of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., died at Wilkes-Barre last night of tuberculosis.

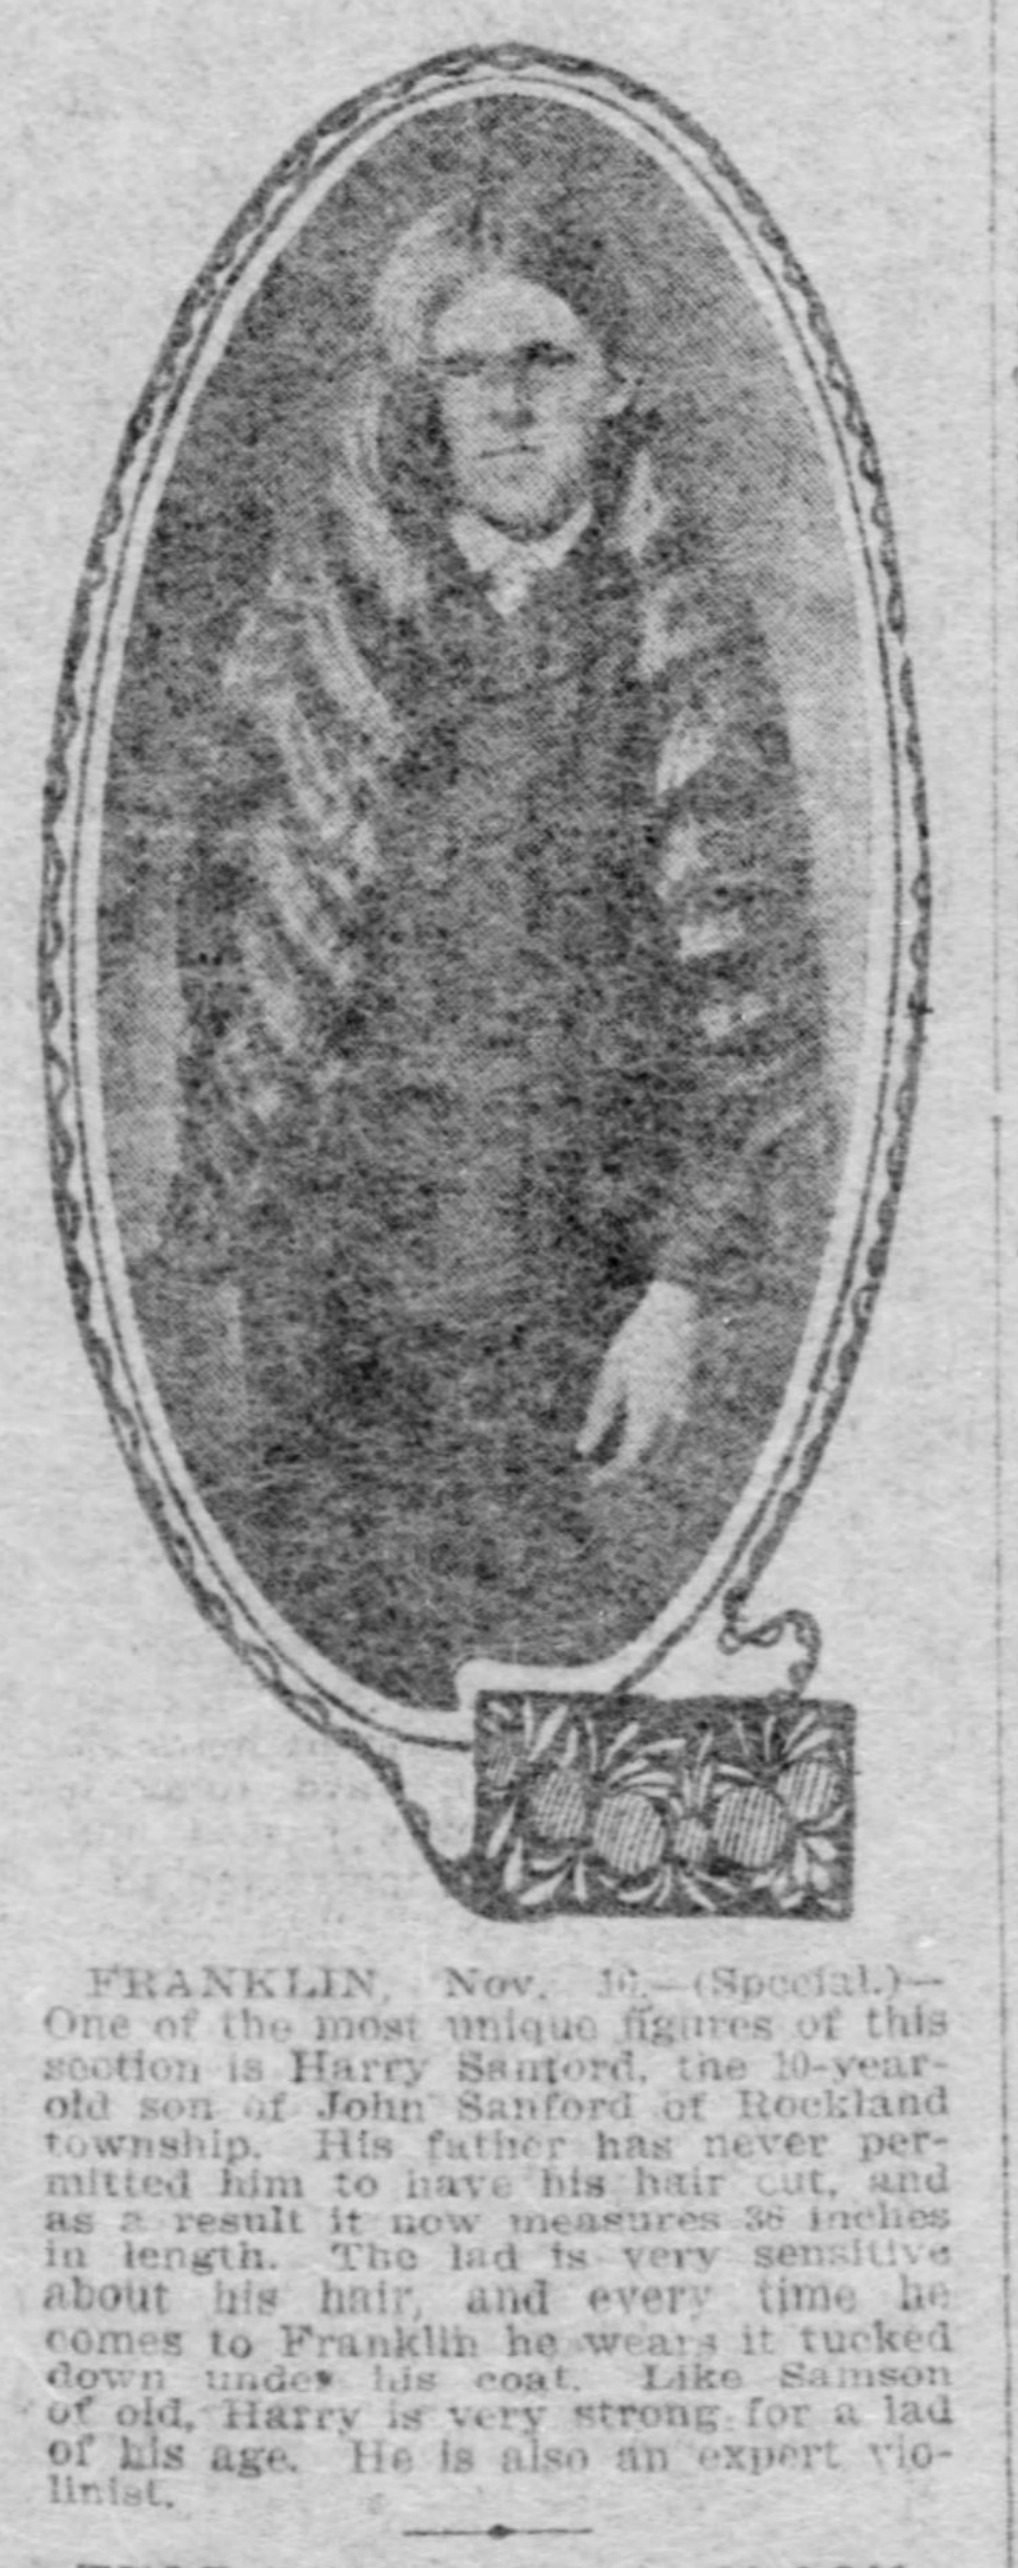
Simon Wise, aged 64, for 28 years a resident of Greensburg, died yesterday morning. He is survived by two sons, Clark M. of Denver, Col., and Howard, at home.

Miss Dora Boyles, aged 38, died at the New Castle hospital yesterday morning following an operation. She was for years chief operator of the Citizens Telephone Company at New Castle. A brother and two sisters survive.

Word was received at Washington, Pa., yesterday of the death at Oxford, O., of the Rev. Dr. Edgar Sutton Robinson, a Presbyterian clergyman. He was aged 61, and a graduate of Washington and Jefferson, class of '78.

Thomas Johns, aged 78, for over 20 years superintendent of the W. J. Rainey Coal and Coke works at Moyer, Pa., died last night. Mr. Johns was a native of Greene county. He married Miss Sallie Rainey of Martins Ferry, O., a sister of the late W. J. Rainey.

BOY WITH TRESSES LIKE A MAIDEN



FRANKLIN, Nov. 16.—(Special.)—One of the most unique figures of this section is Harry Sanford, the 10-year-old son of John Sanford of Rockland township. His father has never permitted him to have his hair cut, and as a result it now measures 36 inches in length. The lad is very sensitive about his hair, and every time he comes to Franklin he wears it tucked down under his coat. Like Samson of old, Harry is very strong for a lad of his age. He is also an expert violinist.

FEAR RIVALS WILL CLASH.

Democratic Members of Huntington's Police Force Refuse to Obey Court's Order.

HUNTINGTON, W. VA., Nov. 16.—Judge Doolittle of the circuit court late last night issued a writ of certiorari prohibiting the Democrats from serving on the police force. The Democratic members of the police force refuse to obey the judge's order, and a clash is feared.

For three days Huntington has had two sets of policemen in every ward of the city. The Republican members of council named their officers. The Democrats claimed that they had the right, and also named a set. Since the Democrats named their police force three days ago trouble has been anticipated between the rival factions.

Shenango Mill Breaks Record.

NEW CASTLE, PA., Nov. 16.—(Special.)—The record of production at the Shenango Valley steel mill of the Carnegie Steel Company was broken with the 24-hour turn ending at midnight. The plant is of 2,000 tons estimated capacity and in 24 hours turned out 881 ingots, weighing 2,349 tons. The best previous record was 2,267 tons.

Taking Options on LaBelle Stock.

NEW CASTLE, PA., Nov. 16.—(Special.)—It is reported Edwin N. Ohl of this city, who resigned from the vice presidency of the Republic Iron and Steel Company, and who is securing options upon the capital of the LaBelle Steel Company, will head a company to operate the property. Fully three-quarters of the entire 70,000 shares of the LaBelle stock have now been optioned to Ohl.

Gun Makers Expect Big Order.

SHARON, PA., Nov. 16.—(Special.)—After tests covering three months at the Indian Head proving grounds, Washington, D. C., the Driggs Seabury gun made here has won on all points and has been recommended by the three-inch gun board of the United States navy department for adoption in the semi-automatic class. An order for 100 guns is now pending.

Thieves Loot Many Offices.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 16.—Seven offices were entered last night by burglars, who pried open desks, scattered papers about the floor and carried away a small amount of money and postage stamps. Twelve offices have been robbed during the last 48 hours. The police suspect a crowd of small boys.

C. R. Darrow Goes to New Castle.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Nov. 16.—(Special.)—Charles R. Darrow, formerly president of the Mahoning Foundry and Machine Company, has accepted the position of assistant general manager of the Pennsylvania Engineering company of New Castle.

RULERS OF THE WORLD.

Meat-Eating Nations Are the Leaders in Every Branch of Human Achievements.

The ruling nations of the world are meat-eaters and history records that they always have been.

Vegetarians and food cranks may explain this in any way they choose, but the facts remain that the Americans, English, French, Russians and Germans are meat-eating nations, and they are also the most energetic and most progressive.

The principal food of the heroic Boer soldier, known as Biltong, is a sort of dried beef, affording a great deal of nourishment in a highly concentrated form.

The weak races of people are the rice-eating Chinese, Hindoos and Siamese, regarded since the dawn of history as non-progressive, superstitious and inferior physically and mentally to the meat-eating nations who dominate them.

The structure of the teeth plainly indicates that human beings should subsist upon a variety of food, meat, fruit and grains, and it is unhygienic to confine one's diet to any one of those classes to the exclusion of another.

Meat is the most concentrated and most easily digested of foods, but our manner of living is often so unnatural that the digestive organs refuse to properly digest meat, eggs and similar nutritious and wholesome food, but it is not because such food is unwholesome, but the real reason is that the stomach lacks, from disease or weakness, some necessary digestive element; hence arising indigestion and, later on, chronic dyspepsia.

Nervous people should eat plenty of meat, convalescents should make meat the principal food, hard-working people have to do so, and brain-workers and office men should eat, not so much meat, but at least once a day, and to insure its perfect digestion one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets should be taken after each meal, because they supply the peptones, diastase and fruit acids, lacking in every case of stomach trouble.

Nervous dyspepsia, catarrh of stomach, gastritis, sour stomach, gas and acidity are only different names for indigestion, the failure to digest wholesome food, and the use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cures them all because by affording perfect digestion the stomach has a chance to rest and recover its natural tone and vigor.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the real household medicine; it is as safe and pleasant for the stomach ache of the baby as it is for the imperfect digestion of its grand sire.

They are not a cathartic, but a digestive, and no pill habit can ever follow their use; the only habit Stuart's Tablets induce is the habit of good digestion and consequently good health.

CONVICTS CLUB STEWARD.

Jury Decides He Sold Liquor Without License When He Served Members of Society.

GREENSBURG, PA., Nov. 16.—(Special.)—A case of interest which may serve as a basis of inquiry by the district attorney into the management of so-called social clubs and beneficial societies was tried in the quarter sessions court today. Charles Hackett, steward of the American Beneficial society, whose headquarters are at Trafford City, was convicted of illegal liquor selling. His duties were to serve liquor to members, but his action was construed as beyond the rights granted in the charter.

Judge Lucien W. Doty in his address to the jury, said the following facts must govern to constitute proper conduct on the part of a steward of any club: "The goods sold must be the common property of all the members; they must be sold without profit, and they must be sold to members of the organization alone." As a result of this opinion it is understood a crusade will be inaugurated against clubs under suspicion.

LEAVE NOTE FOR POLICE.

After Suspect Is Arrested, Two More Robberies Are Reported to Authorities.

BEAVER, PA., Nov. 16.—(Special.)—Just when the police here felt certain they had captured the author of the numerous robberies in this section, two more homes were robbed early this morning. County Detective B. Lazarus had suspected John A. Straub, aged 20, and upon visiting his home yesterday found a watch, a rifle and a revolver belonging to W. B. Thompson, whose home was robbed last August.

Straub was arrested upon returning home, and after a hearing was sent to jail for court. This morning George K. Hamfeldt, general manager of the Midland Steel Company, reported his house had been ransacked. A gold watch, $10 of Hamfeldt's and $125 belonging to Aaron Stevens, who was visiting Hamfeldt, had been taken. A note was left saying: "This was not Straub." W. G. Hall also reported his home had been entered and a gold watch stolen.

BELIEVE ENGINEER DIED BEFORE TRAINS COLLIDED

WILKES-BARRE, PA., Nov. 16.—(Special.)—At the coroner's inquest today into the train wreck on the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railroad at Hunlocks Creek, last week, in which six lives were lost, evidence was adduced tending to show the collision was due to the sudden death of the engineer at his post. It was learned the throttle of the freight train, which crashed into the express, was open after the wreck. This leads the authorities to believe Charles Snyder, the engineer, had died suddenly of heart disease.

Decides to Admit Certificates.

NEW CASTLE, Nov. 16.—(Special.)—The suit of the First National bank against the city to recover upon $5,435 in certificates of indebtedness cashed at the bank by City Treasurer John Blevins before his murder, continues to drag on before Judge Williams of Mercer. Today Judge Williams decided the certificates of indebtedness would be admitted in evidence.

Refuses to Reopen Dick Case.

UNIONTOWN, PA., Nov. 16.—(Special.)—An opinion was handed down today by Judge E. H. Reppert dismissing the motion to strike off the non-suit granted the defendants in the case of Judson S. Dick against the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company. Dick fell from a train at Sherrick station and was injured. In the opinion Judge Reppert held that it was the duty of the plaintiff to remain in his seat until the train had stopped.

Mining Company Elects Officers.

SHARON, PA., Nov. 16.—(Special.)—The Rampart Gold Mining Company, in which Sharon and Pittsburgh capitalists are interested, held its annual meeting here yesterday and elected the following officers: President, Thomas Gillespie, Sharon; vice president and general manager, the Rev. M. E. Koonce, Clark; secretary, A. Wilcox, Cleveland; treasurer, W. W. Kitch, Sharon.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

The following marriage licenses were issued yesterday:

J. S. Woodruff and Hilda Morris, Samuel Mallison and Martha M. Longmore, Jacob Moller and Mary Byers, Adolph Hempel and Minnie Grimm, John R. Brooks and Sarah Barry, Ernest G. Sherlin and Ellen C. Ramstrom, all of Pittsburgh.

WORK GREATLY REDUCED AT PUBLIC PRINTING OFFICE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—In his testimony before the joint congressional committee on printing today, Acting Public Printer Ricketts said that no more than half as much printing is coming to the government printing office this year as is usually sent there from the departments at this season. He attributed the falling off to the investigation.

Mr. Ricketts also said that the report of the lady managers of the St. Louis exposition, which was printed at government expense in a private office, could have been printed much more economically at the government office.

It has been necessary in some instances to lay off employes of the office who were working temporarily. This, with sick leaves, had reduced the force, and there are perhaps less men and women at work in the printing office this month than at any other time for several years. Mr. Ricketts said it did not look as though it would be necessary to employ many extra printers this year.

WEAR THEIR NEW CAPS.

Braddock Youths Appear in Streets With Alleged Stolen Plunder and Are Placed Under Arrest.

Raymond Shutterly, William Harrison, Arthur Jones, William Galbraith and George Krutaman, Braddock boys, ranging in ages from 10 to 15 years, were arrested yesterday morning by Detective Charles Berthold and Policeman John A. Myer of Braddock. The night before a bundle of caps was stolen from in front of the store of Herman Arnowitz of Braddock.

The boys appeared with new caps yesterday, and one after another they were arrested. They are said to have confessed they had robbed E. J. Dunn's grocery in Braddock Sunday night.

HONOR PAID TO RETIRING PATRIARCH GICQUELAIS

Retiring Grand Patriarch Cleon Gicquelais was honored by Glen Hazel Encampment, No. 87, I. O. O. F., last evening in Hazelwood Carnegie hall, when a reception was held in his honor and he was presented with a medal and a gold watch, coming from the grand encampment of Pennsylvania. On the evening's program were addresses by D. A. Wilbert, Perry A. Shaner, and by Mr. Gicquelais himself. The Rev. John Thresher presented to Charles Fisher a watch charm in reward for his gaining the largest number of new members for the encampment.

Naturalist Club's Final Outing.

The Andrew Carnegie Naturalist club's last field meeting of this season will be held tomorrow. The members will meet in front of Carnegie institute and leave for Guyasuta at 9 o'clock sharp. It is suggested that members provide themselves with lunches, note books and anything else necessary for the work. Especial attention will be given to the study of the migration of birds and the winter form of plants.

Are Fined for Being Vagrants.

Forty men accused of being vagrants were before Magistrate Kirby yesterday. Most of them had been arrested in the cellar of the Rescue mission, Liberty avenue. Police Captain McCabe testified the men were sleeping on boards in the cellar of the mission, among pools of water, and that he understood they paid five cents each for the accommodations. Twenty-one of the prisoners were fined $10 and costs, and most of these, not having the money, went to the workhouse for 30 days. The others were discharged with a warning.

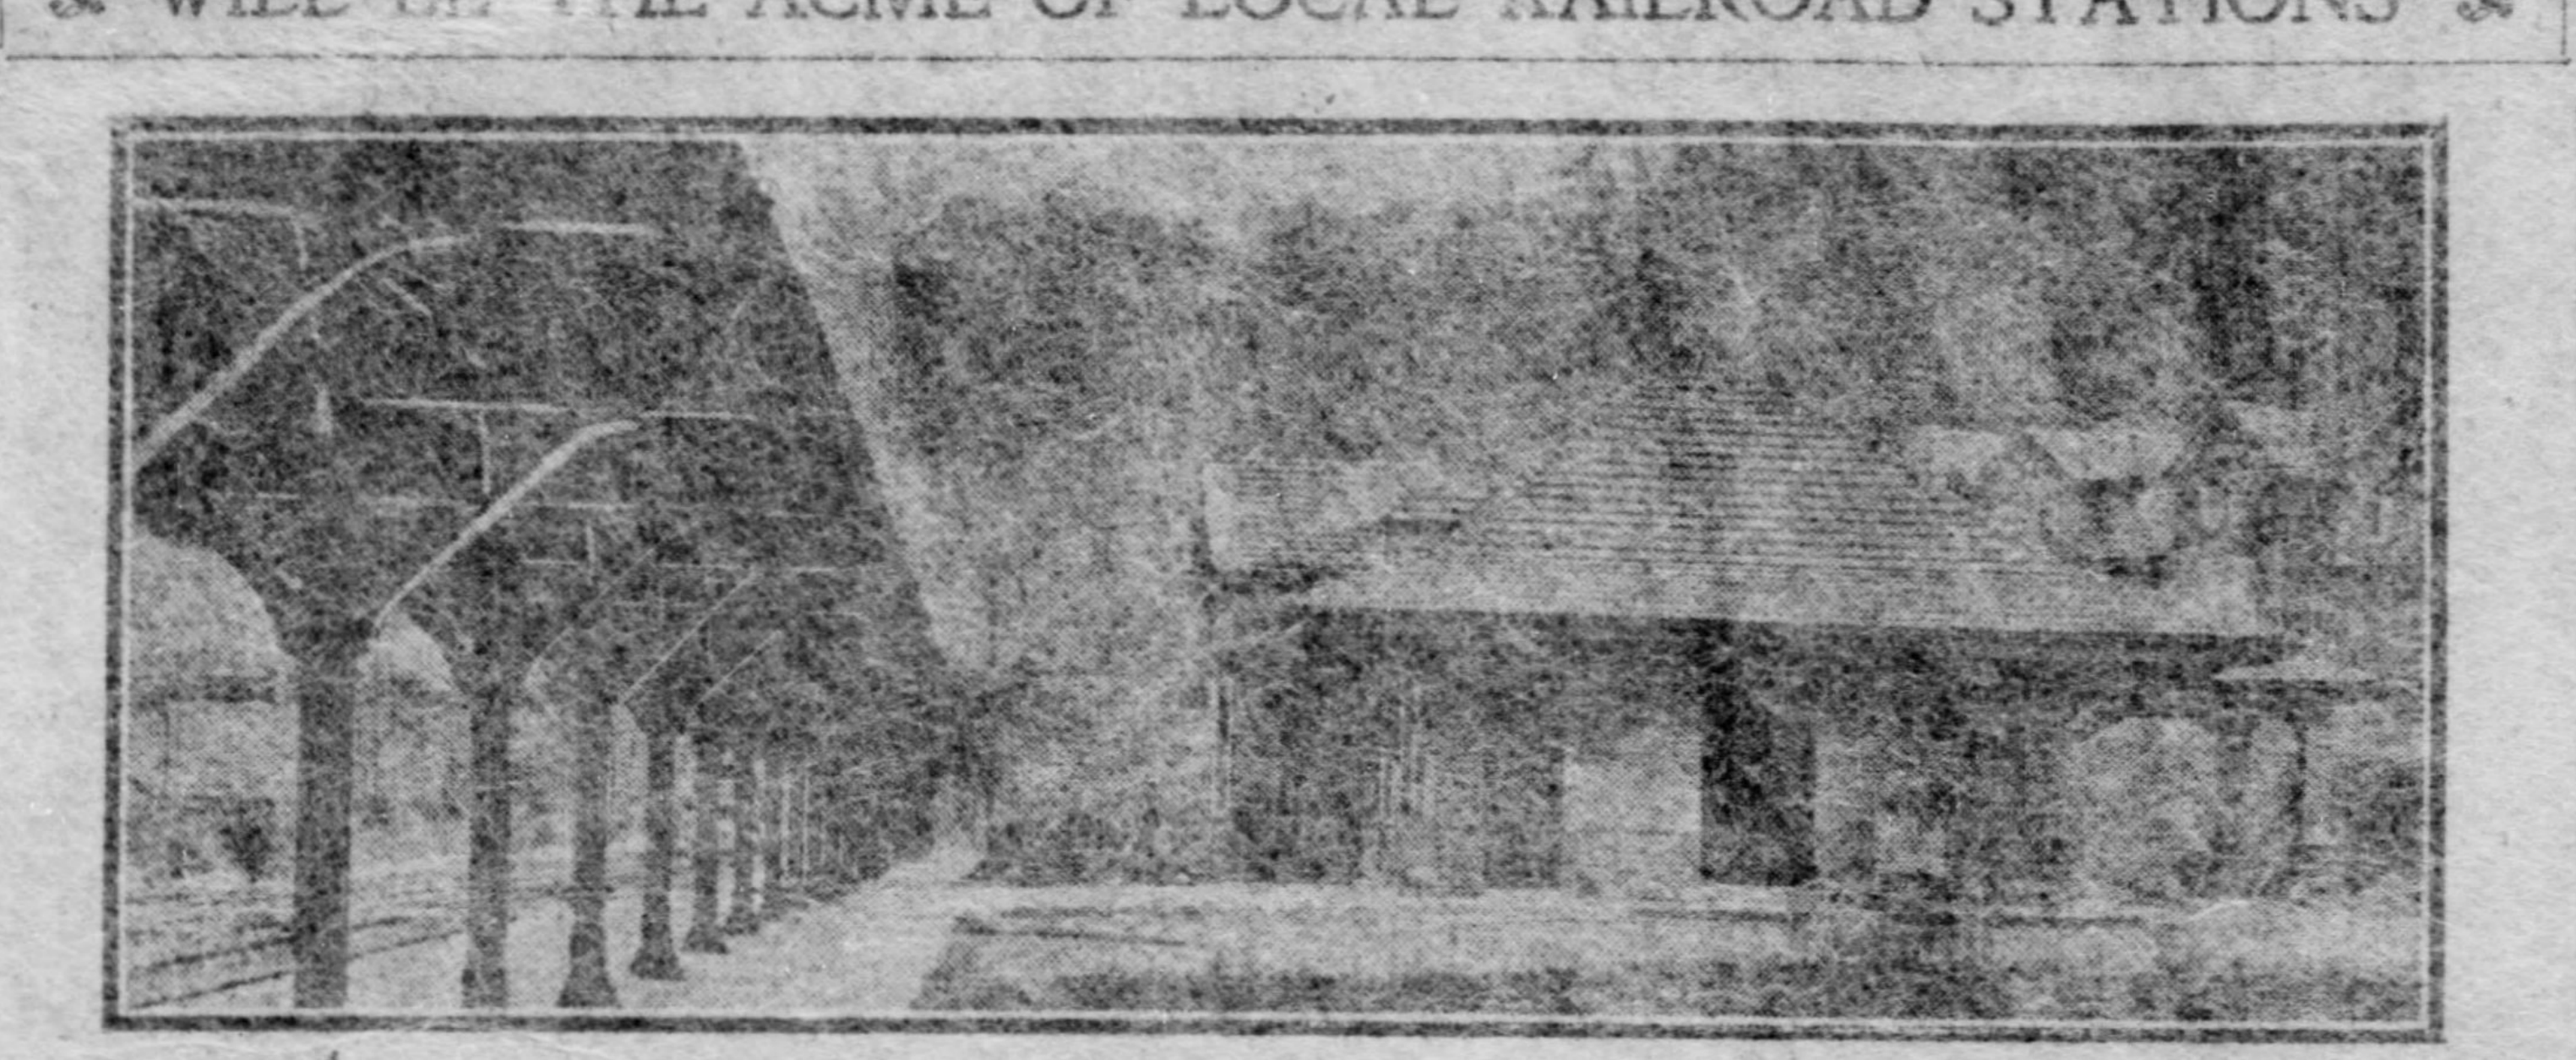
High Winds at McKeesport.

John Polikiski was gingerly picking his way along a foot path which skirts the bridge over the Monongahela river yesterday morning when a sudden gust of ozone lifted him off his feet. Polikiski dropped into the water many feet below. Harry Kirkpatrick, a toll keeper, saw him fall and a skiff was procured and Polikiski was rescued. He was considerably exhausted, but soon recovered.

Big Demand for Coal.

MAHANOY CITY, PA., Nov. 16.—(Special.)—The Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company, in order to supply the demand for domestic and steam coal sizes, today began shipments from the Mahanoy storage yards. Over 250,000 tons had been stocked at these yards during the summer.

WILL BE THE ACME OF LOCAL RAILROAD STATIONS



The accompanying photograph shows the new station of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad that is to be opened next Monday, and is to be known as Beaver Falls-Brighton. It is said to be, without question, the best designed station and grounds in the Pittsburgh district, and in a few years will present such a beautiful appearance that the famous stations of New England will be mediocre in comparison. Shrubbery of a hundred varieties has been planted about the grounds, which were formerly a dumping place for all kinds of scrap. The Beaver river terrace will be curtained by a row of weeping willow trees. The station is designed principally for use of the through trains, as it will eliminate one of the two stops that have been necessary at Brighton and Eleventh streets, Beaver Falls. The building and grounds have cost already $35,000. The building is built of buff vitrified brick and Massachusetts brownstone. The waiting rooms, ticket office and telegraph office are finished in Flemish oak and everything about the building is the best that could be secured. The offices are roomy. An electric light plant in the basement furnishes light for the station and surrounding grounds.

PENNSYLVANIA IS LEADER IN PRODUCTION OF CEMENT

Output of the Keystone State Is Nearly One-Half of the Entire Amount Manufactured in the United States.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—Pennsylvania continues to easily hold first place in the quantity of cement produced in the United States, according to a statement issued today by the geological survey. The statement is for the year 1904, and shows that the Keystone state produced nearly one-half of the entire amount of that product manufactured in this country, the exact figures being a little over 40 per cent of the total production. It produced 11,000,000 barrels during that period. The cement produced in Pennsylvania in 1904 was valued at $9,000,000 and was 2,000,000 barrels more than was manufactured in 1903.

The total production of cement in the United States for 1904 was 31,675,257 barrels, at a valuation of $26,031,920 as against a total production in 1903 of 29,899,140 barrels, valued at $31,931,341, which is a gain of a little less than 2,000,000 barrels in the quantity of that product manufactured, and a loss of nearly $6,000,000 in value.

The officials of the geological survey predict a bright outlook for the cement industry in this country in the immediate future. This prediction is based upon the estimate made that it will require 12,000,000 barrels of cement for the construction of the Panama canal alone and for the rebuilding of the city of Baltimore, especially along the water front, there will be an enormous increase in the use of cement in the various forms of concrete construction.

LARKIN TALKS FOR AN HOUR WITH WILLIAM FLINN

Controller and the Former State Senator Hold Conference at City Hall Behind Closed Doors.

Behind closed doors for nearly an hour Controller Larkin yesterday afternoon held a conference with the man whom he publicly styles his mortal political enemy. Former Senator William Flinn, accompanied by his attorney, John S. Weller, called at the controller's office to settle some differences concerning an account with the city of the firm of Booth & Flinn. After attending to this business Mr. Flinn, followed by Mr. Weller, dropped in to see the controller in his private office.

The controller promptly closed the door. Directly Attorney Weller came out, leaving Mr. Flinn with the controller. Later Mr. Flinn made his exit, remarking, "that man kept me a long while." He left the City hall in a hurry. The controller emerged from his private office, his face in smiles. He was asked what he and Mr. Flinn had talked about, and he replied, "Everything." He denied that he had talked Greater Pittsburgh, politics or city affairs.

WANT R. W. FAIR.

Westmoreland Republicans Favor the Election of the Head of Kiski School to Legislature.

GREENSBURG, PA., Nov. 16.—(Special.)—R. W. Fair of Bell township will probably be elected to the house of representatives to fill the unexpired term of Representative Joseph B. Heister of New Kensington, who died during the summer.

Mr. Fair had decided to be a candidate in the Republican primaries next spring for the full term. Since the governor gave notice of the extra session his friends have asked him to enter the race for the short term. With Andrew W. Wilson he has been at the head of the Kiskiminitas Springs school at Saltsburg for 17 years. While always an ardent Republican, Mr. Fair has not been an office seeker. He has all of the qualifications to make the county an able representative.

OPPOSE APPRENTICE SYSTEM.

Trades Union Control Does Not Meet Approval of National Foundrymen's Association.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—The rules of trades unions restricting the training of apprentices were discussed by the convention of the National Founders association today. In general these rules were condemned and it was recommended that every apprentice should be given work which would develop him into an all around mechanic.

W. H. Pfahler of Philadelphia, advocated the establishment of trade schools which should fit young men especially to become formen and superintendents in large shops.

Robber Steals Coat of Big Dimensions.

The clothing store of Samuel Ehrlich, Braddock, was broken into early yesterday morning. Nothing was taken except a coat measuring 40 inches around the chest. The boarding house of Mrs. William Gordon, Talbot avenue, Braddock, was entered some time Wednesday night. A new overcoat, a pair of shoes and $2 in money were stolen.

Heptasophs at Annual Dance.

Hundreds of Heptasophs and their friends attended the annual reception and dance of the Sharpsburg conclave, given last night in the Kirk mansion in North Canal street, Sharpsburg. The big house has been vacant for some time and the committee in charge of the dance had transformed the interior with drapery and floral decorations.

SECRETARY HITCHCOCK INDIGNANT OVER SENTENCE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—Secretary Hitchcock was today unofficially informed that in the matter of the prosecution of Bartlett Richards and W. G. Comstock in the federal court at Omaha for the illegal fencing of 212,000 acres of government land in Sheridan county, Nebraska, upon pleading guilty the defendants had been sentenced to remain for six hours in the custody of the United States marshal and pay a fine of $300 each.

"You can say," said the secretary in discussing the verdict, "that I am surprised and indignant. The punishment is utterly inadequate. The indictment was the result of four years determined effort and the expenditure of thousands of dollars by the department. We had selected the large operators in the hope that the result would be a warning to those engaged on a smaller scale. That the case was a strong one is evident by the fact that the men pleaded guilty.

"The result is discouraging, but we shall not cease our efforts. They have promised to tear down the fences, and if they do not keep the promise they will be indicted again and again until they learn that laws are made to be obeyed. We will not let up."

Thieves Flee Before Fusilade.

Thieves attempted to enter the residence of W. M. McGraw, Oakmont, early yesterday morning, but three shots from Mr. McGraw's revolver frightened them away.

FARMERS TO SUPPORT PRESIDENT ON RATES

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Nov. 16.—A movement to throw the entire organized farming interests of the country to the support of President Roosevelt in his efforts for an adjustment of railroad tariffs began at today's session of the National Grange, Patrons of Husbandry. Three resolutions, all of them introduced with the idea of unifying the agricultural strength, were introduced, and after spirited discussions were referred to committees for revision and amendment.

The first resolution was offered by T. C. Atkinson, master of the West Virginia grange and a professor at the Tate Agricultural college. He urged the national control of freight rates and indorsed the attitude of President Roosevelt toward securing legislation to this end.

This resolution was followed by one from F. Derthick of Ohio, whose grange advocated the extension of the powers of the interstate commerce commission. W. F. Hill of Pennsylvania grange, introduced a resolution moving for the federation of all farmers' organizations in their fight for corrective legislation.

LIGHTS CIGAR IN STREET CAR AND WINDS UP IN JAIL

Samuel Henry and Major Goufney, negroes, were riding in a West End car last night, and Henry lighted a cigar. The conductor remonstrated and Goufney interfered. The conductor ordered the negroes off the car but they started to put the conductor off. Some passengers went to the aid of the conductor and the negroes tried to escape. Henry was held. Goufney ran, but after a chase of 100 yards he was overtaken by Constable J. D. Heidler. The negroes were taken before Alderman Charles McGovern and commited to jail on charges of disorderly conduct.

DEAD BODIES ARE STILL IN SHAFT

MANY PEOPLE VISIT THE SCENE

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

MONONGAHELA, PA., Nov. 16.—The bodies of the seven men killed by the explosion at the new shaft of the Braznell Coal Company near Bentleyville yesterday will probably not be brought out before tomorrow. At 7 o'clock tonight there was still 11 feet of water in the shaft and President Braznell said it would be impossible to bring the men out now. The pumps have been working poorly this afternoon, and although the men have worked diligently, the water has been coming in.

Ropes are stretched around the mouth of the mine to keep the crowd back. Among those who haunt the shaft are relatives and friends of the dead men. Mine Foreman Edward Farragher and Shift Boss Edward Hastie were exceptionally well-liked by the men. Farragher was single and came from Dubois. George B. Wagoner and Frank H. Newman came from Elk Lick, Somerset county. Wagoner's mother was here today from Charlottesville. Near the mouth of the shaft stands a row of rough boxes waiting to receive the remains of the victims. A special train from Monongahela this evening bore many to the scene.

Mine Inspector Louttit this afternoon gave as his opinion that the gas was ignited by a torch carried by one of the miners instead of the safety lamp they were ordered to use after the pocket of gas was discovered. After the seven men were lowered into the mine yesterday they called up for a torch, and as soon as it was sent down the explosion occurred.

Mr. Louttit and Joseph Kennedy were the first to go down into the mine. Their first trip was unsuccessful, but reinforced by John Thomas, they went down again after the fresh air had revived them. This time they went down 175 feet, or 10 feet from the bottom of the shaft. They saw two dead bodies entangled in the rubbish of the mine, but could not extricate them. Fragments of other bodies were discerned. It was determined nothing could be done until the water was pumped out.

At noon today workmen commenced to pump the water out at the rate of two feet an hour. The body of John McCatey, who was caught by falling timbers of the tipple outside the mine, was brought to Monongahela this morning by Deputy Coroner Scurfield.

BOY HAS BULLET WOUND THROUGH BOTH KNEES

Rae Bush, an 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Bush of State road, McKeesport, is in the McKeesport hospital as the result of being shot through both knees several days ago. The boy refuses to tell how he received his injury. It is said he was playing with companions in a vacant lot when shot. Physicians at the hospital do not think he will recover.

Teachers' Schedule for Next Year.

The committee on teachers and salaries of the Allegheny school controllers met last night and recommended that the present schedule of teachers' salaries be adopted for the year beginning June 1, 1906. The expenditures for that year are estimated at $366,500.

Goes to Jail in Default of Bail.

Andy Kabucher was yesterday held for court by Justice W. R. Nicholson of Esplen on a charge of selling liquor illegally and in default of $1,000 bail was committed to jail. Constable C. M. Hopkins made the information.

SEEK FRANCHISES ON ALLEGHENY STREETS

Ordinances Covering North Side Thoroughfares Are Introduced in Councils.

William H. Harvey of the Fourth ward, introduced into Allegheny common council last night ordinances granting the Marshall Avenue Street Railway Company and the Watson Street Railway Company franchises on practically all the streets of the city not now traversed by the lines of the Pittsburgh Railways Company. They were referred to the corporations committee. The officers of both companies are given as follows: President, William Kaufman; secretary and treasurer, H. G. Gallinger; directors, William Kaufman, Horace G. Gallinger, Donald McNeil, H. C. Lippincott and Meyer B. Gallinger. With the traction ordinances was one providing for the extension of Montgomery avenue through the East park to Cedar avenue. All the measures are similar to those introduced a year ago by the same people and killed in committee.

Council refused to concur in the action of the select branch in reducing the period of service from 25 to 20 years in the police and fire bureaus, to make members eligible to the pension clause. The ordinance goes back to select in its original form.

The law department was instructed by resolution to collect all municipal liens over two years old. The measures to compel all railway companies to erect iron fences along their right-of-way through the city was killed. The resolution to pay to the Marshall heirs $15,000 for land in the Tenth ward, to be used for park purposes, was passed finally. The city solicitor was instructed to prepare an ordinance regulating the speed of electric cars within the city limits.

The Real Marketplace

In McClure's Magazine for November there is the greatest assembling of great industries, represented in the form of advertising, ever found in one magazine. This is one reason why McClure's is called the "marketplace of the world." but the other reason is because in its pages are threshed out the great problems of the marketplace—the great question of business honesty.

McClure's demands that business shall be done on the high plane of simple honesty. It lives up to that in its own business pages by insisting that no article shall be offered for sale that its editors cannot personally recommend to their friends. This bars patent medicines, whiskies, cigarettes and investments that promise more than any legitimate investment ought to promise.

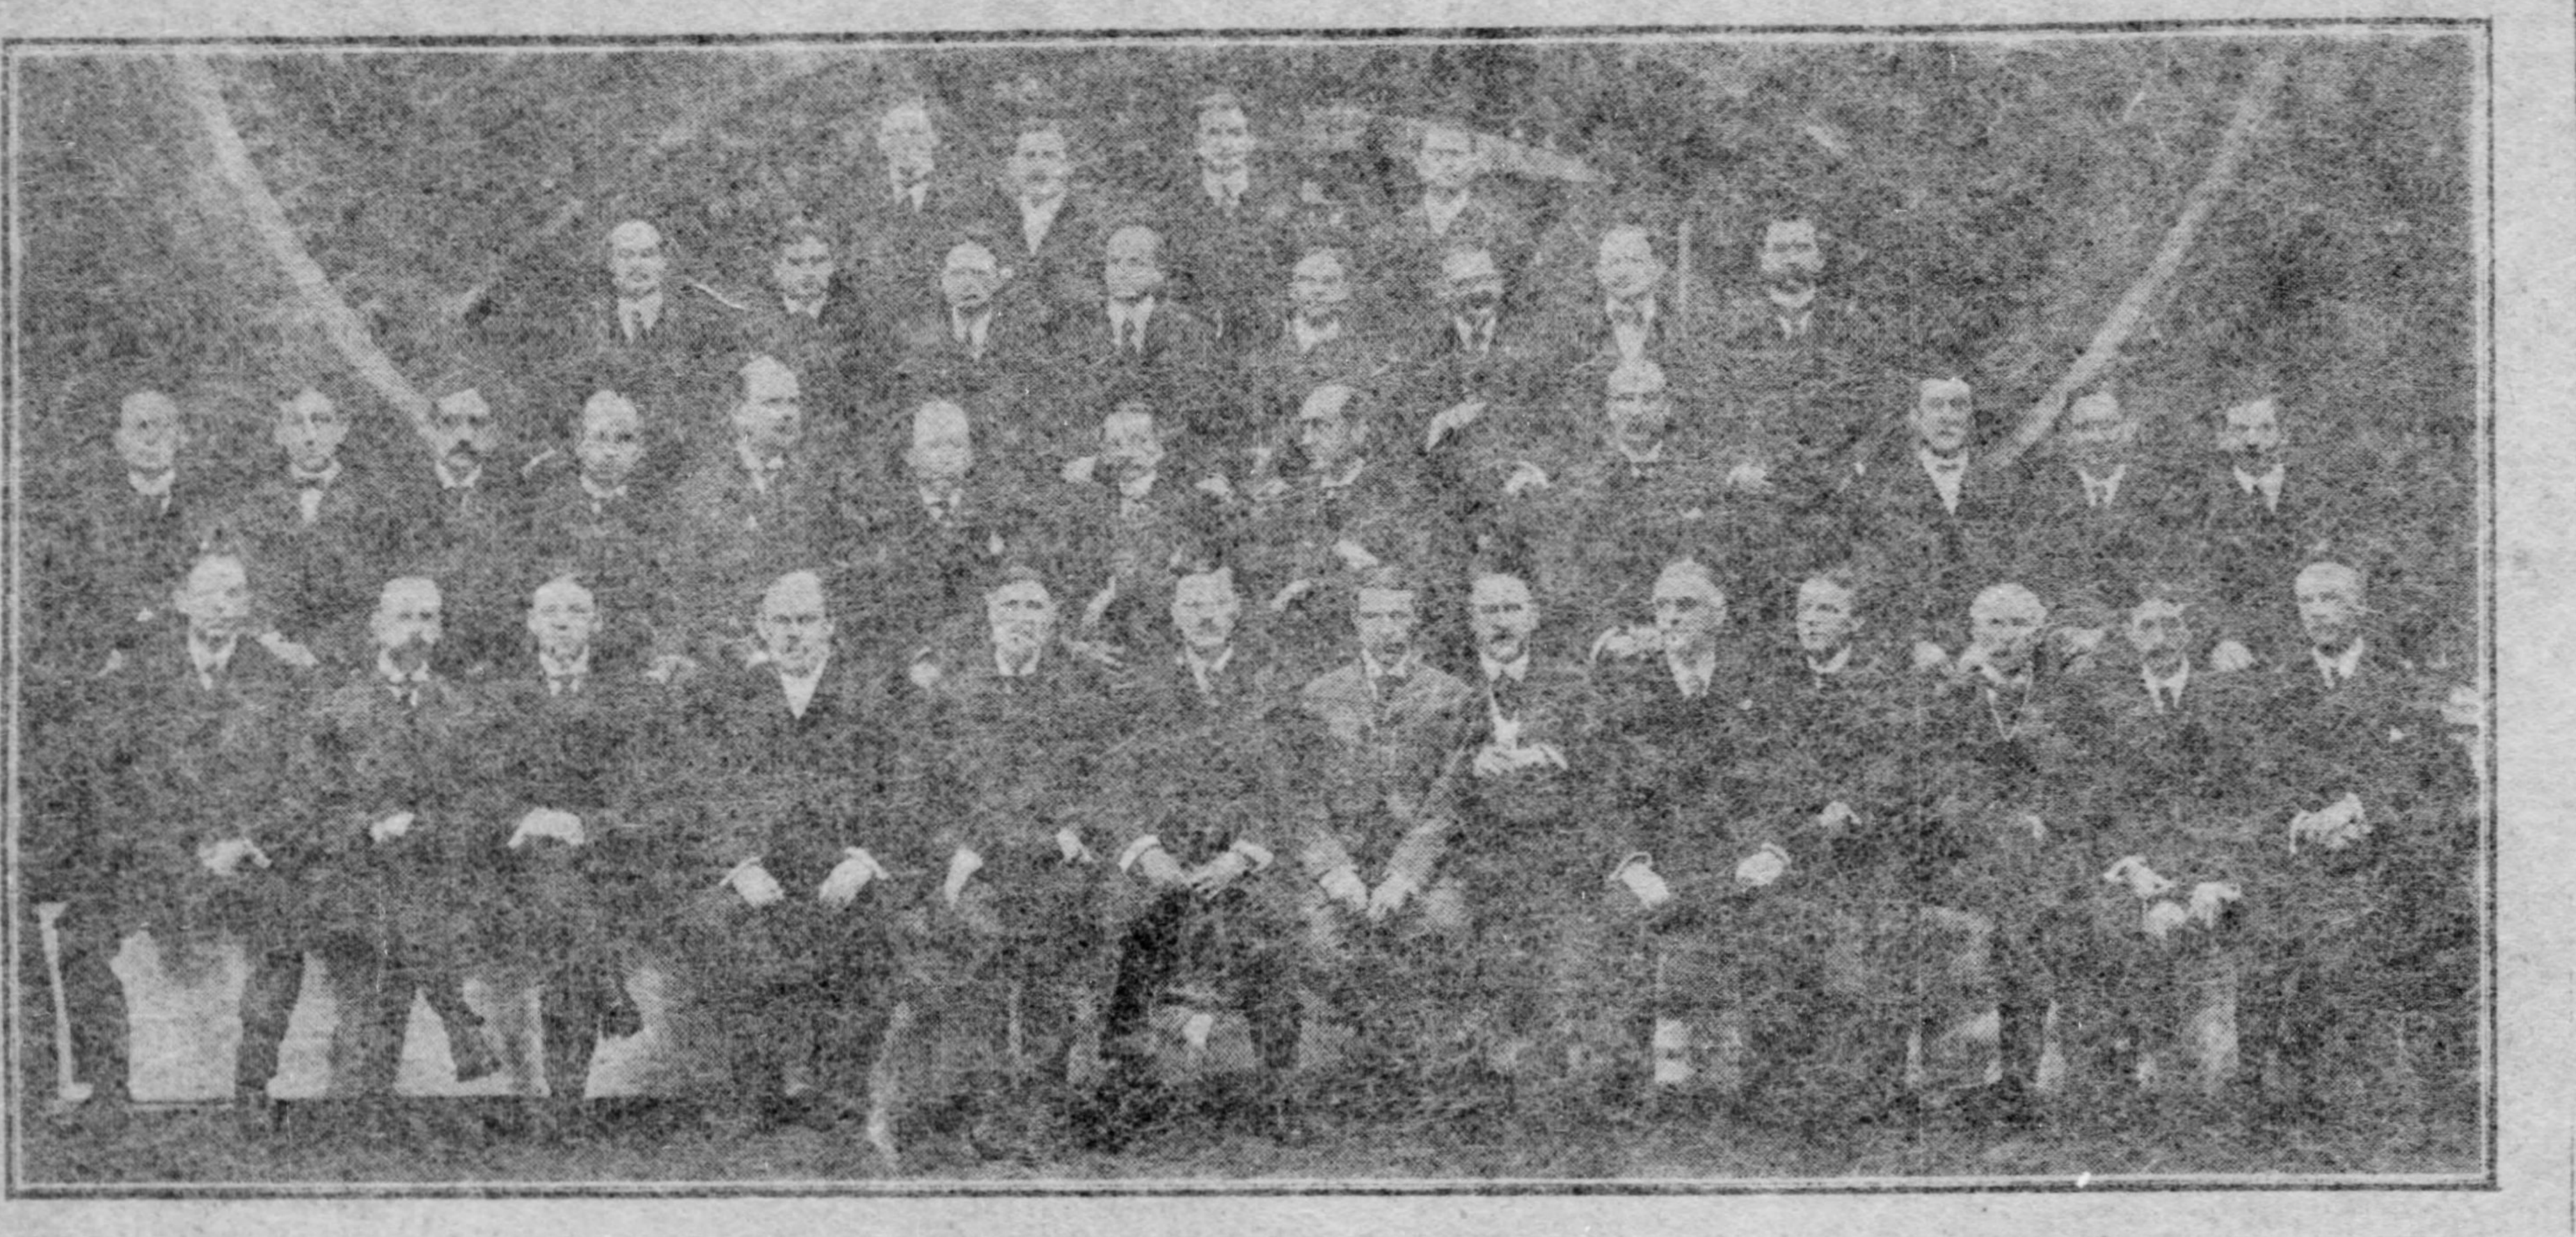
WESTINGHOUSE DISTRICT MANAGERS WIND UP CONVENTION HERE



The Men Who Find the Market.

RED THE CABMAN IS IN WORKHOUSE

MOORE HAS DRASTIC POLICY

"Red" Tucker, the cabman who became in his own mind the official opener of disorderly houses for a short time on Wednesday night, was sent to the workhouse yesterday by Magistrate Kirby. Tucker had gone along the avenues in the First ward and, representing himself as an agent of the police bureau and Constable Thomas A. Joyce, told the women they could open up again for business. Tucker was rewarded for his good news with copious drinks of beer and whisky, and was arrested by Detectives Aymer and Crooks. The detectives closed up all the houses but three, the women operating the exceptions refusing to believe the detectives had authority. Later Inspector Robinson and Capt. McCabe ordered the houses to close. "Red" was momentarily of consequence, for he was the unwitting cause of an important disclosure.

Tucker said at the hearing yesterday morning he did not know what possessed him to pose at the representative of law and order in opening up disorderly houses. He supposed he had been drinking. Dottie Williams, "Hoochee" Nelson and "Blondie" Nee, all proprietresses of houses, testified against Tucker and he was fined. Being unable to pay the fine he went to the workhouse.

The action of the police in closing all the houses opened by Tucker, even those on Constable Joyce's list, aroused much comment, as it disclosed a new line of policy adopted by Director Moore. The police last week closed up 18 of the lowest class houses in the First ward. As soon as this became known, Constable Joyce ordered all the other houses in the First ward closed in retaliation for the police order. Some people thought Joyce's action would worry the police, that they would allow the houses closed by them to open again and then Joyce would relent.

But those who thought so did not know that Director Moore had a policy. The director is desirous of removing the disreputable women from the First ward, so that the property can be bought up and a business district made out of the territory. The houses there rent for enormous sums for illegitimate purposes. As soon as the director was apprised that Joyce had "closed up" the ward tight, he gave orders that none of the houses should be allowed to resume business. It is the director's intention to stick to his determination, so even if Joyce does relent and permit the houses he closed up to open again, they will be immediately closed by the police.

It will not take long almost to depopulate the ward if this policy is carried out. It is estimated that several hundred voters there, directly and indirectly, make a living from the disreputable women congested in the ward. If the women are compelled to move, these men will have to go, too, and thus the voters' registry list will be materially curtailed.

If Director Moore is in earnest in his determination to "keep the lid on" in the First ward, it is pointed out another problem will confront him, for the disreputable classes will seek new quarters. To keep them out of the residence and tenement districts and to confine them within defined limits will be a difficult thing for the police to do. Civic associations are watching developments, and if any attempt is made to establish a new tenderloin any distance from the lower avenues a protest will be made. Of course, the women would naturally drift to the other wards in the lower city, but in those almost all the property suitable for the illegitimate traffic are already rented for that purpose at high prices.

BIG HAUL OF MOUNTAIN DEW EFFECTED ON LONG ISLAND

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Internal revenue deputies, acting on anonymous information, today raided an illicit still in a two-story frame house on a lonely farm on the outskirts of Longshore, Long Island, seized 150 barrels of "moonshine" and arrested two men.

Before United States Commissioner Morle, in Brooklyn, the [illegible] they were David and Jacob Cohen, of 46 Humboldt street, Brooklyn. They were held in $5,000 each for examination.

Deputy Mullen said the distillery outfit was the most elaborate he had ever seen. One of the Cohens wore a belt containing 38-caliber cartridges. A revolver of the same caliber was picked up near the still.

MONEY ORDER TREATY IS MADE WITH PERSIA

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—The text of a money order convention between the United States and the kingdom of Persia was today sent to the state department for transmission to Persia. The convention is along the lines of similar conventions with other countries and is really a reciprocity arrangement whereby each country facilitates the sending of money by postal order through the mails to the other.

Ezell Pleased, but Not Surprised.

UNIONTOWN, PA., Nov. 16.—(Special.)—"I didn't expect anything else," said James W. Ezell when informed the pardon board had granted a commutation from the death sentence to life imprisonment. He seemed overjoyed. Ezell was convicted of first degree murder for killing Yardmaster W. G. Porter of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad at Newell station.

Train Hits Wagon, Hurting Driver.

Robert McAllister, a dairyman, was driving across the Allegheny Valley railroad tracks at Hulton yesterday, when his wagon was struck by a train. McAllister was thrown out and sustained serious injuries about the head and legs. The wagon was smashed, the milk lost and the horse was cut and bruised.

ACTIVITY IN STEEL LINE EXCEEDS ALL RECORDS

Scarcely a Wheel of Corporation Plants That Is Not Turning and Capacity Is Taxed to Its Limit. Deliveries Are Enormous.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—The heads of the subsidiary companies of the United States Steel Corporation, members of the bar iron, nut and bolt and eastern iron associations are in the city. The Steel Corporation's representatives and the bar iron association are holding meetings to discuss conditions. Meetings of the eastern pig iron association and the nut and bolt association were held Wednesday.

It is likely an advance in steel plates will be announced soon. In view of the fact that bar iron is selling 25 cents the 100 pounds above the official price of $1 60, Pittsburgh, a readjustment of the minimum quotation would cause no surprise. There has been a heavy increase in new steel plate business this week over the preceding week, which is expected to influence an earlier advance than expected.

The Steel Corporation's representatives all report unprecedented prosperity in iron and steel, and declare a steady run all through 1906 is now practically assured. Indications are that practically all the tonnage on the books of the Steel Corporation, amounting to nearly 6,000,000 tons, will be specified against.

The prosperity of the iron and steel business was reflected at Wednesday's meeting of the eastern iron association. The members present all reported that their possible production had been sold from five to six months ahead. There is scarcely a wheel of the United States Steel Corporation's plant that is not turning. Deliveries exceed all previous records, and more men are employed than ever before in history.

FIVE DEATHS RESULT FROM TENEMENT FIRE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—At least five persons were burned to death in an Italian tenement house fire at 221 East Seventy-third street early today. The house was six floors high and the sleeping tenants on the five upper floors were made prisoners by flames, with the ground floor a roaring furnace beneath them. Three of those who lost their lives were kneeling in prayer when the fire reached them.

Within the first hour after the fire was under control the bodies of three women and two men had been taken from the stairways between the second and third floors. The police believe the fire was started by an incendiary. It began in a heap of rubbish at the bottom of an air shaft and spread through the interior of a grocery store on the ground floor. A policeman was the first person to see the fire. He ran into the building, pounding on the hall floors all the way up to the sixth floor to waken the tenants.

The fire followed him so swiftly that when he reached the top floor he was obliged to send the tenants there out to the fire escapes to save them from suffocation. Within a few moments all the floors below the fire escapes were packed with persons cut off from escape by the interior stairways.

When the fire department arrived nearly every one on the fire escapes was kneeling in prayer. Adding to the pathos of the scene was the action of the men who stood with their arms full of personal possessions, while their wives fought unaided to protect the children from being trampled by the crowd or being suffocated by smoke. Everyone on the fire escapes was saved by the firemen.

The lessee of the house told the police today the "Black Hand" society had recently sent him letters demanding $2,000. Although the demands did not state what the penalty was to be for refusing to pay the money, the police have begun an investigation on the belief that the fire was started by the writer of the letters.

WILL INTRODUCE A BILL TO REGULATE INSURANCE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—Senator Dryden of New Jersey, who is president of one of the largest life insurance companies in the country, had a talk with the President today on the subject of insurance, which the President will discuss freely in his forthcoming message to congress.

Senator Dryden will introduce at the approaching session a bill providing for federal supervision of life insurance. It will differ in some respects from the measure Mr. Dryden introduced in the last congress, but the principle will be the same. He indicated in response to inquiries that the supreme court never had passed upon the constitutionality of a federal law regulating insurance, although it had held, in the consideration of cases involving purely state laws, that interstate insurance was not interstate commerce.

"It is a fact," said Senator Dryden, "that eminent lawyers of the country differ as to the constitutionality of a law providing for federal supervision of life insurance. That difference probably will have to be solved by the supreme court."

Heptasophs Give Entertainment.

McCarty's hall in Sheraden was filled last evening, when the Chartiers Valley Conclave Independent Order of Heptasophs gave a musical entertainment, interspersed with take-offs at the expense of local people. "Why I am a Hep," was the subject of a talk by Prof. Hannum. Other addresses were made by M. G. Cohen and Dr. D. S. Pastie. The Zu-Zu band was one of the attractions.

Church Euchre and Reception.

The Church of the Assumption of Bellevue held a euchre and reception in the borough hall, Avalon, last evening, which was well attended.

PITTSBURGHERS LEAVE FOR NEW HAVEN GAME

Trains for East Are Crowded by Enthusiastic Rooters for the Yale Eleven.

Pittsburgh will be strongly represented at the Yale-Princeton football game at New Haven tomorrow. Graduates and those with affiliations with the two colleges have been going by convenient trains all the week and incidentally to attend the horse show.

Last night the football crowd grabbed up everything in sight in the way of desirable Pullman berths. Train No. 6, leaving at 7:10 p. m., over the Pennsylvania road, had to put on two extra sleepers. The three sections of No. 16, leaving at 10 o'clock, were overtaxed, and two extra sleepers for New York were added.

Among those going last night were: Mrs. O. D. Thompson, Don Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. George E. McCague, son and daughter, J. C. Oliver, Frank Neale and Thomas Walker. H. D. McCandless, E. M. Byers and J. F. Byers went Wednesday night. John Moorhead, Jr., and his son, John A. Moorhead, are also going on.

On Saturday George H. Flinn will take down to New Haven from New York a party on a private car. H. R. Rea will also have a party on his private car. Those going last night said that fully 200 Pittsburghers will be at the game tomorrow. The majority of them seemed to be of Yale affiliations, but with all their enthusiasm they did not think the blues should be the almost prohibitive favorite of one to three.

DIOCESAN CONVENTION ELECTS A NEW BISHOP

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

DETROIT, Nov. 16.—(Special.)—Very Rev. Charles D. Williams, dean of Trinity cathedral, Cleveland, was elected bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Michigan on the second ballot of the diocesan convention this afternoon.

On the deciding ballot 63 clerical and 106 lay votes were cast, making the number necessary for a choice 32 clerical and 54 lay. Dean Williams received 39 clerical and 80 lay votes; Dr. Maxon 12 clerical votes and 15 lay; Dr. Sayres, 3 clerical and 5 lay; Dr. Feber, 3 clerical; Dr. Roper, 3 clerical and 2 lay; scattered, 3 clerical and 4 lay votes.

Upon the result of the second ballot being announced the election of Dean Williams was made unanimous and an official telegram was sent to notify him of his election. Among those who received complimentary votes in the balloting were: The Rev. C. J. Wrigley and the Rev. D. Kinsolving of Brooklyn; the Rev. H. S. Thomas of Philadelphia; Missionary Bishop Rowe of Alaska, and the Rev. H. Robinson of Racine, Wis.

GETS STEEL ROYALTY.

Court of Claims Gives Harvey Company a Judgment for $650,000 for Patent in Armor Plate.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—The United States court of claims today rendered a decision in the case of the Harvey Steel Company against the United States, in which the company is given a judgment on a contract, entered into in 1900, of $650,000 as royalty for permitting its patent process in the manufacture of Harveyized steel armor plate to be used in the construction of war vessels by government contracters.

In May, 1903, the same company obtained a judgment in the court claims against the government for $60,000 as royalty then due, and an appeal was taken to the supreme court of the United States, which affirms the action of the court of claims, fixing the liability of the government. The two cases involved the same state of facts, the judgment rendered today being for the royalty which has accrued since May, 1903. In its decision the court of claims closely followed that of the supreme court of the United States in the former case.

Sell Governor Nash's Effects.

COLUMBUS, Nov. 16.—The personal property of the late Governor Nash brought only $636 at private sale, according to the administrator who filed his report today. A lot of mining and oil stocks were found to be worthless. The watch of the late governor was purchased for $1[illegible]

EVERY SECTION IS PROSPEROUS

BRIGHT OUTLOOK FOR 1906

Prosperity at present exceeding all that has gone before, and every prospect showing that the coming year will exceed the wonders of 1905 is the message that is voiced by the managers of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company, who have come from all parts of the country to attend the annual convention in Pittsburgh this week. The convention came to its end at the conclusion of the morning session yesterday. The Pittsburgh outlook was expressed by Frank H. Taylor, second vice president of the company, who said:

"I feel that it is a subject of congratulation, not only to ourselves, but also to the entire business interests of Pittsburgh, that the prospects for prosperity in our works never were brighter than at present. We are already in possession of the facts which prove that the year of 1905 has been the banner year in the history of the factory. I look for the business of 1906 to be materially larger than that of 1905."

Maurice Coster, manager of the company's export department, said: "The outlook for foreign trade has never been brighter in this country than at present. The superiority of American machinery, as compared with European manufacture, is being demonstrated every day, and in these markets, where the Germans and English have heretofore enjoyed a monopoly, America is now gradually obtaining the lion's share of the business."

R. L. Warner, the New England agent, stated: "The business outlook in New England was never brighter than at the present time. I believe that the fact of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company being about to operate its trains by the single-phase locomotive will be a great factor in the electric railway business of the Westinghouse companies."

T. J. McGill, the northwestern agent, located at Minneapolis, said: "Every indication at present in the northwest leads me to believe that 1906 is going to be the greatest year in its history. The record-breaking crops of 1905 at high market values, have greatly increased our local wealth and have attracted a large volume of outside money for investments."

J. R. Gordon of Atlanta, the representative at the south, stated: "Electricity has had much to do with the rapid development of the south, on account of the fact that it has made possible the utilization of the many waterfalls which are located in that section of the country. These waterfalls are now being rapidly developed and the power is used for driving the machinery in the old manufacturing plants and also causes the establishment of new ones."

L. M. Cargo, representative for the district comprising Colorado, New Mexico, Wyoming, Utah and Idaho, said: "The new discoveries of valuable minerals made in our district most every hour, and the wealth of gold, silver and copper, especially the latter, is inestimable. This means a greater development of the mining industry of that country than has yet been dreamed of, and inasmuch as the application of electricity makes the operation of mines an easy task, we are looking for a great business in that branch of the industry."

W. W. Briggs of San Francisco, said: "The people on the Pacific slope are looking forward to a period of uninterrupted prosperity. I believe that the development of interurban railway business has only just commenced and with the perfection of the single-phase locomotive and the steam turbine, this particular branch of the business will be greater than it has been heretofore."

C. A. Bragg, district manager, Philadelphia, says: "Prospects for business in the coming year appear to me most flattering. If we have had successes in the past and banner years, I think the coming one will make them look insignificant as regards the amount of profitable business there is ahead of us. There is nothing on the horizon, that I can see, which will interfere with, not only our own business, but the general prosperity of the country. The indications are so strong that I cannot see how they can in any manner be harmed."

QUARANTINE IS LIFTED.

Travel To and From All Points in the South Is Resumed Under Normal Conditions.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—The quarantine restrictions in the south are now all practically lifted and travel to and from all points in the south has been resumed under normal conditions.

The state board of health of Florida and the city of Savannah, Ga., which has maintained a most rigid quarantine, has withdrawn all restrictions, except a local quarantine against Pensacola, Fla., and persons may now travel to and from this state without having to procure health certificates.

LYNN SHOE MANUFACTURER WOULD MOVE TO ALLEGHENY

Secretary Smith read a letter at the meeting of the North Side board of trade yesterday in which F. Smith of Lynn, Mass., asked what the board has to offer to bring a shoe factory to Allegheny, the manufacturer to furnish $8,000 cash. The proposition was referred to the industrial committee. Adam Hoffman reported that the improvement of the wharves in lower Allegheny is being considered favorably by the committee on wharves and landings, which will furnish a detailed report at the next meeting.

Photographer Under Suspicion.

Elmer Ford, a photographer employed in a department store gallery, was arrested yesterday as a suspicious person. The arresting officers say that a lot of goods stolen from the store were found in the photograph gallery and that a search of the house of Mrs. Anna Schmidt, where Ford boarded, revealed a large quantity of silks and dress goods.

WUP PLAYERS AT HARD WORK

Preparing for the Heavy Team of the Ohio Medical University.

NEARLY ALL IN GOOD SHAPE

The W. U. P. football squad, in spite of the number of cripples, put in two hours of spirited practice yesterday at Exposition park. The coaches had both scrub and 'varsity in action and under Ritchie and Boisseau, the two teams ran off signals with unerring speed. Coach Mosse has been giving much attention to Banbury and Swenson, the substitute ends, who will likely be given a chance on Saturday. Klawuhn is taking Jud Smith's place at right half, with Thompson and W. Banbury completing the backfield trio. Leidenroth is working the center position, with Turner and Edgar guards. It was decided that there would be no more scrimmage work before the O. M. U. game tomorrow, but the mixed team which will meet the Buckeyes will be drilled hard in order to develope precision in team work and it is hoped that W. U. P. will present a strong line-up.

The management has gone to a good deal of expense in the arrangement of a new feature for Saturday's game. In place of the announcement of the Yale-Princeton score between halves, as was formerly planned, the baseball score board at the west end of the field will be marked off in regulation representation of a gridiron, and, beginning with the kick-off, the position of the ball after each play will be indicated on the diagram, together with the number of the downs and the time to play. The result will be the most perfect reproduction ever planned. The management has taken these measures in order to accommodate the many alumni of the eastern institutions who will attend the local event. Other eastern scores will be announced between halves.

A large delegation of Pittsburghers will journey to Ann Arbor to see the Michigan-Wisconsin game tomorrow, among whom will be Dr. Friesell, dean of the W. U. P. dental department, and Zieg, the star guard on the W. U. P. varsity, who is at present recovering from injuries received last Saturday and will be unable to play this week.

The W. U. P. student band will hold a rehearsal this afternoon at the Phi Beta Pi fraternity house. Every effort is being made to prepare the boys for a good showing in the Saturday parade.

The officials of the game on Saturday were yesterday agreed upon. They will be Mr. English, W. and J. and O. M. U., referee, and Dr. Farrar, U. of P., umpire.

ROOTERS IN BIG NUMBERS.

Lyceum and McDonald Will Have Shouters Galore at Tomorrow's Game.

Lyceum's work last night in anticipation of the hard game with McDonald tomorrow on the college grounds, was certainly encouraging to the big bunch of rooters who watched the practice. The night was not just ideal for football, but there was plenty of ginger in the squad. The way they reeled off the plays was fast and furious. The old veterans are returning. In the absence of Coach Bird, Capt. McInerney took charge of the team, and was well pleased with the work. The McDonald team is proud of its record this season, its goal not being crossed up to date. The McDonalds have played the best teams in Pennsylvania and Ohio and came out victorious in every game with large scores.

McDonald will arrive in Pittsburgh Saturday morning with about 200 rooters. They will be accompanied by the McDonald band and will march in a body to the college campus. The rooters of the Pittsburgh Lyceum, 500 strong, will leave the Lyceum at 1:30, and, after parading the principal streets, will march to the Pittsburgh college grounds and occupy the east end of the grand stand.

The Lyceums are negotiating with the Carlisle Indians for a game to be played in Pittsburgh. They also play Grove City, Sewickley and Canton, and a return game with Monaca.

W. AND J. KICKERS NOT HOLDING NORMALS CHEAP

WASHINGTON, PA., Nov. 16.—(Special.)—The Washington and Jefferson varsity battled against one of the strongest elevens of the year this afternoon at College field. The first team succeeded in going through the strengthened scrub team for long gains, but was allowed to make but one touchdown. Coach Piekarski is paying special attention this week to development of the back field quartet. The halfbacks are also being coached in taking off the extra man on the opposing interference and getting the runner. Washington and Jefferson is not holding California Normal cheaply since the latter's defeat of West Virginia, and will be in good shape for the contest.

Close Game at McKees Rocks.

The C. A. C. basketball team won from McKees Rocks last night at Maennerchor hall, McKees Rocks, by a score of 18 to 14. McKees Rocks team work was weak, this having been their opening game. Lineup:

C. A. C.—13.		McKees Rocks—14.
Bores	Forward	Shields
Rosenbloom	Forward	Yeager
Gibney	Center	Vandling
Edmunds	Guard
Hennig	Guard	Demuth

Pittsburgh Lyceum's Basketball Team.

The Pittsburgh Lyceum has organized a basketball team for the season, and from the names on the list of candidates for the team it can be seen that Lyceum will have one of the best teams in this section. The following players will please report this evening at the Lyceum: Geisler, Roehn, Hydes, Orr, McInerney, Pardue, Bodkins, Thompson, Yeager, Lawrence and Keenan.

Indians Invade Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 16.—The Indian football players from Carlisle, Pa., who are to meet the Cincinnati university team Saturday, arrived here today and were guests of the United States infantry guards at Fort Thomas today. All of the men were in poor condition, having suffered considerably in the game in Cleveland yesterday.

Pool League Meeting Called.

A meeting of the Allegheny County Pool league has been called for next Tuesday afternoon at this office. Every club should be represented and also all teams wishing to join.

Ramblers Beat the Russells.

The Rambler A. C. yesterday defeated the Russell A. C. by a score of 25 to 16 in a fast and hard game.

BASKETBALL NOTES.

The Allentown Midgets will open the season by playing the Schiller III. team tonight in Young's hall, Knoxville.

Perrysvilles have open dates at home for Saturday nights and away from home any other night in the week. A game is desired for Saturday, November 25. The following teams are requested to communicate: Trentons, Railroads, Sycamore, Superiors, Canonsburg, Saltsburg, Matinee and all local and out-of-town teams. Address A. C. Collins, H. C. Frick Coke Company.

The Zionist Council I. team still have open dates at its hall, which it would like to have filled with strong teams. At Zion hall tonight the Zion Council II. team will line up against the Homestead Library Juniors. For games with the Zionist Council I. and II. teams address H. Resnick, 1851 Center avenue, care Zion Institute, city.

The Marquette Juniors would like to arrange a game with a junior team for tomorrow night, to be played in Marquette hall. Call up Bell 'phone 9144-J. Hazel, and ask for Flatly.

The Leetsdale team has organized a second team and would like to arrange games with all good second teams who can play at Leetsdale Saturday evenings. Address H. B. McConnaughy, Leetsdale, Pa.

The Carson A. C. of the South Side would like to hear from all strong 11-year-old teams. The manager of the Carson A. C. would like to know why the following teams did not answer letters: Schiller Juniors, Joliet Juniors, Franklin Midgets. The following players are requested to report without fail tonight at the corner of Sixteenth and Carson at 7 o'clock sharp: Miller, Rough, Smith, Wise, Mahler, Morgan and Donley. For games address John F. Donley, 1221 Frick building, Pittsburgh.

OFFICIALS OF BIG GAME SELECTED

McCracken Will Referee the Yale-Princeton Struggle Tomorrow.

TIGERS' CHEERING SQUAD LOUD

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Nov. 16.—(Special.)—J. C. McCracken, former fullback of the University of Pennsylvania, has been agreed upon by Yale and Princeton to referee their game next Saturday. The announcement could not be made until tonight when word came from Mr. McCracken that he would accept. It has already been published that Evarts Wrenn of Harvard will be umpire.

Yale field tonight is covered with a heavy blanket of tons of straw to keep the ground in playable condition. It will be removed only in case of strong sunshine tomorrow and the blanket spread again thereafter.

The Yale varsity today had their last scrimmage prior to the contest of Saturday. Only signal drill and chalk lectures will be the work for the men until the supreme hour. The afternoon's work was very largely running back punts, blocking and rehearsal of trick plays. Several of the players looked somewhat drawn, but Trainer Mack says that they eat and sleep well, a test of condition that is satisfactory.

The coaches are tonight in conference upon the lineup. Some favor putting Erwin in at left guard in place of Hockenberger, others holding the reverse view of the two men's capabilities. Both will without doubt play in the game sooner or later. Some coaches are not yet sure that "Tad" Jones should not start the game, but the prevailing opinion among the coaches is that he must be saved for Harvard. Substitute ends and halfbacks are also up for decision. Naturally all defer to Frank A. Hinkey in this matter without question.

Princeton.

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 16.—(Special.)—Today has been one of such excitement in Princeton as has seldom been called forth even by the approach of a Yale game and the afternoon and evening were rife with great excitement. About 3 o'clock a brass band began to make a noise about the old cannon and in a short time the whole college had flocked to the spot preparatory of parading down to the field to watch the practice. Twelve hundred strong the line swung through the campus walks, gathering those who had lagged at the summons of the music and then, in swelling numbers, marched down to the field. After parading the inside of the enclosure they finally took seats and from that time on the cheer leaders kept things moving. Joe Truesdale, the well-remembered leader of 1904, was on hand and long before the practice was over every man was breathing hard from the continual demand made upon his lung power.

Every man on the team was cheered, and Cooney frequently, till at last the locomotive was given for him instead of the triple cheer, a distinction seldom conferred on an individual player. It got so that he could not walk in on the field alone without a prolonged yell of delight from the stands, and though Cooney is a modest man, he must have enjoyed the ovation. New and old songs were sung and resung till the stands shook from sheer lung power.

Cornell.

ITHACA, N. Y., Nov. 16.—Under favorable weather conditions, with the field much softer, the Cornell varsity was given its last hard practice before the Columbia game this afternoon. The work was done behind closed gates and care was taken to secretly guard several new plays that will be used against the New Yorkers. For the first 30 minutes the varsity was lined up against the substitutes, each side being given the ball for three plays to give the varsity experience, both on offensive and defensive work. The work was even more satisfactory than that of last night and things begin to look bright for Saturday's game. The backs got away on all their plays with more speed than had been exhibited in some time and the line made its charges with more snap, making on the whole most effective work. After the lineup the varsity and substitutes were driven through hard signal practice for 20 minutes.

Harvard.

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., Nov. 16.—Harvard's varsity eleven got a taste of good hard work this afternoon, when Coach Reid drove the regulars through two 30-minute periods. The playing was stiff at all times and the men stood the strain well. Saturday Harvard meets the Green and White of Dartmouth on Soldiers' field and a warm tussel is anticipated. Two years ago Dartmouth defeated Harvard; last year it was a 0 to 0 game and this year Dartmouth has registered a victory over the Tigers to give them prestige. Harvard's lineup Saturday is pretty much in doubt. Both Burr and Pierce may not play. White may begin at left guard, and Knowlton is pretty sure to be at right end. The varsity scored three times against the second eleven. In spots its offensive showed good power and the work as a whole was fair. Considerable time was devoted to punting. Two of the varsity's touchdowns were made on rushes covering 35-yards and the other on rushing the ball 50-yards.

The Middies.

ANNAPOLIS, MD., Nov. 16.—(Special.)—Secret football practice began at the Naval academy this afternoon, the watchmen keeping all spectators entirely out of sight of the field, even passersby on the regular academy walks being hurried along. The practice was devoted mostly to defensive formations and a few tricks and there was no regular line-up. Piersol, the stocky tackle, who was put out of the game on Tuesday with a bruised leg, was in football clothes this afternoon and went through the plays for a short time. Capt. Howard was again on the side lines in football clothes. Welch, the best substitute end, who developed symptoms of appendicitis some time ago, is in good shape again and has been in practice every day this week.

Greenfield Hockey Team Ready.

AMONG THE KICKERS.

Ben Avon High school wants a game at home tomorrow with some good 65-70-pound team. Call Edward Flaccus, 280 Cedar.

ANNUAL SCHOOL GAME CAUSING EXCITEMENT

If the weather man permits, tomorrow will be the gala day of local school football. The annual Shadyside-High School game is the candy event in local athletic circles, looked forward to for weeks, the sole subject of thought for days previous looked back upon for weeks, and discussed in every detail after it is played and over. Shadyside for the past five years has been returned the winner in this annual game, and the adherents of that school see no reason why this year should be different. High school, in turn, has been annually hopeful of a change, and this season are ready to count the game as won. Arch. Williams, Ahl, McCutcheon, Mueller and other stars of former Shadyside teams are no longer in the line-up. New material, a far weaker, High school says, is in their places. The High school team has been ably coached by the shifty quarter of last year's W. U. P. team, Doc. Rugh. The material has been abundant and is unusually fast and good. The team is working together well, and an aggressive spirit animates everyone.

If High school loses this year it will be years before another as strong a team is developed. This is Capt. Dunc Worrell's fourth and senior year at High school. He is the mainstay of the team. The play is built and developed around him. When he leaves school there will be a gap hard to fill. It is win or die with the High school team tomorrow.

Some few of High school's players are "banged" up. The playing ground has been frozen and hard. Many complain of sore and strained ankles. McAllister was out at practice yesterday, but did not don a uniform. He is sick and may not be in shape tomorrow. The practice was signal work, with light scrimmage to test the defense of the team. The line then charged fast and quickly. Coach Rugh expressed himself as satisfied. Capt Worrell refuses to be quoted on the outcome. "We are going to play football," he says, "from the whistle."

The Shadyside team has practically finished its work and will rest today. The coaches are cheerful and extremely confident of the result. Both Coach Young and Coach Shetter took in the High school-Rayen game Saturday. They think it is nothing but the size of the score. Big McCoy is in grand shape for a hard game. The changes made in the line-up are working finely and will be tried Saturday.

There are 38 members of the Central board of education and every one is expected to be on hand. A special section of the bleachers has been reserved for them at the instigation of Athletic Committee Chairman Gosser. The men who have done so much to make High school athletics pleasant and practicable will sit together and reason out if it all pays. Friendship park, by their kindness, is the best school athletic field in the state.

EMPEROR CONGRATULATES AMERICAN CHESS PLAYERS

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Emperor William of Germany today conveyed his congratulations to the Manhattan Chess club for its victory over the Berlin Chess society in their recent cable chess match. The emperor's congratulations were sent through Baron Sneck von Sternberg, German ambassador at Washington, in the following telegram: "The German emperor has heard with great pleasure about the first chess match played by cable between the United States and Germany and has commanded me to express to the Manhattan Chess club, as the victor in the peaceful contest, his congratulations on its success."

Crescents Beat the Demmels.

In a game at the Crescent pool room, Wilkinsburg, last night the Crescents defeated the Demmel team of the South Side by a score of 100 to 59. Scores:

Crescents—		Demmels—
Hill	35	Stemmer	32
Maloy	33	Hays	16
Cronin	35	Holland	16
Total	103	Totals	64

Scratches—Crescents 3, Demmels 5.

Ladies' Competition Cup.

Miss Jeannette Murray of the Pittsburgh Field club, has offered a cup for ladies' competition, nine-hole medal play, to be contested for Friday and Saturday of this week.

AMONG THE BOXERS.

Kid Mahoney of the South Side is requested to meet Jack Bruce at Frances hotel today or call up 60 South, P. & A.

Youngstown will hold its next show on November 29, the night before Thanksgiving. It is probable that Tommy Murphy and Tommy Love will come together.

Ned Chernoff, the fighting Hebrew, has posted a forfeit to meet any good man of his weight, Billy Ryan, Jack Bruce, Paddy Brown, and anybody at 125 pounds.

Jack McClelland and Jimmy Hanlon are booked to meet for six rounds at Connellsville tonight. It is likely that Kid Tyler will take McClelland's place, as Jack is not in condition to do himself justice and will take no chances.

The Douglas club of Chelsea, Mass., tried to get Jack Williams, a heavyweight from Philadelphia, to meet Larry Temple at its next show, but Billy McCarney, Williams' manager, refused to let him meet the Pittsburgher. Williams a short time ago knocked out poor Peter Maher.

Yesterday Frank Morgan of this city signed articles to meet Curley Suples of Buffalo in a 10-round contest at Charleroi on December 4. The men will meet at 138 pounds. The articles were forwarded to Buffalo for Suples' signature. This ought to prove an interesting contest.

Andy (Kid) Zember of Monessen, Pa., is out with a challenge to meet anybody at 150 pounds before the club offering the best inducements. He is ready to talk business to Mull Bowser or Barney Strapp of Akron for a side bet. Zember is a husky lad and a good one. He is generally known as the "Butcher Boy."

Kid Carter is in training at the Birmingham A. C. on the South Side and is open to meet all 126 to 130-pound men. Carter states that as a rule there is very little to encourage a man to train in this section so the only way to make anything is to go in winner to take all. That is the way he wants to fight. He would like to meet the winner of the Bruce-Martin go.

Joe Alton, the 122-pounder of this city, finished his training last night at the Business Men's club, assisted by Young Ziringer, Paul Moore and Larry Temple. Alton will leave for Altoona today with his manager, Jimmy Mason, and Ziringer at noon, where he will meet Joe Campbell in the main bout tonight at the Bellevue Athletic club. There will be several other good contests on the card and a fine night's show is promised. Alton will appear here shortly in six rounds against the best boxer that can be secured. Jack Phanicle, the little Windber boxer, will be one of Alton's seconds tonight at Altoona.

DOINGS ON THE BOWLING ALLEYS

MUCH ACTIVITY ALL AROUND

Schedule for Tonight

The Sharpsburg team of the Allegheny section gave the Millvale team quite a surprise last night at Sharpsburg by taking all three games. Up to last night the Sharpsburg boys had succeeded in winning only two games and here they gobble all three. Both teams rolled well, but the Sharpsburg men were in striking form and easily made a clean sweep. In the second game they lacked but one pin of having a 900 score. Cunningham was in fine fettle and rolled high score of 202, beating Servatius' high score of 201, on the Millvale team by one pin. George Rock had high average of 188 2-3 rolling two 190 scores. Scores:

Secretary Vollmer of the Allegheny County Duckpin league requests all teams already entered in the league, also those wishing to enter, to have a representative at the meeting this evening at room 51, Conestoga building. A schedule committee will be appointed and the league will roll its first games next week.

The Waynesburg Colts are due to arrive in the city at 1:30 this afternoon to play their return match with the Unity boys. The games are to be played at the Great Eastern alleys and will start at 3 o'clock. The Colts lost their home series by 250 pins, but expect to get revenge here. Smith, Silber, Fosnight, Coons and McGrath will be the Unity line-up, Cook not having recovered from the injury he sustained at the Greene county burg last Friday.

The Maplewoods of the Wilkinsburg league would like to bowl any junior team in or about Pittsburgh on the Wilkinsburg alleys, Harvards, Arsenal Juniors or Braddock Juniors preferred for next Thursday evening. Answer through The Gazette.

What promises to be the most interesting match of the season in the Wilkinsburg Amateur league will take place tonight on the Wilkinsburg alleys, when Maplewood and Wilkinsburg come together. As both teams are tied for first place and a great deal of friendly rivalry exists between the members of both teams some warm doings are certain. Should either team lose all three they will be tied for second place with Sterling. The following Maplewoods are requested to be at the alleys at 7:30: Wheppl, Downing, Hepner, Honk, Burns and Kinky.

The schedule of the Wilkinsburg league for the next month is as follows: November 29, Maplewood vs. Suburban; November 24, Sterling vs. Wilkinsburg; November 27, Wilkinsburg vs. Suburban; December 1, Maplewood vs. Sterling; December 4, Suburban vs. Sterling; December 8, Maplewood vs. Wilkinsburg; December 11, Maplewood vs. Suburban; December 15, Sterling vs. Wilkinsburg.

Below is a most remarkable match played last night between Riley and Votel on one side and the Seng brothers on the other on the Sengs' alleys at Braddock. Some phenomenal scores are reported and Riley and Votel won five out of seven games. As reported, Riley put up the remarkable score of 299 in the fifth game, one pin short of a perfect score of 300. There will be another match played Friday night between the same teams for $50 a side. Scores:

Bellefield won two out of three games from Bellevue on Wednesday, not Bellevue from Bellefield.

Real interest is centered in the coming tournament on the Federal alleys. Harvey's carving set for individual high score is attracting much attention.

In an exhibition game last night between the Glenwood and Homestead teams, on the Homestead alleys, the Glenwoods won two out of three games. Charles McPherson was the star bowler, having high score and best average. Scores:

After the game the teams went over to Harvey's and had a good lunch.

There was some tall doings in the barber fraternity last night when the two star barber teams met for the supremacy of the two cities. The Langs produced the sharpest edges and shaved the Gerstbreins for two out of three games on the Federal alleys. There will be a hair raising finish at the next match on the Club alleys next Thursday night. Diffenbach was the star, bowling high score and best average. Scores:

Diocesan League Teams Do Great Work on the Bowling Alleys.

On the St. Joseph alleys last night, in the Diocesan league, one of the best matches ever rolled in that league or any other league in Allegheny county was played between the St. Joseph and St. Anthony teams. The St. Anthonys won two out of three games and in order to do so had to put up two fine 900 scores. Scores of 200 were almost too numerous to mention. Dan Houlahan had two 200s and the fine average of 192 2-3. Thomas had high score of 235. Scores:

NEW BOWLING LEAGUE IS SUCCESSFULLY LAUNCHED

At a meeting held last night on the Club alleys the Twin City Bowling league was organized and the following officers elected: A. G. Christy, president; John B. Lambie, vice president; Howard Allen, treasurer; H. P. Burrows, secretary; L. Hardcostle, official score keeper. The new league will consist of eight clubs, as follows: Premiers, John B. Lambie, captain; Orphans, J. Tarner; Maccabees No. 1, Howard Allen; Maccabees No. 2 (to be elected); Pioneers, A. G. Christy; Whitney & Stevenson, W. P. Burrows; Virtulas, H. Klocks. One more team is needed to complete the league. Several clubs have signified their intentions of joining but failed to send a representative. Any one wishing to join should send their application at once to A. G. Christy, P. O. Box 651, city. The games will be rolled on Friday night on the Club alleys, beginning the first week of the new year. Suitable prizes will be awarded and the new league will no doubt prove to be a flourishing organization.

PARKER THROWS CHARLES KAISER

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

STEUBENVILLE, O., Nov. 16.—Harvey Parker of Pittsburgh tonight threw Charles Kaiser of Rochester, N. Y., in two out of three falls in the best wrestling match ever seen here. There was a large crowd in attendance and it was kept cheering all the time. It took Parker one hour and eight minutes to gain the first fall, which he took by getting a hammerlock and changing like lightning to a half Nelson. The crowd howled with delight.

The second fall was won by Kaiser in 11 minutes by the scissors hold. This peculiar hold, caused a good deal of laughter to everybody but Parker, who was slowly twisted to the mat.

Parker gained the third fall and won the match in 28 minutes, with the identical holds he had in the first fall.

After the match Parker congratulated Kaiser, who is a young fellow, and not a ringer, and his fine showing. Kaiser promptly challenged him for a match at catchweight for $500 a side, the battle to take place at Rochester inside of a month.

The men were to weigh in tonight at 150 pounds, but Kaiser refused to get on the scale and forfeited his weight money.

There were two preliminaries between local wrestlers and each was a corker.

SPORT ON THE POINT.

Two Successful Basketball Teams Will Be in Line Again This Season.

Basketball will be given a decided boost at the Point this season, as there will be two strong teams there, the champion Duquesne school team, which won the Midget championship of Allegheny county the past two years, and the D. L. & G. A. team, which also made a good record last year. The Duquesne school team will have about the same team as it finished the season with last year, but the D. L. & G. A. team will be strengthened, as will be shown by the lineup, which is as follows: Ike Lawrence, Charley Lawrence, John Flaherty, William Anderson, Thomas Bodkin, John Daly, Harry Earle, Herbert Snyder, John Curtin, Adam Kinney and Jack Bruce. Out of this squad Manager Dugan expects to get a good team, as all of the above are well-known players. The teams will play in the Duquesne school hall, which is being remodeled, and will be ready for use on Friday evening, when both teams will be out for practice.

The Duquesne school team will be composed of Lawrence and Tuescher, forwards; Gilmore, center; Snyder and Earls, guards. Any local players wishing to try for the school team should report at the Duquesne school hall, corner Second avenue and Short street, Pittsburgh, this evening at 7:30 o'clock with uniform.

TWO PLAYERS BLACKLISTED.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 16.—Manager First Baseman Kelly of the St. Paul American association team must go to the St. Louis Americans, according to a decision reached today by the national baseball commission. He had objected to his sale to that club, wishing to go to the Toledo American association club.

Infielder Owens and Outfielder Heydon were forever disqualified from playing for jumping contracts. Owens was sold by Brooklyn to Rochester, but jumped the contract, and Heydon jumped from Baltimore to the York (Pa.) Tri-State league club.

Player Graham, who was drafted by the Boston Americans and took advance money from the New York Nationals, was declared ineligible until he repays the money.

President B. F. Carter of the Altoona (Pa.) baseball club, representing the Tri-State league, made application to be taken in under the National agreement. No action was taken on the application today. Baseball club owners say this means that there will be no outlaw league next season.

FOR THE CHAMPIONSHIP.

Allegheny Preparatory and High School Teams Will Meet This Afternoon.

Today at Exposition park the Allegheny Preparatory school and Allegheny High school will play their third game to decide the championship of the Interscholastic league of Western Pennsylvania. Prep. won the first game, 15 to 0, but lost the second, 11 to 0. The High school team has been coached by Joe Thompson and Zieg of W. U. P. They outweigh their opponents by 25 pounds and are confident of winning. Worcester will be in Prep's line-up, while Buka, Hatter and Gray are likely to be kept out of the game for A. H. S. on account of injuries. The kick-off will be at 2:30. The line-up will be:

Preps.		A. H. S.
Humphries	R. E.	Hell
Shilton	R. T.	Moore

Homestead Ahead of McKeesport.

Homestead basketball team defeated the McKeesport team last night in the initial game of the season in the auditorium in McKeesport before an enthusiastic crowd of 600, many from the "smart set," the score being 20 to 13. The McKeesport Juniors took the honors in a game with Sharpsburg Juniors as a preliminary, winning 16 to 1. Lineup:

Homestead—20.		McKeesport—13.
Luppold	Forward	Graham
Steele	Center	Myers
Murray	Guard	Cashdollar
Parker	Guard	Burry

Field goals—Luppold (2), Steele (3), Murray (1), Lawry, Dickson (3), Graham (2), Roehn. Substitutes—Roehn for Tannehille, Wallisey for Myers, Lawry for Dickson, Jones for Parker, Stewart for Burry. Referee—I. Little of Pittsburgh.

Yale a 3 to 1 Favorite.

Abe Attell Defeats Tom Mowatt.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 16.—At the end of a 15-round fight with Tommy Mowatt of Chicago, before the Eureka Athletic club tonight, Referee O'Hara gave Abe Attell of San Francisco a decision which he had earned by cleverly keeping away from Mowatt's repeated rushes or by meeting them with smashing blows in the face. Mowatt did practically all the leading and took severe punishment, but he was strong and still rushing at the finish. He proved himself a fast fighter, but not so clever as Attell.

LAST RESORT IS ANDREW CARNEGIE

A LIBERAL OFFER IS MADE

No appeal will be made to Andrew Carnegie to save the Pennsylvania College for Women unless all efforts to enlist the necessary public financial aid fail. This decision has been reached by the trustees of the institution notwithstanding Mr. Carnegie's recently kindly disposition toward colleges.

Two reasons are given for the trustees for not appealing to Mr. Carnegie at this time. First, it is believed that by local public contributions a public interest in the institution will be created which will be as valuable as the money which is so sorely needed.

Another reason for not approaching Mr. Carnegie on behalf of the college at this time is because of sentiments expressed by him one year ago, when he was appealed to for aid. Oliver McClintock of the board of trustees and President S. A. Martin, D. D., of the college, both stated yesterday that when asked to aid the college, Mr. Carnegie replied:

"I feel that I have been doing enough for Pittsburgh along educational lines—I think it is about time to give Pittsburghers a chance to contribute to such institutions."

"We will not appeal to Mr. Carnegie except as a last resort," said Mr. McClintock last night, "and we feel that there is some justice in his declaration that Pittsburghers should be given a chance."

A meeting of the board of trustees of the college was held yesterday afternoon in the parlors of the First Presbyterian church to hear the report of the endowment fund committee. The report showed $70,000 had been subscribed toward the $150,000 which must be in hand by January 1.

Much interest was created by the announcement that some person, whose name was withheld, had agreed to contribute $20,000 upon demand conditional upon the securing of not less than $150,000 on before January 1.

> Whereas, The endowment fund committee, having reported that a friend of the college whose name was not announced, had offered to add $20,000 to the $150,000 fund if the subscriptions to it are completed on or before January 1, 1906, and
> Whereas, This total of $170,000 would pay off the present net debt of the college and leave an endowment fund of about $120,000; therefore be it
> Resolved, First, that the thanks of the board of trustees of the Pennsylvania college for women are heartily voted to the friend who has offered to give $20,000 to the endowment fund on condition that the sum of $150,000 be raised by January 1, 1906.
>
> Resolved, Second, that the board earnestly commends the endowment committee of the college to the generous aid and sympathy of the community.

SON OF APOLLO PASTOR WEDS TRENTON BELLE

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 16.—One of the largest and most brilliant social events in the history of Trenton was the marriage tonight at the First Presbyterian church of Miss Mary Scudder, daughter of John M. Scudder, president of the First National bank, and Dr. Paul Lange Cort, one of the best known of the younger physicians of the city. Fully a thousand invited guests from Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Washington, Pittsburgh, San Francisco and this and other cities attended the church ceremony, and more than half of that number were present at the reception which followed at the palatial home of the bride's parents, on West State street.

The ceremony was performed by the father of the bridegroom, the Rev. Dr. Cyrus Cort of Apollo, Pa., assisted by the Rev. Dr. Henry Collis Minton, pastor of the bride. The bridal attendants were: Maid of honor, Miss Emma Scudder, sister of the bride; bridesmaids, Miss Emily Roebling, Miss Kathlyn Stricker, Miss Mathilde Hamill, all of Trenton; Miss Edna Johnson and Miss Marian Chambers of Pittsburgh, and Miss Ora Otis Williams of San Francisco; best man, Prof. Ambrose Cort of New York, brother of the bridegroom; ushers, Barker Hamill, W. Yarde Breese, Bruce Bedford, Ernest Webb, Hugh Hilson, John Scudder, Dr. George Ridgway, all of Trenton; Dr. Charles B. Worden of Philadelphia.

The William G. Parks Coming Home.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Park and their family are expected at their town house in Western avenue, Allegheny, tomorrow morning. They have just closed their summer residence in Westbury, L. I., where they have been since late last spring. No time has yet been spoken of for Miss Mary Park's wedding to Raymond Robert Neilson of Far Rockaway, L. I.

Reception to College Women.

The Wellesley club will give a reception to the members of the college clubs of Pittsburgh on Tuesday afternoon, November 28, at 3 o'clock, in the Twentieth Century clubhouse. It will be purely a social affair. The officers of the Wellesley club are: Dr. Ellen Patterson, president; Miss Pauletta Guffey, vice president; Miss Bertha Smith, secretary, and Miss Mary Disque, treasurer.

Lecture by Dr. Thoburn.

The Rev. Dr. J. M. Thoburn will lecture on India, illustrated with stereopticon views, this evening at 8 o'clock in the assembly-room of the Central Young Women's Christian association, Fifth street. The lecture is free and men and women are invited to attend.

Pittsburgh Man to Wed.

Formal announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Sara Jersky of Providence, R. I., to Haskell A. Josephson, a well-known business man of this city. His fiancee is prominent socially in the Rhode Island city.

Woman Suffrage Receives Impetus.

Great enthusiasm was aroused last evening over the announcement before a meeting of the Allegheny County women suffragists of the indorsement of their cause by the American Federation of Labor at one of its sessions yesterday. The resolution advocating equal rights in all elections for men and women received a popular wave of approval when presented to the federation by the first vice president, James Duncan, and was passed by the 328 delegates without a dissenting voice. These 328 delegates represent a total of 2,400,000 wage-earners throughout this country, a very small minority of whom are women. A rising vote of thanks was taken by the Allegheny County Equal Rights association at its public meeting last evening in the assembly-room of the Central Young Women's Christian association, and the formal thanks of the association will be conveyed to the Federation of Labor today.

The meeting last evening was the first of a series of public meetings to be conducted this winter to forward the equal rights movement in this county, and was held under the auspices of the Allegheny City Equal Rights club. The assembly-room of the association was filled with men and women, and the principal address of the evening was delivered by the Rev. Dr. W. I. Wishart of Allegheny. "Agitate, and keep on agitating," was his advice. "It was by agitation that the corn laws in England were repealed," he continued, "that prison reforms were instituted, that the Tweed gang was ousted in New York, and finally, in Philadelphia, a change in civic government was secured. Between 2,000 or 3,000 women are employed in the banks of the country, and there is no record of one of them failing in her honor to her bank. If we might have that sort of integrity in the mayor and the councilmen of our cities we would have better city governments. The country needs the suffrage of the women in a national way as much as in the civic. The doom of the saloon would be sounded and that polygamous condition in the far west, menacing the entire country, would not be in existence had the women the right of suffrage. The absurdity of giving the ignorant scum of the earth this right and leaving out the religious, intelligent women with character and conscience makes my blood boil. If the demand for suffrage would be voiced by the women of the whole country as a unit the men could not hold out long against it. Interest the other women as well as the men in your cause. Agitate, and keep on agitating, and don't be in too great a hurry. Don't be impatient for immediate results."

Benefit in Bellefield Dwellings.

The Women's Southern club has changed the date for the card party which it will give in the Bellefield dwellings for the benefit of the Pittsburgh Hospital for Children. It will be given on Thursday afternoon, December 7, instead of on the following day, as previously announced. The use of the clubrooms in the Bellefield dwellings has been secured for the afternoon through Mrs. Samuel L. Seymour, who is resident there, and the plans for the entertainment are progressing rapidly. Mrs. J. Dawson Callery has given 10 prizes, Mrs. Augustus P. Burgwin has donated others and still more will be secured. Mrs. Francis T. F. Lovejoy has asked for one table and will herself provide the players for that one. The tables will be arranged in sections, and Mrs. William F. Abel has taken one section. The Women's Southern society has planned the tables similar to those at the benefit whist which the Fruit and Flower mission gave a couple of weeks ago, and little groups of friends may play together, if they desire to do so, tables being set apart for their use. Mrs. Clarence Renshaw is the general chairman of the entertainment, while the club members compose the committees.

Recital by Jerome and Loomis.

An enthusiastic audience greeted Jerome K. Jerome and Charles Battell Loomis last evening in their humorous recital, in Miss Stuart's School, Fifth avenue near Clyde street, Bellefield. Mr. Jerome is intensely amusing even outside of his writings, and last evening kept his audience in sympthy with his vein of fun, ripples of laughter greeting almost every sentence. There was no formal program, Mr. Jerome reading extracts from various of his books, chiefly "His American Wives and Others." Among the humorous sketches were "American Wives a la Mode," and "American Girls' Etiquette." No less interesting was Charles Battell Loomis, whose genial humor was shown in his readings from his book, "Moore Cheerful America." The recital last evening is the first in a series of several which Miss Ella Gordon Stuart contemplates, and which will be given in the pretty assembly room of her new school building in Fifth avenue. The next will take place soon after the holidays.

Meeting of Educators in Annapolis.

The nineteenth annual convention of the Association of Colleges and Preparatory Schools of the Middle States and Maryland will be held in St. John's College, Annapolis, Md., Friday and Saturday, December 1 and 2. Miss Ella Gordon Stuart, the head of the former Alinda school, now known as Miss Stuart's School, in Fifth avenue, expects to leave next week for the east and will attend the convention before returning to Pittsburgh. Among the subjects proposed for discussion are: "Place for Instruction in Commercial and Industrial Subjects in American Education," "Should Colleges and Universities Refuse to Allow Any Student to Compete in an Intercollegiate Athletic Contest Until He Shall Have Completed One Year's Work," and other topics relative to the curriculum of the preparatory schools. President Rush Rhees of Rochester University, Rochester, N. Y., is president of the association.

IT WAS a beautifully appointed reception which Mrs. Alva C. Dinkey gave at her home in Ellsworth avenue yesterday afternoon. The hours were from 3 o'clock until 6, and the guests had been asked to meet three brides—Mrs. John Black Sirich, Mrs. John McMasters Stewart and Mrs. Edward Rolfe Williams—all of whom received with the hostess, while her assistants included Mrs. Charles M. Schwab and Mrs. J. E. Schwab, both of New York; Mrs. W. H. Beazell, Mrs. David Kennedy, Mrs. Benjamin Maggini, Mrs. Robert Maggini, Mrs. Charles Dinkey, Mrs. A. F. Mock, Mrs. J. F. Lewis, Miss Alice Dinkey, Miss Frances Mehard of Mercer, Miss Jane Allison of Washington, Pa.; Miss Martha Boyd, Mrs. Frank Slick, Mrs. George Page, the Misses Horne, Mrs. Webster R. Balsinger, Mrs. Harry Stewart, Mrs. R. E. Stewart and Mrs. J. Grant Anderson. Mrs. Dinkey wore a handsome toilette of pink broadcloth and Irish lace, and the three brides wore their wedding gowns of white. Exquisitely dainty floral decorations marked the entertainment. The high broad mantel in the hall was banked thickly with drooping Cibodium ferns and yellow chrysanthemums of the close-petaled variety. A vase of the same blossoms occupied a place on a small table nearby and another large cluster was fastened on the outside of the banister, the entire length of which was heavily draped with smilax. The old rose drawing room presented a particularly pleasing appearance. The white mantel was banked with the delicate farleyense ferns, and in the center a great cluster of ragged yellow chrysanthemums towered above the ferns. Smilax hung down over the rose-colored curtains and portieres, and the lights, as was the case throughout the house, were adorned with asparagus springerii and autumn leaves. The centerpiece on the lace-covered drawing room table was a combination of lavender and oncidium orchids, farleyense fern and asparagus springerii enlarging it from the under side. The silver candelabra at each corner stood in the midst of farleyense ferns and lavender orchids. A notably handsome apartment in the house, which is Senator Knox's former residence, is the Indian room used as a library. The walls are of a dark brown leather, and the deep frieze above it is also of leather, but in colors. All sorts of articles suggestive of the wigwam hang about the walls, and the decorations yesterday were of swamp plants in clumps on the tops of the bookcases and bamboo and bark boxes and vases were filled with yellow chrysanthemums, whose edges were touched with lavender. A great fireplace of brass and a cosy corner fitted up with leather couch and cushions are features of the room. Following the reception in the afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Dinkey gave a dinner for the aids and an equal number of men, and later their younger friends were entertained with a dance.

Reception for Recent Bride.

Mrs. Daniel C. Ripley and her daughter, Miss May Elizabeth Ripley, gave a handsomely appointed reception at their home in Wallingford street, Shadyside, yesterday afternoon, the guest of honor being Mrs. William Sumner Seibert, a bride of recent date. Mrs. Ripley received her friends in a gown of sultana-shaded eollenne. Mrs. Seibert wore her wedding gown of white radium cloth and Miss Ripley appeared in a dainty white robe of chiffon cloth. The aids for the afternoon were Mrs. R. J. Wilson, Mrs. J. J. Turner, Mrs. Joseph G. Walters, Mrs. Harry Williams, Mrs. John B. Kaercher, Mrs. George Barker, Mrs. J. J. Speck, Miss M. E. Stevenson, Mrs. D. A. Ripley, Mrs. James A. Loughrey, Miss Mary F. Smith, Miss Mary Tebbits, Miss Mary Murdock, Miss Velma Wilson, Miss Helen Walters, Miss Lillian Baird, Miss Madeline Steinmeyer, Miss Mabel Gillespie, Miss Eleanor S. Ayers, Miss Marguerite Smith, Miss Jeannette Williams, Miss Elizabeth Murdock, Miss Elizabeth Smith and Miss Anna Welsh. The receiving party stood before a handsome screen of Japanese embroidery, from the back and over the top of which rose a cluster of white chrysanthemums. A handsome basket of pink roses tied with a large pink bow was placed on one of the small tables at the side of the mantel, at the opposite side being a bark vase of [illegible] chrysanthemums. The lights were capped with pink shades and white forget-me-nots showered the chandelier. A group of maidenhair ferns occupied one end of the mantel and across the corner of the mirror was draped a curtain of small-leaved smilax. The arrangement of the decorations in the library was especially effective. A tall brass jardiniere was filled with Liberty roses, and a cluster of the same flowers was caught up with the window curtain at sill length, and again they were used to advantage on the lights, not only on the globes, as is usual, but over the entire length and width of the chandelier. The orchestra was concealed by wicker screens, to which were fastened clusters of yellow chrysanthemums, and in the dining-room the center of the table was occupied by a bark boat-shaped affair filled with lilies of the valley and oncidium orchids, from which long-fronded ferns tied with blue satin ribbons trailed out over the cloth. Cultivated smilax formed a curtain over the bay window, which was banked with ferns and tropical plants.

A Trio of Suburban Weddings.

Miss Charlotte Olivia Davidson, daughter of Mrs. Margaret J. Davidson, and Lee Stuart Irwin, were quietly married at the bride's home in Bellevue last evening, the Rev. W. W. Lawrence, pastor of the Bellevue United Presbyterian church, officiating. Dr. W. J. Davidson, a brother of the bride, gave her hand in marriage, the attendants including Miss Virginia Bowman as flower girl, Samuel C. Irwin as best man, Paul W. Irwin and J. Stanley Davidson, ushers, and Master James Irwin Bowman and Master John Davidson Ballard, as ribbon bearers. Upon returning from a wedding trip the bridal couple will reside in Bellevue.

The Rev. Samuel H. Moore of New Castle officiated at the marriage of Miss Laura Watt Cottrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Pettit Cottrell of Wilkinsburg, and William Everett Ralston, which was a home event of last evening. The bride was attended by Miss Sara McLean and Miss Sara Ferguson, little Miss Dorothy White and little Miss Emily Wolfe, the two former as bridesmaids and the last two as flower girls. A. E. Sloan acted as best man and the ushers were Joseph W. Cottrell and John C. Ralston, brothers of the bridal couple. At the conclusion of their wedding journey Mr. and Mrs. Ralston will be at home in Wilkinsburg.

After an eastern trip Mr. and Mrs. P. H. McDonald will be at home in North Braddock. Their marriage was a home event of yesterday morning, the bride being Miss Alice W. Creal, a daughter of Mrs. Sarah Creal of Braddock. The Rev. O. H. Phillips, pastor of the First Christian church of Braddock, officiated, and the bridal couple was unattended.

Mrs. Lockhart's Luncheon.

About 35 of the season's debutantes were the guests of Mrs. James H. Lockhart yesterday afternoon, when she gave a luncheon at the Pittsburgh Golf club for her sister, Miss Pauline Dilworth, and her cousin, Miss Margaritta Frew, both of whom are buds of this winter. The table was placed in the living-room of the club and was arranged in dumbbell shape. In its center rose a high shaft of white chrysanthemums in shower effect, while at either end was a low mound of the same flowers, from which long narrow beds of their kind connected with the center shaft. Farleysene ferns added to the effectiveness, small white blossoms studding the ferns here and there. Mrs. G. W. Dilworth and her two daughters, Mrs. Lockhart and Miss Dilworth, will observe their second at home day tomorrow at her home in Fifth avenue. Mrs. Carter Curtis Beggs, Mrs. Richard S. Suydam, Mrs. William Nimick Frew, Miss Jeannette Lupton, Mrs. D. C. Negley, Mrs. Henry A. Breed and Mrs. George A. Berry will act as assistants.

Debutante Tea at Country Club.

Mrs. Joseph Kerr Aikins of Edgewood park has cards out for a tea which she will give from 3 until 6 o'clock next Tuesday afternoon in the Pittsburgh Country club. Miss Mary Marguerite Aikins, the debutante daughter of the hostess, will make her first appearance in society at the reception, over which event she will entertain a group of National Park seminary friends, including Miss Jeannette Irving and Miss Mary Boardman of Philadelphia, Miss Helen Wilson of Clarion and Miss Anne Anderson of Youngstown. A dinner will be given in the evening for the aids, who are Mrs. James Kerr, Jr., Mrs. D. D. Williams, Mrs. Samuel McClinton, Mrs. George McAbee, Mrs. Augustus C. Read, Mrs. Stanley Rinehart, Mrs. William Luce, Mrs. N. C. Elben, Miss Margaret Roberts, Miss Edith Speer, Miss Sarah Keil, Miss Florence Keil and Miss Bessie Hudson. Mr. and Mrs. Aikins will give a dance in the Edgeworth club for their daughter on the evening of Monday, November 27.

Afternoon and Evening Receptions.

Mrs. Otto C. Reymann will share honors with Mrs. Charles A. E. Succop at the reception which Mrs. Adolphus Edward Nieman will give next Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Reymann is a Lake Erie college friend of the hostess and has just come from Havre, France, to reside in Edgewood. She has been living in the French city since her marriage five years ago. The hours are from 2 o'clock until 5, during which time the hostess will have as her aids Mrs. J. Grant Anderson, Mrs. Herbert E. Anderson, Mrs. John D. Brown, Mrs. James Wellington Cheswright, Mrs. John S. Craig, Mrs. Robert Ferree, Mrs. Louis A. Meyran, Mrs. Charles Franklin Nieman, Mrs. J. A. Phillips, Jr., Mrs. John A. Scott, Mrs. Augustus Succop, Mrs. Gilliford B. Sweeney, Mrs. William P. Sargent, Mrs. William B. Wolfe and Mrs. E. H. Myers and Miss Myers, mother and sister of the hostess. Mr. and Mrs. Nieman will entertain at cards in the evening to meet Mr. and Mrs. Succop, the latter being Miss Ethel Craig prior to her marriage a short time ago.

Reception in Carter Conservatory.

S. G. Pratt of New York, the distinguished author, composer and pianist, was the guest of honor at a reception given in the Carter Conservatory of Musical Art, South Highland avenue, last evening. An informal musical program was presented. Mr. Pratt played several Chopin compositions and Mr. Carter played and sang several selections. Among the advanced students and graduates who participated in the program were Miss Elda Furry, Miss Ivie Taylor, Miss Oma Crossland, Miss Ruth Williams, Miss Bernadette Donnelly, Miss Carrie Curry, Miss Bertha Gross, Miss Eva Kates, Miss Bernadette Crawford, Miss Elizabeth Anderson, Miss Ethelwin Dible and Miss Margaret Krebs. Mr. Pratt will give a series of lecture recitals at the conservatory during the season, the subject of which will be the life and compositions of Chopin.

Creal-McDonald.

Mrs. Alice Creal, daughter of Mrs. S. E. Creal, and Peter H. McDonald, both of North Braddock, were married at 10 o'clock yesterday morning at the home of the bride's mother. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. O. H. Phillips, pastor of the First Christian church, in the presence of 50 guests. After the wedding breakfast Mr. and Mrs. McDonald left for the east. They will be at home in North Braddock after December 1.

Austin-Berquist.

Charles Berquist and Miss Ida C. Austin, both of McKeesport, were married last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Austin, 814 North Evans avenue. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. W. Hoover, pastor of the Coursin Street Methodist Episcopal church. The bridesmaids were Miss Mary A. Ridley and Miss Rose Duffy, while the groom was attended by his brother, Daniel Berquist.

WILL SUPPORT THE PRESIDENT

FREIGHT RATES DISCUSSED

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—President Charles S. Mellen of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, accompanied by Timothy E. Byrnes, his assistant, called on President Roosevelt today. Later Mr. Mellen was a guest of the President at luncheon. Mr. Mellen and the President are long-time friends. It was Mr. Mellen whom the President quoted as a "prominent railroad official" in his annual message to congress a couple of years ago. Mr. Mellen's position on the subject of railroad rate legislation is well known. He stands pretically with the President on the matter, believing it wise for the railroads to acquiesce in the enactment of reasonable legislation. The President desired to discuss with him certain phases of the rate question and therefore extended to him an invitation to call on him.

When a reporter called attention to Mr. Mellen's reputed liberal attitude toward rate legislation Mr. Mellen replied by asking these questions:

"Have you noticed that I have not been down here to protest?"

"Have you noticed that in this agitation I have not taken any action whatever?"

On receiving an affirmative response to these questions Mr. Mellen added significantly:

"The only action that I am going to take is to support the President."

S. O. Mead, president of the Merchants' association of New York, presented to President Roosevelt today a statement of that association in support of the President's attitude on railroad rate legislation. The statement strongly supports the Esch-Townsend bill which was passed by the house of representatives at the last session, but urges that any decision of the interstate commerce commission in a given case should be put into immediate effect without suspending it to await the result of an appeal to the courts.

PAUR THE SOLOIST.

Orchestra Conductor Will Preside at Piano at Tonight's and Tomorrow Afternoon's Concerts.

The program for tonight's and tomorrow afternoon's orchestra concerts contains two of the most popular orchestral numbers, namely, the Schubert "unfinished" symphony and the prelude and closing scene from Wagner's "Tristan and Isolde." In these works the two composers that represent epochs in the romantic school are brought into fine contrast, but there are other compositions also by modern composers. The Bohemia composer, Smetana, is represented by his symphonic poem "Vltava," a work replete with beautiful melodies. An interesting novelty is a first performance in Pittsburgh of Beethoven's "King Stephan" overture.

To many the fact that Mr. Paur will be the piano soloist at these concerts lends the highest interest. Mr. Paur's playing at Pittsburgh orchestra concerts last year created an artistic sensation. He has chosen for his more important number to-night the Spanish rhapsody by Liszt, arranged for piano and orchestra by Busoni. It was Mr. Paur's performance of this work at Chicago last February that led the Evening Post of that city to say that his playing combined perfect technical exactness, intense dramatic delivery and poetic grace with such power that in the greatest orchestral climaxes the piano was always the predominating part, an achievement which compels the deepest respect and admiration.

For his solo numbers Mr. Paur plays three pieces by Chopin. There is a good choice of seats at all the prices for tonight's concert, and for tomorrow afternoon at the uniform price of 75 cents throughout the hall.

MAKES MANY CONVERTS.

Simultaneous Revival Results in 1,048 Members Being Added to the Christian Church.

With about a half dozen churches to hear from, the total number of additions to the Christian church, since the simultaneous revival began has been 1,048. This number is expected to be fully doubled during the remaining 10 days of the revival, because the interest is now greater than ever before. At Meadville, which boasts of the second youngest church in Western Pennsylvania, the opera house has been leased in which to hold Sunday meetings. Last Sunday the crowds could not be accommodated and hundreds were turned away. Services will be held next Sunday in the Opera house.

The speaker at today's noon meeting at the old Third Presbyterian church will be the Rev. Dr. Charles R. Scoville of Chicago. He is the evangelist at the First Christian church, Allegheny, which has had up to date 153 additions to membership, as a result of the revival.

"The Office Boy."

Music and hilarity will be dominant at the Alvin next week when Frank Deshon, than whom there is no funnier man on the contemporary stage, will offer his musical comedy, "The Office Boy." His company is said to comprise half a hundred persons, and being under the immediate management of Nixon & Zimmerman, who keep right on absorbing desirable attractions, it is a fair presumption that everything possible has been done to give the enterprise vogue.

Calve's Program a Notable One.

The program for Monday's Calve concert is one of the most enjoyable heard in Pittsburgh for a long time. The great prima donna will sing the Habanera song from "Carmen," a number which has become synonymous with Calve, and the most popular of all the beautiful selections of the opera. She will also give an aria from David's Perle do Brazil and the Gounod Sapho stanzas.

Elks to Hold Memorial Meetings.

Arrangements have been completed by Duquesne Elks for the annual memorial exercises in the Carnegie library at that place on Sunday afternoon, December 3. Leo F. O'Brien, exalted ruler of McKeesport lodge, will deliver the oration and eulogy. There have been three deaths in the Duquesne lodge during the year. The McKeesport lodge will hold its memorial services the same evening in White's opera house, McKeesport.

PUBLIC BUILDING BILL IS PROBABLE

RELIEF FOR PITTSBURGH

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Room 10, Postal Building,
WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.

A question that is agitating the minds of members of congress at this time is whether there will be a public building bill passed at the forthcoming session. It is a question that is of deep interest in view of the congressional elections that will take place next fall. The congressman who can get an appropriation for a public building for his district adds very materially to his chances of re-election.

At the last session no such bill was passed because Speaker Cannon and other leaders of the house declared that the deficit in the government's revenues demanded economy. It is reported that Speaker Cannon has privately said that he would not oppose a bill of this kind this year and upon that rumor the congressmen are building hope. There seem to be good reasons why a public building bill should be passed now as a matter of business policy. In 46 cities and towns throughout the country the government has purchased sites for buildings and congress has made no appropriations for the buildings themselves. The sites are lying idle with the purchase money bringing no return, meanwhile the government is paying rent for postoffice and other federal offices in these towns. Economy would seem to be best served by erecting buildings upon these sites and saving the rents.

There is one such site lying idle in Pennsylvania, that at Butler. No appropriation has been made for the building. There are three cases in Ohio, at East Liverpool, Hamilton and Youngstown. In Pennsylvania there are three towns where money has been appropriated for the purchase of sites, but the government has been unable to acquire suitable land within the sums appropriated. These towns are Carbondale, Johnstown and Meadville.

In 1902 a public building bill was passed carrying appropriations of about $20,000,000 and the following year a supplemental bill was put through which carried about $8,000,000. If one is introduced at the coming session it will carry not less than $5,000,000, and will likely aggregate double that amount.

In this connection it is probable that the Pittsburgh congressmen will take some action looking to the relief of the overcrowded condition of the Pittsburgh federal building. The supervising architect of the treasury has done all that he can by shifting the offices and now every available inch of space is utilized. If this question is taken up it is likely that Supervising Architect Taylor will advise selling the present building, which is a most valuable business site, and buying a location in another place where more land can be secured. This was done in the case of the Philadelphia mint and enough was realized from the sale of the old mint to buy a site and erect the new building.

MR. PLUMMER VISITS GOVERNOR AT CAPITAL

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

HARRISBURG, Nov. 16.—Representative J. Lee Plummer of Blair, late candidate for state treasurer, was in Harrisburg today for the first time since he went down to defeat last week, but he showed no external evidence of his misfortune. He was as cheerful as if he had won out, and said he was resigned to the situation, which he certainly did not expect, having, as he says, every reason to expect to be elected.

Mr. Plummer was here on business and called on Gov. Pennypacker. Mr. Plummer is chairman of the committee on appropriations in the house. He will have but one measure before him, the bill making an appropriation to pay the expenses of the extra session. He said he will stand shoulder to shoulder with the governor on proposed legislation.

The sinking fund commission has purchased an additional $15,000 of state bonds from the Pennsylvania Society for the Insurance of Lives and Granting Annuities in Philadelphia, at $106 and interest, and Auditor General Snyder says the commonwealth is prepared to take any more offered at the same rate.

HURRIES FIRE WITH OIL.

Warren Woman Loses Her Life, Her Father Is Badly Burned, and Home Destroyed.

WARREN, PA., Nov. 16.—(Special.)—One dead and another seriously burned is the result of a fire at North Clarendon this morning. Mrs. August Scalise arose early to bake bread and attempted to start the fire with kerosene. An explosion followed and the house was set afire.

The home was totally destroyed and the father, August Scalise, and the three children were only rescued with difficulty. Mrs. Scalise fell near the stove and her blackened and charred body was found after the flames had burned themselves out.

ADDITIONAL BOWLING NEWS.

The St. Charles won all three games from the St. Henrys. No remarkable scores were made, but the St. Charles were there with the creditable score of 885. J. Gillig had high score and A. Woller best average. Scores:

Capt. Hergenroeder of the Friendship team requests Capt. Fischer of the Bloomfield team to agree to postpone the match scheduled for tonight to some day next week. Call up 14 East. P. & A. this afternoon. Two of the Friendship players have not returned from a hunting trip.

The bowling match scheduled to be played at the Edgewood club last night was postponed on account of the illness of several members of the teams.

Charles H. Coons, secretary of the Unity County league team, states that he does not know why the Braddocks have thrown down the gauntlet to the Unitys, but that the latter stand ready at any time to roll a match for a side bet of $50. He stipulates that the Club alleys be chosen, since they are neutral and give neither team the advantage, and that best two games in three shall decide who is winner and who pays for the games. The Unity players have too many demands upon their time to play six games, three at Braddock and three at Great Eastern alleys. Unity will also be glad to give the Tarentum boys a friendly game as soon as possible.

CAN'T WITHDRAW A RESIGNATION

MUST HOLD SPECIAL ELECTIONS

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
HARRISBURG, Nov. 16.

A member of the house of representatives who resigns between a regular and special session of the legislature cannot withdraw his resignation after it has been presented to the speaker of the house. Such member may, however, be elected at a special election for his successor, or should he decline to stand as a candidate he may appear before the house and claim his seat, challenging the report of the specially-elected member to fill the vacancy, the house being the sole judge of the qualifications of its members.

Attorney General Carson furnished Speaker Walton with an opinion to this effect tonight. The question was raised by George W. Mintzer, Sr., of the First Philadelphia district, who tendered his resignation at the close of the session last winter and then wanted to withdraw it after Gov. Pennypacker's call for an extra session for the enactment of reform in legislation.

The attorney general instructs the speaker that in this and all similar cases it is his duty to issue a special writ for the filling of a vacancy in the Mintzer district. The attorney general also instructs the speaker that the governor having called a special session, it becomes necessary to hold special elections in districts when vacancies exist in the house and that it is Walton's place to issue writs for special elections, the writs to be delivered to the sheriff of the district in which the election is to be held at least 15 days before the election.

In an official opinion to Lieut.-Gov. Brown, the attorney general holds that it is his duty to issue a writ for a special election in the Eighth senatorial district to fill the vacancy created by the death of Horatio B. Hackett of Philadelphia.

BROWNSVILLE BRIDGE CASE BEFORE COURT

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—After hearing an extended argument today on the injunction proceedings brought against Secretary of War Taft to restrain him from putting into effect his order providing for the raising of the Brownsville bridge, Justice Stafford of equity court, District of Columbia, took the case under advisement. The justice stated that the case was of such great importance and such an intricate point of law was involved that he did not feel like rendering a decision until he had given the evidence and argument consideration.

The importance of this case grows out of the fact that practically the same points of law are at issue in the Allegheny river bridge cases, which are now before Secretary Taft. The Brownsville bridge is a highway bridge and was alleged to be an unreasonable obstruction to navigation of the Monongahela river and was ordered raised. No matter what the decision of Justice Stafford may be the case will go finally to the United States supreme court.

The war department as well as the Pittsburgh bridge companies are anxious to have the authority of the war department fully defined by a court of the last resort. The bridge interests maintain that any order of the war department calling for a modification of a bridge owing to a subsequent improvement of a river amounts to exercising of a legislative function and therefore such power cannot be delegated to the department by congress. Attorney J. H. Beal of Pittsburgh consumed most of the time today in an argument for the bridge company.

OLD CLASS BANQUETS.

Those Who Received Scottish Rite Degrees in 1902 Hold Reunion.

All day yesterday and last evening the class of 1905, now receiving the Scottish Rite degrees at the fifty-third annual reunion of this Masonic order of the Valley of Pittsburgh, was engaged in the work of the consistory.

The fall class of 1902 of the Pennsylvania consistory held the third annual supper and smoker last night at the Hotel Henry, with about 40 members present. The gathering was arranged by Charles I. Westerfield, secretary. Among the speakers were James I. Buchanan, George W. Guthrie, Harry W. Dunlap and James Little of Pittsburgh; John M. Core of Uniontown and Joseph Mayworm of Detroit.

Judge Weiss Suffers a Stroke.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 16.—John H. Weiss, president judge of the Dauphin county court, was stricken with paralysis at his home here this afternoon and is in a critical condition. Judge Weiss had a slight stroke on Monday from which he soon recovered. He was for many years one of the leaders of the Dauphin county bar before his promotion to the bench six years ago.

Marries His Boyhood Sweetheart.

CUMBERLAND, MD., Nov. 16.—(Special.)—Charles F. Showacre, aged 65, of Oldtown, and Mrs. Zella Young, aged 50, of Rainsburg, Pa., who were sweethearts in youth, were married here today. Mrs. Showacre is a descendant of Col. Shryock of revolutionary fame, and married the late John Young, a Pennsylvania farmer. Mr. Showacre did not marry. Mr. Showacre is a retired merchant and tanner.

Call Is Asked to Resign.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 16.—The resignation of Joseph Call, master painter in City hall, was asked today by Director of Public Safety Potter, as Call is a member of the legislature. Call explained he had resigned from the legislature at the close of the regular session and that during the time he had served he had done so under leave of absence by chief of the bureau of city property, George Pierce. Call's statement will be taken under consideration.

May Pay Back Dividends.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—(Special.)—Members of the executive committee of the Republic Iron and Steel Company held a lengthy session today at which they discussed the advisability of paying the accumulated dividends on the preferred stock. All the members were present, but the meeting was adjourned for a week without taking any action.

Two Men Die in Powder Mill.

PEORIA, ILL., Nov. 16.—An explosion this afternoon at the Buckeye powder works at Edwards station, northwest of Peoria, killed two men and injured several other employes. Addison Lond and William Hassler were killed.

King Banqueted by Emperor.

VIENNA, Nov. 16.—Emperor Francis Joseph gave a banquet in the royal castle of Schoenbrun tonight in honor of King Alfonso. The guests included Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria. The banquet was followed by a performance in the theater of the castle. At 10:30 o'clock King Alfonso started for Munich.

NEW REVENUE ACT IS NOT NEEDED

CANNON TALKS OF TARIFF

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—Among the subjects discussed by the President with some of his callers today was the probable condition of the treasury at the end of the current fiscal year. It is the consensus of opinion among senators and representatives who have talked to the President about the matter that the deficit in the treasury this year, if any at all should appear, will be small. They point to the increased revenues of the treasury during the past three or four months as an indication, despite the somewhat increased expenditures, that no alarming deficit is likely. A small deficit would cause no apprehension in the minds of the congressmen, but many of them believe now that practically no deficit will be shown at the end of the year.

Among the callers on the President were Senator Hale of Maine; Senator Burrows of Michigan; Senator Proctor of Vermont and Senator Carter of Montana. Speaker Cannon and Representative McCleary of Minnesota, also had talks with the President. Senator Hale, when asked about the condition of the treasury, said:

"I doubt whether there will be a deficit this year. At all events, if there should be, it will be small, judging from the present outlook. Consequently, there will be no need for legislation providing for additional revenues."

Senator Burrows expressed a similar opinion. "Whatever deficit we may have this year will cause nobody trouble and the imposition of additional revenue taxes will not be necessary."

Representative McCleary, who is talked of as the possible chairman of the house committee on appropriations, believes that the exercise of economy in appropriations will prevent an excess of expenditures over receipts. He expressed no concern about the condition of the treasury this year. He suggested that any deficit might be provided for easily by the imposition of a tax of two or three cents a pound on coffee. "Such a tax," said he, "would be no hardship to the consumer, and probably would not result in the raising of the price of coffee."

Speaker Cannon, who called at the White House yesterday, but did not see the President at that time, had a conference with him today. The nature of their talk he did not disclose. On the tariff revision question, Mr. Cannon indicated that he yet is a "stand-patter." "If," said he, "a tariff bill should be brought under consideration and we should proceed for 12 months or so with its discussion, and then its friends should command the votes necessary to enact it into law; and then the business interests should succeed in adjusting themselves to the new conditions, it probably would be found that the measure contained as many 'outrages' and 'injustices' as the present law contains."

"Do you think any sort of revenue legislation will be necessary at the approaching session to provide for a possible deficit in the treasury?"

"Look at the balance sheets of the treasury," replied Mr. Cannon. "Look at the balance sheets. They tell the story—they answer your questions. We have a pretty comfortable surplus, don't you think?"

A MASTER STROKE

VICTORY OVER OBSTINATE SCIATICA

The final and complete disappearance of a painful disease that had filled twenty-five years of a woman's life with misery is a matter of importance enough to merit the attention of anyone and is of intense practical interest to all who may be similarly afflicted. Miss Catharine J. Mack of No. 42 Forbes street, Jamaica Plain, Mass., has had a most remarkable experience as a victim of sciatica, probably the most excruciating and disabling form of neuralgia, as it involves the great nerve of the hips, and makes all motion of the lower half of the body torture. Other nerves act, too, in sympathy with it and the intensity and steadiness of the pain make the condition of the sufferer pitiable in the extreme. After a quarter of a century of weakness and agony, Miss Mack is now entirely free from her affliction and for the benefit of others she gives the following account of her cure:

"My illness began 25 years ago. During all that time I had to remain in bed several days out of every week. I had constant and very severe pain in my right hip, knee and foot, also in my right hand; in fact, my whole right side seemed involved. The pain was so intense that it was almost impossible for me to sleep or even to turn in bed. For periods lasting sometimes for two weeks I could not cross the floor and the pain was then indescribable. My mind, too, was nearly distracted by my long sufferings. It seems to me that I have lost a lifetime in such misery.

"It was just about a year ago that I began to use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, the remedy that finally cured me. They were recommended to me by my niece, who had learned of their worth by personal experience. I took them persistently for four months in all. At the end of two months I realized great relief and in two months more I found myself again a well woman and able to take up my long neglected occupation as a dressmaker. I had been under the care of physicians for some years and had used numerous advertised remedies, but nothing did me any good until I took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They have cured me, and I recommend them to all who tell me they suffer as I did."

The remedy which effected this remarkable cure is a specific not only for all forms of neuralgia, but for other nervous disorders, such as nervous prostration, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, and locomotor ataxia, and for all diseases of the blood, such as anaemia and rheumatism. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills purify and strengthen the blood and give new life to every nerve and organ of the body. They are sold by all druggists. For further particulars, address the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

BIG RALLY IN STOCKS FOLLOWED BY REACTION

All the Early Gains Wiped Out and the Market Closed Weak—Call Money Easier—Local Securities Also Closed Lower.

By JOHN O. BAGLIN, Financial Editor.

There was a continuation of the rally in the New York stock market yesterday, which made very rapid progress during the greater part of the session, but in the final dealings the tone of the whole market changed, all the early gains were wiped out, and the close was weak and unsettled. Transactions were large, footing up 1,271,000 shares, and the business was well distributed.

The most conspicuous feature of the market was the resumption of activity on the part of the pools in a few specialties. The most noteworthy movement was in American Smelting common, which opened at 142¼, reacted to 141⅜, and then rose without interruption to 147, the highest in the history of the company. While this movement was in progress the pool in Reading took up that stock and rushed the price up to 141¼, or within 2½ per cent of its previous high mark. The operations of the pools in these two stocks, which have been the most prominent feature of the market for weeks past, were no doubt aided by the short interest. The price of both stocks was apparently so far out of line with legitimate investment values that they became attractive to short sellers, and the short interest must have been immense.

The activity, however, was not confined to these leaders. The whole market became strong and buoyant, and at one time the level of prices was higher than before the reaction set in last week when money became stringent.

The change which came over the market during the final half hour of the day was due to the news of events in Russia. Before the time for beginning business in Wall street the quotations from foreign markets reflected the nervousness prevailing abroad. English consols were lower, American Securities showed declines in London ranging from ¼ to ⅜ per cent, and a break of 1¼ per cent in Russian 4 per cent bonds carried the price down to 87. Wall street ignored these things for a time, but late in the day public and private advices stated that conditions were even worse than indicated on the Russian stock exchange, and that one of the largest of the Paris banking houses had refused to accept Russian securities as collateral for loans. The New York market was due for a reaction in any event, and the foreign news stimulated the downward movement.

As indicating the extent of the reaction it may be stated that as compared with Wednesday's close Pennsylvania lost 2 per cent, St. Paul 1⅜, New York Central 1, and other high and medium-class railroad stocks ½ to 1 per cent. Smelting closed 2⅝ higher, but the other industrials closed ½ to 2 per cent lower.

The range on call loans was narrower than on any previous day of the week, the highest rate being 8 per cent and the lowest 5½ per cent, the closing quotations being 4½ per cent bid, 5½ per cent asked. Sterling exchange was strong and higher, and there are no longer any prospects for gold imports. If the situation abroad is half as serious as indicated in the dispatches, the great foreign banks will take a tighter grip upon their holdings of gold than ever. The governors of the Bank of England made no change in the 4 per cent rate of discount. For the week the bank reported a decrease of $5,170,000 in loans and a percentage of reserve to liability of 41.93 per cent against 40 per cent last week. The Bank of France lost about $100,000 gold on the week's transactions and reduced loans to the extent of $4,235,000.

The local stock market was moderately actvie and weak. Crucible Steel common, Manufacturers Light and Heat and Ohio Fuel Supply closed fractionally higher, but nearly everything else on the list closed lower. Pittsburgh Coal common and preferred each lost a dollar a share and closed at the lowest. Philadelphia Company common broke $2 a share on the marketing of 400 shares, the final sale being at 51½. Lustre Mining declined a dollar a share to 30½, and United States Steel preferred lost a like amount. The Westinghouse stocks were dull but steady, Electric closing ¼ lower, while Air Brake held unchanged at 150. American Window Glass preferred sold unchanged at 42, while a small lot of Pittsburgh Plate Glass changed hands at 119¾, a decline of ¼ per cent. Mining stocks were less active, but closed fairly steady.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

The reserve statement of the national banks of Pittsburgh, as compiled from their official statements of November 9 by R. J. Stoney, Jr., justifies the firmer tendency of the local money market. The banks are $1,117,532 below the legal reserve requirements, and their loans and discounts, as well as deposits, foot up the largest totals on record. It is interesting to note, as bearing upon the eastern money markets, that the amount due Pittsburgh banks from legal reserve agents decreased $1,261,750 since the 25th of last August. Following compares the condition of the banks November 9 with August 25 last:

Deposits, increase	48,578
Loans, increase	3,769,718
Specie, increase	142,395
Legal tenders, increase	132,004
Circulation, increase	597,395
Due from legal reserve agents, decrease	1,261,570

The banks now hold $1,117,532 less than the 25 per cent as required by law, or 24.23 per cent of net deposits. As compared with statements made at the call November 10, 1904, the following changes are shown:

Reserve, increase	$1,646,465
Deposits, increase	19,239,814
Loans, increase	17,362,249
Specie, increase	1,066,545
Legal tenders, decrease	64,191
Due from legal reserve agents, increase	44,111

A. Pierson of the New York house of Boissevain & Co. and of Adoph Boissevain of Amsterdam was in Pittsburgh today, the guest of Robinson Brothers. Mr. Pierson came to Pittsburgh to make an inspection of properties in which the Dutch have investments, but particularly Wabash Terminal securities. Mr. Pierson stated that banking interests of Holland have confidence in many American projects in which Americans themselves appear to show a lack of confidence. Commenting upon the news from Russia, he said he was surprised at the lack of appreciation by Wall street of the gravity of the situation abroad. Holland is a holder of about $400,000,000 Russian securities, and is also a considerable holder of American securities, particularly of United States Steel. If a genuine panic should occur on the continental bourses as a result of events in Russia there would be extensive liquidation of international securities in London, and Wall street would have to absorb some selling of American securities for foreign account. The foreign situation may ultimately become the dominating factor in the American stock market.

Actual developments in the New York money market yesterday pointed to a cessation of the drain on the cash reserve of the banks, thus relieving them of the necessity of a continuing loan contraction to keep pace with a further shrinkage in reserves. The subtreasury for two days now has contributed a small sum to the money market instead of a withdrawal, and its net withdrawal for the week has thus been reduced. The increased volume of pension payments is responsible for the change. A more important development was the rise at a number of points of the interior exchange on New York to a premium. At Chicago this premium advanced to 20 cents per $1,000. Reports were current among New York bankers of advices from the west that currency was already returning to the secondary reserve cities as the preliminary to the return flow to central reserve cities. This movement was expected by the first week in November, and the violent counter-movement instead at that time was a potent factor in upsetting the money market. Another conspicuous feature of the day's money developments was the spasmodic recovery in sterling exchange to a point nearly 1½ cents in the pound above the low level of the week for sight bills. The notable easing in money has entirely stopped the offering of finance bills in the market. It was reported also that renewed remittances were being made of the Japanese funds in New York. Furthermore, the foreign trade statement for October, with an increase of nearly $15,000,000 in the value of imports and a decrease of over $8,000,000 in the value of exports, has resulted in a shrinkage of nearly $23,000,000 in the excess value of exports over imports of merchandise compared with October of the preceding year.

The premium which has been exacted by New York lenders on time loans for short periods disappeared yesterday and the tone for that department was easier. The presence in Wall street again of the secretary of the treasury was made the occasion for repeated rumors of an intention to take measures to relieve the money market, and when it was announced later in the day that the secretary had determined to return to Washington, speculative discussion readily turned to the conclusion that this indicated relief from any further apprehension of threatening conditions in the money market.

Kuhn Brothers sold 400 shares Philadelphia Company common. The buyers, Robinson Brothers, Sproul & Co. and Scully, Painter & Beech, are all private wire houses, and the presumption was that the purchases were for account of Philadelphia, where the stock closed $1 higher than in Pittsburgh.

On the exchange 60 shares Consolidated Lamp and Glass Stock was offered at $250 a share.

Japanese bonds were again very active in the New York market, the sales exceeding $1,500,000. Wabash debenture Bs sold to the extent of $325,000.

The Montreal Street Railway Company has set aside $1,000,000 for the purchase of new rolling stock and erecting new feeder lines next year. This is double the amount ever set aside by a Canadian street railway.

The surplus and undivided profits of the Keystone National bank increased $19,879 between statements in addition to the payment of a dividend amounting to $15,000.

The reports of 15 Chicago national banks as of November 9, compared with August 25, show: Loans, $215,656,863, a decrease of $841,517; deposits, $313,407,419, a decrease of $8,107,236; cash resources, $125,027,880, a decrease of $6,505,326.

A dispatch from Washington says: "A bitter fight between the Pennsylvania and Wabash railroads, as the result of an attempt of the latter to gain entrance into Washington, is predicted as the outcome of the decision of the supreme court of the United States against the Chesapeake Beach Railway Company. The decision was a final affirmation of a decision of the court of appeals of the District of Columbia, recognizing the title of the Washington, Potomac & Chesapeake Railroad Company to slightly over two miles of the right of way and roadbed in the district, to which the Chesapeake Beach road had laid claim on the ground of abandonment. Since the Wabash obtained an entrance into Baltimore over the Western Maryland railroad, it is said the Gould interests are all the more determined eventually to reach Washington and the seaboard. A repetition of the big fight by which the Goulds got an entrance into Pittsburgh is predicted for Washington."

The National Lead Company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1¾ per cent on the preferred stock, payable December 15.

STOCKS SUFFER HEAVY BREAK NEAR THE CLOSE

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—The Herald this (Friday) morning says:

Stocks broke sharply in the late trading yesterday under a flood of liquidation, which was provoked chiefly by some foolish professional upbidding of the pool and clique specialties. The news of the day, while mixed, was unfavorable so far as Russia was concerned, and this depressed foreign markets. The local market showed some effects of the unsettlement abroad at the outset, but after the hour for the closing of the European exchanges arrived the pool and clique operators, who had held certain issues strong, set actively at work bidding up the whole list in a further effort to drive the bear contingent to cover. For a time the maneuver succeeded very well. Further extensive recoveries resulted, and a few professional favorites were run up to new high levels, with many advances of from 1 to 5 points. The wildness of the movement defeated its own ends. Heavy selling orders appeared in the market, and when traders sought to sell they found few buyers. The elimination of the short interest deprived the market of support and prices broke violently in the last hour.

Developments of the day in the way of news were somewhat diversified. Less attention was devoted to the money market than on any other day of the week and the Russian situation came to the front again as a disturbing factor. Although money market developments were highly mixed, the tendency of time and call sales was distinctly easier and, therefore, the monetary news was considered as favorable. There was an offset, however, to the easier money rates in a very sharp advance of 80 points on demand sterling exchange. Demand bills sold up to 4.8670 but broke at the close to 4.8635. Even at this figure there was a net advance of 15 points for the day. An important item of news, but one which had little influence, was the October statement of imports, showing an increase of $14,740,145 for the month over October, 1904. The excess of exports over imports for the 10 months of the year thus far is the smallest since 1897. This explains the movements of international exchanges against the country. The late break in the market was attributed to some further disquieting news from Russia and violent declines in Russian bonds. This was assisted by the reckless character of the upbidding fall specialties and the rapid advance in sterling exchange.

The many Pittsburgh stockholders of the Pittsburgh Consolidated Mining, Milling and Tunnel Company will be pleased to know of a telegram from the Brighton mine last night to W. M. Laird, president, announcing the breaking through from the fourth level of the Brighton, one thousand feet east of the shaft, into the workings of the Harrisburg mine on the Livingstone lode.

The company has been driving forward in ore on the Brighton vein, expecting to make this connection for several months. The connection was made without accident at an earlier date than anticipated, and is of great value to the Brighton mine, giving natural ventilation from the four hundred-foot level.

Foreign Money Markets.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—Rates for money were somewhat easier in the market today, though the supplies were not abundant, despite the accommodation obtained from the Bank of England. The demand was moderate. Discounts were upheld. There was less nervousness regarding continental exchange, while the smart recovery in New York exchange relieved the anxiety in that direction. Business on the stock exchange was dull and irregular. There was a tendency in some directions to recover, though this was overshadowed by the Russian troubles. The market closed with a better tone. Consols were easy. Home rails drooped in spite of the latest traffic returns but closed steadier. Americans opened steady. The movements were slight and undecided. Stocks rallied during the last hour on New York buying and closed firm. Missouri Pacific was the feature. Foreigners mostly were dull, but closed somewhat better. Japanese were steady. Russians were flat throughout, especially at the close on Paris selling and the conditions of the St. Petersburg bourse. Japanese Imperial 6s of 1904 were quoted at 102⅝. Consols for money, 88½; consols for account, 88⅝; bar silver firm at 29 1-16d an ounce; money, 3½@3¾ per cent; the rate of discount for short bills is 4@4⅛ per cent; the rate of discount for three months' bills is 4 per cent.

PARIS, Nov. 16.—Prices on the bourse today were heavy owing to a sharp decline in Russians on the strike news from St. Petersburg. Thereafter the market steadied, but toward the close the Russians were again heavy, offered and closed weak. Russian imperial 4s were quoted at 87.30 and Russian bonds of 1904 at 508. Three per cent rentes, 99 francs 80 centimes for the account; exchange on London, 25 francs 15 centimes for checks.

BERLIN, Nov. 16.—All departments on the boerse were weak today upon the renewal of the general strike in Russia. Discount rates, short bills 4½ per cent; three months' bills, 4¾ per cent.

Coffee and Sugar.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—The market for coffee futures opened steady at unchanged prices to a decline of 5 points in response to lower European cables than expected. Wall street and European houses were moderate sellers and the market eased off during the middle session to a net loss of about 5 points, but steadied up toward the close on demand from trade interests and smaller offerings. There was less switching than yesterday, but about 83,000 bags of the total reported represented exchanges from near to late months. The market closed steady, net unchanged to 5 points lower. Sales were 122,900 bags, including December at 6.55c; January at 6.70@6.75c; February at 6.85c; March at 6.90c; May at 7.10c; July at 7.25c and September at 7.45c. Coffee—Spot Rio quiet; No. 7 invoice, 8⅜c; mild quiet; Cordova, 9¾@12¾c. Sugar, raw steady; fair refining, 2⅞c; centrifugal, 96 test, 3 7-16c; molasses sugar, 2⅝c; refined quiet.

QUICK SALE OF EDGEWOOD HOUSES

O. J. Parker Secures Five Residences for $20,000—Many East End Deals.

ALLEGHENY SHOWS A STIR

Through the Samuel W. Black Company and F. G. Coniey & Co. of the East End a very good deal for Edgewood houses was effected yesterday. The purchase, amounting to $20,000, includes five modern brick houses belonging to E. M. Diebold, which were secured by Attorney O. J. Parker for an investment. The houses were completed only recently and have never been occupied. They are eight-room reception hall dwellings, with tile baths, and stand on 28x150 feet each, facing in Gordon street, near Edgewood avenue. One of the houses has already been resold for Attorney Parker by F. G. Conely & Co. to a Westinghouse employe at a handsome profit over the cost. Two weeks ago this firm of brokers secured a 60 days' option on the houses, which would rent readily for $35 a month.

William H. Given has sold to Edwin H. Stowe the residence at 307 Rebecca street, near Friendship avenue, Twentieth ward, for $20,000. It is understood that this house was tendered in part payment for the Judge Stowe residence at Shields station, which was sold to Mr. Given recently through Joseph P. Rankin & Co. and J. J. Dowling of the J. M. Loose Realty Company for $25,000. The East End house is a 10-room center hall brick with all improvements and is on 50x150 feet.

James W. Barker has bought from Robert J. Kerr 206x154 feet on the north side of Forbes street, near Wightman street, Twentieth ward, for $27,000. It is understood the site will be improved.

Trust Company Buys Its Site.

The Wilkinsburg Trust Company has bought from the Hampton Land Improvement Company the property it now occupies at Rebecca street and the Pennsylvania railroad, Wilkinsburg, for $26,000. The lot measures 27x122 feet, and on it the trust company erected about a year ago a one-story cement and plaster building at a cost of about $10,000. This is to be replaced later on with a handsome business block, it is said. The company is well established, and in addition to its trust and banking business has a flourishing real estate department.

Through the office of Woods & Coleman Thomas R. Mackey has bought from Snowden G. Lennox a modern 10-room frame house on 140x110 feet at the northwest corner of Lincoln avenue and Winslow street, Twenty-first ward, for $14,000. The property adjoins the Sixth United Presbyterian church and the house rents for $45 a month.

Two good sales of Euclid avenue property swelled the long list of East End transfers yesterday. John F. Collins bought from John N. Cooper a 10-room residence on 30x100 feet on the east side of Euclid avenue, near Hays street, for $9,000. The other sale was made to Martha J. Collins, who secured from Robert Nibleck a residence property, 30x136 feet, on the east side of Euclid avenue, near Hays street, for $8,500. The latter property was bought for a home.

Gets Long Lease in Fifth Avenue.

George N. Powell has once more surprised his friends by alighting in Fifth avenue as the proprietor of Phelan's men's furnishing store at 218. Mr. Powell has bought the lease which W. J. Phelan held from the James H. Phelan estate, and is closing out the stock of furnishings preparatory to using the store for other purposes. The lease is a valuable one in point of time, as it runs to April 1, 1908, and carries with it a renewal privilege of three years more at the same rental. The building has one story and a finished basement, and is 22x80 feet in size, its small size being offset by its location in the best shopping square on the avenue. The store has been run under the Phelan name for 46 years, but W. J. Pheland now retires from the business for good.

A report that the owners of the Fort Pitt hotel were about to build a big addition to the newly completed hotel at Penn avenue and Tenth street, which was in general circulation yesterday, proved false. The rumor originated from the fact that the proprietors have taken over the building at 1014 Penn avenue, adjoining the Fort Pitt, which is now occupied by Roeder, Braun & Co., dealers in leather. The building is 20 feet wide and three stories high and will be used as a storage house for the hotel. The present occupants have secured a lease on the building at 1018 Penn avenue, two doors farther out, which is also owned by the Fort Pitt company.

The number of sales made recently in Allegheny should afford substantial encouragement for those who are hopeful of the boom that is expected to follow the passing of a Greater Pittsburgh bill next January. Yesterday 11 sales were made public which totaled about $120,000, the best record that has been announced from the North Side for some time. Through the office of W. L. Scott & Co. Albert A. Spivey has bought from Martin C. Stitt four brick houses on 73x60 feet at the southeast corner of Manhattan street and Faulkner alley, Fifth ward, for $22,500. The houses are well rented and were taken for an investment.

The Liberty Building and Loan association sold to Charles C. Marx a three-story brick house on 24x100 feet in Lacock street, extending back to Penn street, Fourth ward, for $20,000.

Adam Hoffman of the Manchester Savings Bank & Trust Company has purchased the property of the Bethel English Lutheran church, 48x120 feet, on the northeast corner of Washington avenue and Fulton street, Sixth ward, for $10,000.

Charles O. Deverts sold to David Laber a modern residence on 50x125 feet on the southeast side of Perrysville avenue, Fifteenth ward, for $9,500.

The Union National bank of Pittsburgh has sold to Rachel L. Caruthers a residence property, 51x84 feet, on the west side of Kerner avenue, extending through to Perrysville avenue, for $9,000.

William H. Pratt sold to George E. Wayland a residence property, 40x140 feet, on the east side of Beaver avenue, near Brody street, Sixth ward, for $8,455.

Samuel Smith has purchased from H. A. Kunze a residence on 20x100 feet on the north side of Arlington avenue near Monterey street, Second ward, for $8,125.

A. L. Cramer sold to Julia E. Berman a residence property, 20x102 feet, on the west side of Preble avenue near Kerr street, Ninth ward, for $8,500.

Joseph Freshman sold to Etta G. Smit an improved lot, 20x60 feet, on the north side of Robinson street, near West Canal street, First ward, for $7,000.

Lots of Money on Good Security.

The mortgage business is picking up, according to reports received from reliable firms who have noted a decided quickening in inquiries lately. Coyle Brothers within the last two weeks have sold 24 mortgages totalling over $70,000 and ranging in amounts from $2,000 to $6,000. These mortgages were all placed on vacant property on Squirrel Hill at 6 per cent, the average sum being one-half the value of the property. This loaning so much money on vacant property indicates that there is plenty 26 per cent cash available for loans on choice sites anywhere in the city. The same brokers yesterday placed a mortgage of $12,000 on a Squirrel Hill residence at 5.4 per cent. The Elderkin-Stanton Company has also placed three mortgages totalling $11,250 at 6 per cent on East End houses this week.

Black street: The John K. Ewing Company, owner of the Union Realty Company, sold for M. W. Stoner and W. J. Bell to John McKinney 5474 Black street, Nineteenth ward, a three-story brick house, for $7,500.

Coraopolis: The Elderkin-Stanton Company sold for William M. Stanton to Mrs. R. Raphael seven four-room frame houses on 108x150 feet in First avenue, near Watt street, Coraopolis, for $3,400. The houses are rented for $72 a month, which makes a 22-per-cent investment.

Broad street: Elizabeth Fleisher bought from Alexander D. Munn an improved lot, 24x100 feet, on the north side of Broad street, near Beatty street, Nineteenth ward, for $5,500. She also sold to Mattie E. Barrett an improved lot, 23x70 feet, on the north side of Rodman street, Nineteenth ward, for $4,600.

Rosetta street: Joseph M. Drum sold to Nettie Irvine an improved lot, 25x102 feet, on the south side of Rosette street, near Vista street, Nineteenth ward, for $5,120.

Lang avenue: James McShannic sold to Joseph P. Calhoun an improved lot, 33x100 feet, in Lang avenue near Bennett street, Twenty-first ward, for $5,680.

Soho: Evan E. Jones sold to John M. Roberts an improved lot, 20x100 feet, on the east side of Soho street, Thirteenth ward, for $2,500.

Lang avenue: Thomas S. Lloyd sold to James Laird an improved lot, 60x120 feet, at Lang avenue and Juniata streets, Twenty-second ward, for $6,500.

Webster avenue: David Devine sold to Herman Obernauer an improved lot, 42x73 feet, on the southwest corner of Webster avenue and Erin street, Eleventh ward, for $3,350.

S. J. Purkiss & Co., real estate brokers, with offices in the Farmers bank building, sold for W. T. Brown of Mt. Washington, eight lots with a frontage on Grandview avenue of 208 feet and on Merrimac street of 185 feet, in the Twenty-second ward, to Attorney A. H. Moeser and others for $27,250. The contract has been let by Mr. Moeser for the erection of 16 houses to cost approximately $64,000, to be ready by April 1. S. J. Purkiss & Co. have been appointed agents for the sale of this property.

Producer Shows an Extension to the Yellow Creek Field

The extension to the southwest of the Yellow Creek field, in Calhoun county, is now assured. On the north bank of the Little Kanawha river, above Brookville, the South Penn Oil Company's No. 3 on the G. W. Silcott farm, 650 feet west of No. 2, a producer on the same farm, has been drilled into the Berea grit and started to gas and produced 70 barrels the first 15 hours. It is thought that it will make a 100-barrel producer when fully completed. A good deal of work is starting and under way in that section. Upham & Ralston have made the location for a test on the Greathouse farm, above and adjoining the G. W. Silcott farm. Across the river from the Silcott farm the Federal Oil Company has made the location for No. 4 on the S. M. McConaughey farm. No. 3 on this farm is a good producer. The extension to the southwest now has three good producers. The location is more than a mile and one-half from the extreme southwest edge of the old pool and opens up room for a large number of locations, should the entire stretch prove to be producing territory.

On Buffalo run, Grant district, Wetzel county, the Kanawha Oil Company has completed its second test on the Hart Bros'. farm, in the Maxen sand and has a 15-barrel pumper. On Pursley creek, Ellsworth district, Tyler county, the Melrose Oil & Gas Company's test on the W. T. Leasure farm flowed 50 barrels from 1 to 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. It has not been drilled any since the pay was tapped and is expected to improve with deeper drilling. This is the best showing made by any well drilled in that locality during the year.

In the Burning Springs district, Wirt county, Roberts Bros. have completed No. 61 on the Rathbone oil tract and have a light pumper in the second Cow Run sand, at a depth of 340 feet. Near Elizabeth, in the same district and county, the East & West Oil Company has completed No. 35 on the Frank Rex farm and has a 20-barrel producer in the second Cow Run sand. In the same district, the Petroleum Oil Company's No. 3 on the Robert Perrine farm is good for 25 barrels a day from the Big Injun.

In the Salem district, Harrison county, the South Penn has drilled its No. 5 on the A. C. Bailey farm through the stray and the well produced 65 barrels the first 24 hours. In the same district, the same company has drilled its second test on the J. H. Riffee farm through the stray and has a very light show of oil. It is now drilling to the Gordon.

Near Downs station, Marion county, the Hope Natural Gas Company has drilled its test on the Louisa Brand farm into the 50-foot and has developed a strong gas pressure. Near Uniontown, Wetzel county, the same company has drilled its test on the A. A. May farm into the stray and developed some gas and is now drilling to the Gordon.

On the Ohio side in the Lowell district, Washington county, John G. Rus & Co. have completed their No. 15 on the Smith farm and have a 15 or 20-barrel producer. In the same district, Nenne & Co. have completed their No. 4 on the Scheffle farm and have a duster.

On Moon run, Allegheny county, Magnus & Co. have completed No. 4 on the Magnus heirs' farm and have a show for a 15-barrel pumper in the fourth sand.

In the development, west of Butler county, where so much excitement was caused last spring by the drilling in of the McBride gusher on the Waldron farm, the Southern Oil Company is drilling a test on the Charles Duffy farm, located northeast of the erratic pool. The McBride well is now producing 15 barrels.

Dried Fruit Market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—The market for evaporated apples is firmer with some foreign demand reported. Common to good are quoted at 6@7c; nearly prime at 8@8½c; prime at 9c; choice at 10c, and fancy at 11c. Prunes are in fairly good demand for both spot and future delivery and the market ruled firm with quotations ranging from 4⅝@7½c, according to grade. Apricots are quiet, but firm. Choice are quoted at 8½@9c; extra choice at 9¼@9¾c, and fancy at 10@11½c. Peaches are attracting a limited jobbing demand, the inquiry being chiefly for small lots. Prices rule firm owing to the absence of important offerings. Extra choice are quoted at 10c; fancy at 10½c; extra fancy at 11½@12c. Raisins are unchanged. Loose muscatel are quoted at 5¾@7¾c; seeded raisins at 5¼@9½c, and London layers at $1 20@1 25.

Butter, Eggs and Cheese.

CHICAGO, Nov. 16.—On the produce exchange today the butter market was steady. Creameries, 17½@23c; dairies, 17@20c. Eggs, steady at mark, cases included, 17@23c; firsts, 23c; prime firsts, 27c; extras, 29c. Cheese firm, 13@13½c.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Butter, steady, unchanged. Receipts 6,133 pounds. Cheese, quiet, unchanged. Receipts 5,180 pounds. Eggs, steady, unchanged. Receipts 5,863 crates.

Receipts Are of Much Better Quality Than for Some Time Past—Cheese Still High.

The demand for apples on the local market is fairly active and the market well sustained with heavy offerings. The stock is of much better quality than has been seen for some time. Grapes are having a good sale when strictly first-class, but many of them are showing the effects of a light frost. Cranberries are moving slowly but command a good figure and high-class goods are at a premium.

The cheese supply is growing heavier each day, thought to be accounted for by the fact that farmers throughout the country are turning their attention to cheese making more than ever, as they find they can make more money by manufacturing cheese than by making butter. The price continues to be high and not much of a reduction is looked for some time. The price is higher now than it has been for over 15 years.

The market for irish potatoes is rather weak and the offerings are not heavy. Good stock, however, still commands a high price, and on account of the light offerings a further raise in price is expected.

The flour and sugar markets continue the same and dealers are still believing there will be a break one way or the other before many days.

HAY AND GRAIN.

Receipts.

Receipts yesterday were: Pennsylvania lines, 11 cars hay, 7 cars oats, 13 cars corn, 4 cars feed. Baltimore & Ohio, 4 cars hay, 4 cars corn, 1 car feed, 1 car straw. Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, 11 cars hay, 2 cars oats.

The market for oats was quite strong yesterday, arrivals are not heavy and demand good. Eastern corn receipts are on the increase, but that condition is not expected to last long, as it is safe to shell corn and shippers prefer to shell than to load in ear. Straw is scarce and hard to get. Good hay meets a ready sale, but lower grades drag some.

The Drygoods Market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—No great activity was apparent today in the drygoods market, but conditions are very firm and buyers are operating with the knowledge that they cannot obtain goods for immediate or nearby delivery. Many, however, are conservative about future buying.

DEMAND FOR WHEAT GIVES FIRMER TONE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 16.—Continued urgent demand for cash wheat at Minneapolis had a strengthening effect today on the wheat market here. At the close wheat for May delivery was up ⅛c. May corn was unchanged. Oats were up ⅛@¼c. Provisions were 2½@15c higher.

The wheat market opened a trifle easier as a result of a slight decline at Liverpool. Initial quotations on May were unchanged to a shade lower at 88¼@88⅜c to 88⅛c. Pit traders and commission houses were moderate sellers. Offerings met with little response in the first few minutes, with the result that prices eased off somewhat. May selling off to 88⅛@88¼c. Before the end of the first half hour, however, a firm tone had developed and the market had more than recovered the early decline. The upturn was due to demand from a leading bull and also to covering by shorts. Offerings in the meantime had become scarce. Strength of cash wheat at Minneapolis had an important bearing on the situation. Sales of No. 1 northern were said to be made today at that point at 4c over the December option. Reports of renewed disorder in Russia had a tendency to check selling for short account, and likewise checked offerings during the last half of the session. In May the highest point of the day was reached at 88¾@88⅞c. Selling by commission houses caused some reaction late in the day, but the market closed firm with May at 88⅝c. Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 182,000 bushels. Primary receipts were 1,259,000 bushels, compared with 936,000 bushels one year ago. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 1,056 cars, against 971 cars last week and 834 cars a year ago.

With the exception of a slight weakness at the opening the corn market was firm throughout the day. The feature of the trading was the urgent demand for the December option. A leading commission house was active on the buying side and shorts also purchased freely. Possibility of adoption of trade of a rule prohibiting the delivery of kiln dried corn on contracts was the cause of additional apprehension. The volume of trading in May was light, but the price was well maintained, the strength of December aiding materially in this direction. The market closed firm. May opened a shade lower at 45⅛c, sold up to 45⅜c, and closed at 45¼@45⅜c. Local receipts were 317 cars, with 5 of contract grade.

The volume of trading in oats was very small, business being largely of a local character. Pit traders were the chief sellers. Offerings were readily taken by a prominent long. The market held steady the entire session. May opened unchanged at 32⅛@32¼c, sold up to 32⅜@32½c, and closed at 32⅜c. Local receipts were 155 cars.

Provisions were firm on covering by shorts in January pork. Another strengthening influence was buying of lard and ribs by a local packer. At the close May pork was up 12½@15c at $12 82½. Lard was up 5@7½c at $6 77½. Ribs showed a gain of 2½@5c at $6 77½.

NEWS FROM THE MINES.

The final installment of the $50,000 subscribed in Pittsburgh to construct and equip the dredge of the Oriental and Masbate Gold Mining Company was paid yesterday by Albert Friedsam, the fiscal agent. Advices were received from San Francisco that the American National bank of that city had been appointed registrar for the stock of the company, and arrangements completed whereby original issues of stock in either San Francisco or Pittsburgh may be transferred in either city and become a good delivery. It was reported that the dredge had been put in operation and a report of the first clean-up may be expected in the near future.

Preparations for the enlargement of the Ohio and Colorado Smelting establishment on the Arkansas river above Salida are in progress. Timothy Goodwin, the general manager, states that the works are now treating daily about 700 tons of mineral, but the increased supply warrants him in adding two more furnaces of 200 tons each, making the total capacity about 1,100 tons daily during the coming winter. The present furnace building is large enough to accommodate the additions.

Recent developments along the strike of the Homestake vein on the south show a great possibility that copper ore will eventually be mined in vast quantities within the very near future. Within the city limits of Deadwood there are excellent copper prospects, as is indicated at the Montezuma mine in Deadwood gulch. There is a very strong belt carrying copper values, beginning on City creek and extending southward not less than 45 miles, where the copper vein passes under the limestone formation at the Southern Queen mine, which is owned by Custer people. All along this vast belt there are outcroppings of copper ore, in some cases running 30 per cent to 50 per cent of that metal. About midway of this belt is the famous Blue Lead mine, which is now being thoroughly developed by John Harnan of Cripple Creek and associates of Chicago.

All grades of refined copper were yesterday advanced ⅛c a pound, bringing the price of lake up to 16⅝@16⅞c, electrolytic 16⅝@16⅞c, and castings 16⅜@16½c.

The Metal Market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Tin was higher by about 2s 6d in the London market with spot closing at £152 5s and futures at £151 12s 6d. Locally the market was quiet, but firm in tone with spot quoted at $33 25@33 75. Spot copper was 10s higher at £72 15s in London while futures were unchanged at £72 15s. Locally the market was reported firm with offerings light. Lake is quoted at $16 62½@17 00; electrolytic at $16 62½@16 75, and casting at $16 25@16 62½. Lead joined in the general advance abroad, closing at 57s 6d. Locally the market was firm and higher. Supplies for shipment in 30 days are now quoted at $5 25 and spot quotations range as high as $5 60 for small lots. Spelter was unchanged and dull at $6 10@6 20 in the local market, but advanced to £28 5s in London. Iron was somewhat irregular abroad, closing unchanged at 52s 4d for standard foundry and at 55s 4½d or about 4½d lower for Cleveland warrants. The local market was firm and northern grades was held a little higher. No. 1 foundry northern is quoted at $18 75@19 25; No. 2 foundry northern at $18 25@18 85; No. 1 foundry southern at $18 50@18 75, and No. 2 foundry southern at $18 00@18 25.

Two shifts are now being worked at the Tanopah Home and rapid progress is being made in sinking the shaft. The flow of water has increased so that there is sufficient to supply adjoining properties and yield a revenue to the company.

WEEK'S SHIPMENT OF COKE SHOWS INCREASE

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CONNELLSVILLE, PA., Nov. 16.—The coke shipments increased about 200 cars in the Connellsville region last week, and a few ovens were fired. In the Masontown field shipments fell off slightly, but little coke is being stocked. A summary of the Connellsville region for the week ended November 11 shows a total of 23,233 ovens, with 21,542 in operation, an increase of 59 ovens in the active list.

The week's production amounted to 272,306 tons, an increase of 515 tons over the previous week. The shipments aggregated 11,721 cars, distributed as follows: Pittsburgh district, 4,215; west of Pittsburgh, 6,233; east of Everson, 1,273. The shipments amounted to 277,050 tons, an increase of 1,585 tons over the previous week.

The Masontown shipments amounted to 2,431 cars, distributed as follows: Pittsburgh district, 230; west of Pittsburgh, 2,061; east of Everson, 140. The shipments from the Masontown field are estimated at 68,068 tons, a falling off of 618 tons from the preceding report.

U. & W. SHORT LINE NO PAPER AFFAIR

Road Must Be Built to Develop Properties—Tenders Made, but Not Big Enough.

P. R. R. MEN HONOR COFRODE

The Uniontown & Wheeling Short Line railroad is not to be a mere thing on paper, as so many seemingly similar projects have been. The promoters of this road own many thousands of acres of valuable coal and coke lands that can secure no other outlet so good, and the road will be built to reach these lands. Work on the construction is to proceed without delay.

There is one phase in which the road is like other chartered projects; that is, the promoters are willing to dispose of the franchises if they can get their price with provision that the road be built at once. Unless the latter condition would be agreed to by any contemplating purchaser, the deal would become void at once. J. V. Thompson, D. F. Maroney and the others who are interested planned the road for use at the earliest possible date, so as to develop the coal and coke on the properties. Tenders have been made from three Pittsburgh roads by the highest executive officers, while officers below the presidents in an executive capacity have also been endeavoring to interest the owners of the projected road in offers. But these offers have not met with the approval of the owners.

Novel Heating Plant for Shops.

The Pittsburgh & Lake Erie will install a heating plant for four of its shop buildings at McKees Rocks that is novel for this part of the country, although similar plants have been installed elsewhere. It will be a hot-air plant, the air being heated by being drawn over hot-water coils by large suction fans. There are about 17,000 feet of heating surface to be covered in the four buildings, and this will require a strong plant. The water for the coils will be heated in the power house by exhaust steam, and a pump will force the water through small pipes to the buildings, some of which are almost half a mile from the power house. After the water passes through the coils, where its heat is reduced about 60 degrees by the cold air passing over the coils, it is passed back to the power house and again heated. This system requires a very small amount of water to be added, and the carrying of the water in the small pipes is a decided improvement over the carrying of the exhaust steam directly in large pipes.

The Pittsburgh Stoker and Manufacturing Company will install the plant in the freight car repair shop, which is 175x400 feet in size and which requires a 240-inch fan, and in the cab and tender shop. The American Blower Company will install the plant in the planing mill and coach shop. The atmosphere in the freight car repair shop and the planing mill will be kept at about 60 degrees, while the cab and tender shop and the coach shop will have a temperature of about 65 degrees.

Cofrode Is Honored.

Parker F. Cofrode, who has been master carpenter of the Pittsburgh division of the Pennsylvania, with headquarters in the Union station, was shown Wednesday night that his friends hold him in the highest esteem. The Pittsburgh division work has been made into two divisions for the carpentry department, Mr. Cofrode being given the eastern half of the division, with headquarters at Johnstown, and C. W. Richey, formerly master carpenter of the West Penn division, being given charge of the west end of the main line, with headquarters in the Union station.

A large number of the men who have served under Mr. Cofrode, including the Union station force and Baggage Agent G. W. Conrad as representative of the other departments at the station, gathered at Mr. Cofrode's home in Wilkinsburg in a surprise party. They presented him with a fine gold watch and Mrs. Cofrode with a handsome cut glass water set. Harry Bailey, foreman of carpenters at the Union station, was chairman of the gift committee, and the presentation speech was made by Frederick Ehrenfeld, supervisor of the Southwest Pennsylvania branch at East Greensburg.

New Engines Are Successful.

Five of the new freight engines out of 20 for the Pittsburgh division of the Baltimore & Ohio have been received and placed in service. These are the largest ever used on the local division, weighing 210,000 pounds, while the heaviest engines used until now weighed 193,000. The new engines will be used between Connellsville, Glenwood and New Castle Junction. Superintendent B. W. Duer said yesterday that tests have been made with the engines in hauling heavy trains and have proved very satisfactory. The locomotive equipment program for 1906 has not been completed.

The four experimental engines placed in service on the Ft. Wayne some time ago are giving good satisfaction. The Cole and Baldwin compounds are being used daily in hauling trains Nos. 22 and 23, between Crestline and Chicago, and are giving excellent service. The Pacific type is being used in hauling the heavier through passenger trains. The consolidation freight engine is used on the eastern division. After the enginemen become thoroughly acquainted with the new types comparative tests will be made between these engines and the old types.

High Record for P. R. R. Coal.

The Pennsylvania railroad reached the high record of 1,072,830 tons in its coal and coke shipments for the week ended November 11. This is one of the highest records ever made in this tonnage. There were 737,403 tons of bituminous coal, 253,094 tons of coke and 82,333 tons of anthracite coal. The shipments of coal and coke for the entire year to the above date amounted to 39,311,845 tons, an increase of 4,571,263 tons, or 13.2 per cent, over the same period last year.

Frick Not in Lehigh Board.

Regarding the rumor in the east that H. C. Frick would become a member of the board of directors of the Lehigh Valley railroad, President Thomas said after a meeting of the board Wednesday: "Mr. Frick is a delightful gentleman, and I should like to see him in our board, but up to the present time I have not been advised that he has qualified by purchasing any stock. I doubt if he would have any trouble in purchasing a share or two, if he desired, even at the present high price."

Lent Moving to Smithfield Street.

John F. Lent, foreign freight broker and shippers' traffic manager, announced yesterday that he had just closed a lease for new quarters at 506 Smithfield street, where the McCormick steamship agency is now located. The McCormicks will remain, occupying half of the large room, Mr. Lent with his force of workers, taking the other half. He is now located in the Park building. He has recently made two additions to his work as traffic manager, one of these being a tracing department and the other a household goods shipping department. The latter concerns especially the shipment of household goods in consolidated carload lots from Chicago to western points. The shipment in less than carloads usually result in transfer charges, breakage, etc., and these are avoided in the consolidation at Chicago for shipment to far western points and distribution in less than carloads from such points.

Railroad Notes.

When W. F. Burch, traveling passenger agent of the Chicago Great Western, with offices here and in Buffalo, arrived in the city last night from a trip through his territory, he found the good news awaiting him that he had been promoted to district passenger agent.

W. T. Cummins, rate clerk in the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton-Pere Marquette [illegible] offices here, has returned to his desk after a month's siege of typhoid fever.

It is reported that the Pennsylvania Company is again considering the double-tracking of the seven miles of the Cleveland & Pittsburgh division from Terminal Junction, above Martins Ferry, to Bellaire.

The Baltimore & Ohio Equipment Company, an adjunct to the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, which was recently incorporated in Delaware with $1,000,000 capital, has been organized by the election of George M. Schriver, C. W. Rhodes, H. R. Preston and C. W. Woolford of Baltimore and A. E. Sanborn of Wilmington, as directors.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul has issued one of its "One Night Chicago to Denver" circulars with a frontispiece of leaves in colors as an enticement to travelers to see the Rockies in their autumn foliage.

Superintendent of Motive Power Turner, Auditor Kennedy, Superintendent of Car Service Hoffman and Chief Clerk Conway of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie returned from the freight car repair pool meeting at Buffalo.

A. E. Robbins, superintendent of the Buffalo division of the Wabash, has resigned, effective December 1. He will spend the next year on his farm near Indianapolis. The Detroit and Buffalo divisions will be consolidated with George M. Burns as superintendent.

The Gould roads have followed the Pennsylvania and Baltimore & Ohio in placing an embargo on routing over another route when the freight can be carried on the roads owned.

MARSHALL IS NOT GUILTY

Judge Macfarlane dismissed the case of Frank E. Hodge, the chauffeur for R. M. Gulick, who ran over and severely injured Frank Pocci, an Italian, and who was afterward arrested and brought back from Buffalo, when a hue and cry was raised about the reckless driving of automobiles. The plaintiff and his attorney, Judge Cohen, asked that the case be dismissed, as Pocci had been compensated for his injuries and wanted to return to Italy at once. It developed that he was paid $1,250. The court was loath to grant the request, but when Hodge and Mrs. Gulick both testified they were going only about four or five miles an hour, he finally consented after remarking:

"The way automobiles are run in Pittsburgh, now, is almost criminal, and somebody will be killed before long. This case is somewhat notorious and I would like to hear some witness who is not an interested party."

Mrs. Gulick told the court Hodge had tried to prevent striking the Italian by every means in his power. Judge Macfarlane consulted Assistant District Attorney John S. Robb, Jr., before granting the request.

Superintendent of Detectives McQuaide and Detective Lally were sitting in the detective headquarters early yesterday evening when one of them picked up a newspaper and read of the disposition of the Hodge case. McQuaide became almost white with wrath.

McQuaide Is Very Angry.

"This is an outrage," he said. "They have gone into court and deceived Judge Macfarlane. I was the prosecutor in the case; Detective Lally spent two weeks in New York state getting Hodge; we had plenty of evidence to convict him of the charge in the indictment. I was not called into court; Lally was not told the case was to come up; the 20 witnesses whom we secured evidently were not summoned into court. I did not know the case was to be brought up, else I would have been there with the witnesses."

Assistant District Attorney Robb was told what McQuaide had said.

"They had no business to be in court," said Mr. Robb. "The Italian was the real prosecutor, and McQuaide appeared as prosecutor in that case as he does in a hundred others, and he is never in court. The case was not listed for trial; it was brought up because it was settled. The real prosecutor, the Italian, was there. He had bought his ticket for Italy and was going to leave tomorrow. If we had not had the case in court today we would never have had a good case, with the Italian gone. The case was disposed of like many others. These detectives make me tired. They can make all the fuss they want to. I think we know our business in the prosecuting attorney's office. The civil suit for damages was settled and the Italian got $1,250."

The verdict in the case of Arthur G. Marshall, the insurance man, was handed in when criminal court opened yesterday morning. The jury found him not guilty, but the costs were not placed on the prosecution, and Marshall will be called upon to pay them.

Clarence Riddle, a youth formerly employed in the office of the superintendent of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, entered a plea of guilty to a charge of conspiracy. Riddle, it was alleged, stole a number of railroad pass books from the superintendent's office and gave them to different persons to dispose of.

Processes Issued for 10 Women.

Processes were issued for 10 women charged with keeping disorderly houses in connection with the anti-graft crusade in Allegheny, who failed to appear for trial yesterday. Five women charged with the same offenses, appeared and pleaded guilty. Sentence will be imposed a week from Saturday. Those who pleaded guilty are: Jennie Lacock, West Robinson street; Mabel Russell, West Robinson street; Kate O'Brien, 608 Ann street; Mary Miller, 10 Arbuckle alley, and Jennie Lennox, 223 Robinson street. The charges specifically are selling liquor illegally and keeping a disorderly house.

Judge Shafer declined to approve the bond for $10,000, which Versailles township was ordered to file in its equity suit against the Pittsburgh & Westmoreland Railroad Company, when an injunction was granted the township, restraining the road's construction on a road in the township. The court says the bond was executed in the name of the township, but one supervisor only signed it, the other being unwilling to sign because he did not wish to continue the litigation.

In the United States circuit court the case of Mrs. Julia Eva Dean to recover $20,000 for the death of her husband, who was struck by a car and killed at Charleroi, is on trial.

The cases of Malissa and Joseph C. Crownover against the Supreme council, Royal Arcanum, were settled by agreement, Malissa Crownover getting a verdict of $3,000 and the defendant getting a verdict in the other case.

The jury in the case of Joseph L. Caldwell against H. S. Kerbaugh brought in a verdict of $2,525 for the plaintiff. He had sued for $20,000 for the loss of both eyes. George F. Bauersmith got a verdict of $4,012.66 against the Extreme Gold Mining and Milling Company for selling stock.

An error was made in the statement relative to an application for a receiver by Katherine Prim and others. The receiver was wanted for Charles Binger and not for F. C. Danner, who was one of the petitioners that had asked for the appointment.

Wants the Dividends Returned.

Theodore Cappell, receiver for Schilling Bros.' Company, has sued George Murowski for $687.50 and William Irving Hoft for $1,395. The amounts are alleged by the receiver to have been paid the defendants, who were stockholders in the company, by P. C. Schilling, president of the concern, as dividends without authority of the board of directors or stockholders. It is charged that Schilling did this knowing the corporation was not earning dividends.

S. H. Rickard sues Andrew S. Heuslein for $10,000 damages, alleging malicious prosecution and false arrest.

John M. Paton sues Samuel Keith for $5,000 damages, alleging slander.

Catherine Martin secured a verdict of $600 in her suit against Alderman Charles Von Moss of Allegheny. She charged he collected $5.19 costs from her illegally, but he denies this, saying the payment of the costs by her was a condition to the dismissal of a charge made against her.

Jesse M., William G., Julia A. and Jennie O. McGeary entered a suit against the supreme assembly of the Royal Society of Good Fellows for $3,000. This amount is claimed on a benefit certificate.

Executions issued: Mary A. Diamond vs. M. A. Freeman et al., $457; Pittsburgh Central Building and Loan association vs. Daniel Shields, $2,912; same vs. John Loverty, $2,548; William McCandless, use, vs. Margaret Brown, extrx., etc., $6,689; S. B. Donaldson, use, vs. Murray Stoops et al., extrs., etc., $685; Marcus Mazer vs. John G. Ferguson, $2,478; Peter Mink, assignee, vs. Arion A. Potts, mortgagor, etc., $2,186; Jacob E. Young, use, vs. Thomas Higham, $4,075; John Corbit, assignee, vs. Alice E. Biggs et al., etc., $1,291; Dollar Savings bank vs. Harry A. Hampton, notice, $1,814; same vs. Daniel H. Barr, trustee, etc., $17,753, an action on a mortgage; Adam Diehl vs. Albert Vierheller, notice, $1,762; Mrs. Minnie Morgan, use, vs. Herman F. Steinecke, $2,281.

C. B. Bratt, an Allegheny dentist, sues William Aitkenhead for $60, the price of a set of artificial teeth.

Prof. John A. Brashear Deals Entertainingly With Subject Before Current Topics Class.

Members of the current topics class of the Eighth street temple formed an attentive audience last evening to hear the lecture by Prof. John A. Brashear on "How Worlds Are Made." The lecture was illustrated by stereopticon views of several of the famous nebula well known to the students of astronomy. The professor showed the nebula in all its shapes, the annular nebula, planetary, spiral and stellar. A number of close views of the moon were also given, showing the wonderful structures of the craters and the total absence of life.

After the lecture a vote of thanks was given Mr. Brashear and several paid him high compliments in short speeches. The next lecture for the class will be given by the Rev. Dr. Arundel of Trinity Episcopal church, on next Thursday evening, at the temple. The subject has not yet been announced.

Railroad Men in Session.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 16.—The annual joint conference of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen began here today with a large attendance. The first session was secret. An open meeting was held in the afternoon, and addresses by prominent men were delivered.

ASK FOR MORE LIGHTS.

Rivermen Meet With the Government Inspectors and Make Requests.

Over 25 prominent river men met with Government Inspectors Atkinson and Williams yesterday and requested that more lights be placed on the towboats and other craft in the local rivers. The river men claim that a string of tows under way at night is seldom lighted up well, and there is always a source of danger to other boats running in the same stream. More lights were also asked for the various locks in this vicinity. The inspectors took the matter under advisement.

The Ben Hur arrived from Parkersburg yesterday and returned during the afternoon. The Rose Hite finished her first trip of the season here yesterday and returned to Morgantown.

A surburban packet line has been instituted between Allegheny and Sewickley by Capt. Samuel Anderson. The steamer Pastime will operate between these two points and will leave the terminals on alternate days, departing from Allegheny on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

Charge Use of Adulterations.

Constables from Alderman Groetzinger's office were in McKeesport yesterday serving summons upon a dozen dealers charging violations of the pure food laws. The informations were made by Pure Food Agents Frost, Miller, Hutchins and McGregor, and are the result of a crusade started several days ago against butchers, dairymen and grocers, suspected of using adulterations.

FAIL TO SECURE A JURY.

Court Has Summoned the Fourth Venire for Duty in Harbison Murder Trial.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Nov. 16.—(Special.)—After having been in session until 6 o'clock this evening the jury to try James I. Harbison for the murder of Louis V. Bergman last July, was not complete and another venire of 15 men has been summoned from the city, making the fourth. The defense has exhausted five challenges. The panel remains 11.

Mrs. Harbison, wife of the prisoner, who was with Bergman when he was shot, will not attend the trial. "I am not wanted," she said, "and I shall not go where I am not wanted. I hope he will be acquitted. I shall wait for him and not get a divorce. I would go back and live with him if he wanted me to, but I suppose he doesn't want me to now."
